FOURTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION

of the

UNITED DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY

NORTH CAROLINA DIVISION

FIRST DAY—Morning Session

The Fourteenth Annual Convention of the North Carolina Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met Wednesday morning, October 12th, 1910, at 10:30 o'clock in Rocky Mount, the city by the Tar.

Rocky Mount is proud of its patriotic heritage, for she has in her midst two of the living Bethel Heroes.

There has never been a more pleasing program, so intermingled with Southern intellectuality and songs.

The exercises were opened by our beloved Chaplain, Miss Hettie James, of Wilmington; followed by the Old North State, sung by the choir.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by three of Rocky Mount's most prominent citizens; the Mayor, Hon. T. T. Thorne, Mr. Jos. B. Ramsey and Mr. J. O. W. Gravelly and one by Mrs. M. O. Winstead, the able and enthusiastic President of the Bethel Heroes chapter.

HON. T. T. THORNE'S ADDRESS

In 1865, at the close of the war when the ragged Confederate Soldier buttoned his old gray jacket around him and turned his back upon the new made graves of his comrades in Virginia and his face toward his home in Dixie, he was confronted with a dual duty and responsibility. The one was to restore and rebuild to its pristine glory and beauty the fairest land that the sun in his course shines upon, the other to keep alive the heroic spirit of his people, the spirit that would make them brave and gallant in war, and sane, patriotic and wise in the hour of peace.

The soldier and his son because of the superior strength with which nature had endowed them, assumed for their part to build up the farms and restore the cities of the land, and so the days and years passed by. The time of reckoning has come. The confederate soldier has given an example to all the world not only of heroism in war but industrial and commercial achievements in time of peace.

To the women of the South the returned Confederate soldier committed the larger and more responsible duty of preserving the history of his own achievement for the inspiration of those to come after him, to form and mould characters redolent with Christian graces—strong and vigorous in all civic efforts and brave and gallant in war.

And so over her work 45 years has likewise come and gone. The hour has struck and the finished product comes from the workman's hand. Bolder in its outlines than the everlasting Alps in the eyes of the world appears her handiwork and creation—the character of the Southern people. When Knighthood died the reverent world placed in its grave the glittering coat of mail and waving plumes but it kept for the people of the south its prieeless heritage of Chivalry:

Self reliant, with high and holy ideals of society and government the world is looking now to the children of those who linked their destiny to the stars and bars and followed the fortunes of Jackson and Lee to save in its hour of peril this wonderful country of ours and give to it its rightful place among the nations of the earth.

To you, the Ladies of the South belongs the glory of it all. Like Cornelia, the mother of the Gracchi you can place your hands upon the heads of our civic heroes and heroines and say "these are my jewels."

The organization known as the United Daughters of the Confederacy is the voice and expression of this spirit of noble womanhood that has dared and won so much for our Southland.

The voice and form are both with us to-day. With reverant heads we stand uncovered in your presence; why say words of welcome to our Queen who wears a sparkling diadem and glorifies a throne?

A long time ago when the silver moon was shining and shedding its soft and gentle radiance over the dew bespangled grass and flowers we offered you our hands and hearts. I come again commissioned by all the good people of this loyal Southern town to revive in your minds this sweet remembrance and to offer you our hearts and hands and homes, and to say that so long as you choose to abide with us, the keys of this city are yours and in all else we are yours to command.

MR. JAS. B. RAMSEY'S ADDRESS

MADAM PRESIDENT; UNITED DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY; LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

From Rocky Mount Lodge No. 84, Knights of Pythias, and Rocky Mount Lodge No. 1038, Benevolent & Protective Order of Elks, I bring you greetings, and in behalf of local brotherhood generally I extend to you a most cordial welcome.

We congratulate you upon this splendid Convention: we rejoice that you hold it in Rocky Mount; and we trust that your deliberations ended will find each of you in love with our city.

Your local Chapter "Bethel, Heroes," Daughters of the Confederacy, has spared no pains and left no stone unturned to make this the most interesting and successful Convention in your history, and our people generally have looked forward to your coming. We are truly glad you are here.

It is difficult for me to add anything to the warm welcome so cordially extended to you by our Chief Magistrate, the Mayor, and yet, at the risk of too many words, we would still further assure you of our deep interest in those things, business and social, in which you are about to engage.

When I was asked a few days ago to say something in behalf of my fellow Elks and Pythians, I did not stop to consider my inability, but just rushed in where I might well have feared to tread—anxious to proclaim my allegiance to your organization, which has done so much to perpetuate Southern traditions and ideals and to preserve Southern history—anxious too to express my admiration for the noblest and most beautiful type of all the Creator's handiwork, Southern woman.

You played no small part in that great struggle between the States. Without you the war could not have lasted six months. With your aid and your sacrifice it was prolonged for four long years.

At all times you were the inspiration and the hope, the light that never failed. You were the "pillar of fire" and ever "like the shadow of a great rock in a weary land."

You were the song of the Old South: you are the theme of the New South; and to-day in this high hour of peace and commercialism, when men are prone to forget, we find you banded together, United Daughters of the Confederacy, all still loyal to Southern rights, democracy, and, thank God, to white supremacy.

As Elks we applaud you; as Pythians we cheer you, and as Citizens we welcome you.

A few years ago, and only a short while before he died, it was my privilege to hear General Gordon deliver his famous lecture on "The Last Days of the Confederacy." I have never heard a more glowing description of the waning fortunes of the Confederacy, nor higher tribute paid to the Southern Army, the grandest that ever assembled to marshal music, or drew sword in defence of a Nation's honor.

I only wish that every man, woman and child in the South might have heard him. It made me love my Southland better and proud that I am a citizen of North Carolina.

And sometimes now when I think of that magnificent oration and the glamour of war time is about me, I feel for the moment that I would be willing to be an old man with gray hair, and tottering step and slow, if only I might have been a soldier under Lee and a follower of Stonewall Jackson. If only I might have known a Confederate soldier's devotion to duty, and seen that vast army bow its head in prayer and ask the God of the Confederacy if it be His will to bless its fortunes; if only I might have been able to have faced the cannon's mouth unflinching, and looking straight into the "valley of the shadow of death" have said with them: "And to die, if to die I must, with heart unswerved and face to the sod, give thanks to God, that I fought like a man with men." I say, if I could have known and done these things, I sometimes feel I would willingly be an old man with gray hair, and tottering step and slow.

My friends, to have been there must have been glorious, nothing else will describe it.

But I must not detain you; you are waiting to hear Mr. Dixon. In conclusion, I am reminded of a little story which is not original with me, and which I have told to my home people before, but they will pardon its repetition I hope, for it expresses so well what I wish to say: A few years ago, down by the docks of the great City of Boston, a cripple lad was accustomed to linger, and in return for the pennies tossed him by the captains and sailors of the great ships as they passed on their way to sea, he wished them a "bon voyage," saying "good luck to you, Mr. Captain, good luck to your crew." And so, Madam President and United Daughters of the Confederacy, in return for the pleasure you have given us by coming to Rocky Mount, in the name of the Orders I represent, I say to to you: Good luck to you, Madam Captain, good luck to your Crew.

MR. GRAVELLY'S ADDRESS.

Madam President; Ladies of the Daughters of the Confederacy:

From sixty-one to sixty-five, the days and hours that were being indelibly written in the memory of the World's citizenship by the courage, valor, blood-shed and even death of the boys of the then Oasis of the Universe, there seemed to hover over sweet old Dixie, the deepest sorrow and darkest gloom. But it was not so, for from behind the clouds, the love and patriotism of God's greatest handiwork sent forth rays of hope, cheerfulness and love, converting darkness into light, weakness into strength, despair into determination, and defeat into victory.

Although the precious "Old rag," whose memory envelopes the hearts of every true southerner, was dipped at Appomattox into the cup of submission to unequal power, yet, our great, noble and universally loved Chieftain was not defeated, nor the cause for which the nations truest and bravest men for four years fought, lost.

As a result of the awful conflict, slavery was abolished, as in my opinion it would and should have been in any event, but the cause which prompted our people to appeal to the highest tribunal known to man, reigns victoriously today in the hearts of every true American.

I beg you to accept these feeble words, not as flattery, but as unpolished praise most worthily deserved, for no cause, however, great or small since the return of Christ to His Father's bosom, has succeeded that was not blessed with the stamp of woman's approval. Whatever achievments, whatever success, whatever victory crowned the Southern arms is directly tracable and must be attributed to the incentives furnished the Boys in Gray by wives, sisters and mothers. Even the sad hours of yonder days have largely transformed into sweet memories, by woman's love and devotion as exemplified by their glorious and most successful efforts to forever perpetuate the memories of the brave deeds and heroic acts of the Boys who fell in defence of the Southern and most righteous cause, and with hearts full of sympathy and hands ever ready, make the remainder of life's short journey of the humble yet bravest of the brave, who escaped death on that memorable journey from Bethel to Appomattox, both comfortable and happy. If we who have been permitted to live to see with our own eyes and hear with our own ears the great work you are doing, can sing your praise, in the Name of High Heaven, what would those whose lives were given on the field of battle say and do, should they be allowed to return to earth. Forgotton? No never. Neglected? Not until the memories of the days of "Stonewall" and "Mars Bob" have been blotted from every Southern mind by the paint brush of death. Your work ladies, is a most glorious work. It doubtless has, does now, and will until the end receive the most hearty support of every loyal Southern son.

To me it appears nothing short of mockery for the Rocky Mount Tobacco Board of Trade, which I have the honor to represent on this occasion, to bid these patriotic souls welcome to our city. To say that we are glad to have you in our midst, is but a faint expression of the real pleasure your presence among us affords. Our hearts and our homes are open to you and when this, your annual convention shall have finished its work and you return to your respective places of abode, may the blessings of Him who always strengthens and supports the advocates of a rightuous cause, be heaped upon you in untold quantities and may you be assured that when your task on earth is done, there awaits your coming to the world beyond, a sweet and never ending reunion with those whose memories you are here to-day to honor,

MRS. M. O. WINSTEAD'S ADDRESS

Madam President, Ladies, Friends, Daughters of the Confederacy:

The honorable Mayor of Rocky Mount has thrown wide open the gates of our city, to welcome you, and has delivered the keys into your hands and conferred upon you the freedom of the town. Our genial young friend, Mr. Ramsey has graciously expressed to you a cordial greeting from two of the most benevolent fraternities in our city, and he has assured you that these fraternities, The Pythians and the Elks, are happy in your coming. Warm and earnest were the words of welcome from the representative of the Tobacco Board of Trade, Mr. J. O. W. Gravelly. He has expressed the pleasure and gratification of the business element of our city in having you with us. To me is reserved the honor and the pleasure of extending to you in behalf of the Bethel Heroes Chapter and the ladies of our town a still warmer welcome, a welcome to our homes and firesides, and to our hearts best wishes; to the best within our borders. I say unto you "Go ye up and possess the land." We are yours to serve; you must us command.

When we look into your faces and see representatives of the finest womanhood in our land we do indeed feel honored. Our city is honored as it has never been before. These women are here in this great work of collecting and preserving the story of the great struggle between the states. Educating the coming generations in the truths of Confederate history. Building in stone and marble their monuments to valor, and building living memorials that reach out helpful hands to war scared veterans and to their aged wives and widows. Yes, Daughters, welcome, many times welcome, and may your stay within our gates be one continued feast of good things, intellectual and material and when the Convention of 1910 shall have been numbered with the past, may you feel that "It is well, that you were here." We offer you the best we have; enter and take possession.

These were warmly responded to by our honored State President, Mrs. F. M. Williams.

MADAM PRESIDENT OF THE BETHEL HEROES CHAPTER, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

When the Bethel Heroes chapter last fall extended to the North Carolina Division an invitation to be its guests in 1910, every Daughter felt that a warm welcome awaited her in the city by the Tar. Today you have given us a welcome more cordial than our brightest expectation could conceive. A welcome to your hearts and homes. A welcome that is deeply appreciated, not only by the delegates assembled beneath your roofs, but one that reaches the heart of each of the 4000 North Carolina Daughters, whom they represent.

When the brave men, from whom we each claim our Confederate heritage, went forth at the call to arms, Rocky Mount was but a struggling village. Today she stands a proud example of what Southern grit and Southern perseverance can accomplish. Her manufacturies, her tobacco, her cotton have made her one of the queen cities of the east, and today the village of the past is lost in the thrift and magnificence of the present. May each succeeding year find her crowned with greater glory and more abundant prosperity.

Daughters of the Confederacy, we are the guests of the Bethel Heroes chapter. What a glorious title is theirs, and yet a greater heritage have they also. For have they not within their midst two of these same Bethel Heroes.

How our hearts beat with pride, when as a state we can claim such men as our citizens. Mere boys were they when at the call for volunteers to fire that lonely house filled with Yankees, these six brave youths quickly stepped to the front. What courage was theirs, when they knew that almost certain death stared them in the face, Brave, noble, grand. Henry Wyatt fell, to live forever as the first to shed his blood for the Southern cause, but the other five men were left us for a while to love and honor. Two have since joined Wyatt across the river, beneath the trees. Today are we thrice honored for not only have we as hostess the chapter named for these great men, but we have them also in our midst. Rocky Mount above all her other attractions claims the greatest privilege of being the home of two of these grand heroes.

Therefore Daughters of the North Carolina Division we have more than usual to be grateful for in the kind invitations given us for this year's convention. May our meeting be an inspiration to us to aim at greater and yet nobler things, may peace and good will be our watchword in every action, and may the convention at Rocky Mount be the best, the most fruitful we have ever known.

Madam President and gentlemen, again in the name of the North Carolina Division I thank you for your kind words of welcome.

Mrs. Jas. C. Braswell and Mrs. Geo. G. Hales delightfully entertained by singing "Furl that Banner."

We were unusually fortunate in having an address by another of North Carolina's sons who has won fame throughout the country, Thomas Dixon, having recently written another play, "The Sins of the Father."

Probably the most touching part of the program was the presentation to the North Carolina Division U. D. C. by the Hon. F. S. Spruill a gavel made by a Rocky Mount veteran, Mr. Christian, from a piece of dogwood grown on the spot where Henry L. Wyatt was killed. The dogwood was procured by Mrs. John H. Thorpe, wife of one of the living Bethel Heroes.

HON. F. S. SPRUILL'S ADDRESS

MADAM PRESIDENT, LADIES, AND GENTLEMEN:

On Monday morning, June 10th, 1861, a shot was fired which was heard around the world. Almost within the sacred precincts of a quiet country church, where everything suggested peace, and the echo of the toiling Sabbath bells had barely died away, the first battle was fought in a conflict that proved the most sanguinary in the world's history. The blood and treasure lost and spent in that gigantic conflict would feed and clothe the poor of the world for a century. It is not meet for this occasion that I should attempt any vindication of the cause for which we fought. History, within half a century of the events which made it, has justly appraised our course, and our mighty struggle has ceased to be termed a "rebellion" and is now justly called the "War for Southern Independence."

Neither is it necessary for me to add one word to the just tribute the world has paid to Southern valor and heroism. Since time was, there has been no such exhibition of dauntless courage and deathless loyalty as was displayed by Southern men and women in those four years of blood and carnage. It is not invidious that from all this display of glorious manhood I should point to one heroic figure whose deeds of high emprise on that Monday morning half a century ago were a sort of first-fruits, a shining portent of that, at the doing of which, the world was to stand amazed. A great war was ushered in, and on its first day, while myriad bullets, speeding from hostile guns, were whining their messages of death Col. Hill, in command of the immortal Bethel regiment, passing down the lines pointed to an empty house in the enemy's possession, which formed a valuable strategic point for their sharp-shooters, and asked Capt. Bridgers if he could not have it burned. It should be borne in mind that his men were not drilled and hardened soldiers, used to death and grown callous to scenes of bloodshed. They were beardless boys whose largest experience in matters of life and death, up to that time, had been a fox chase, or perhaps a deer hunt. And yet, when Capt. Bridgers asked for volunteers to go through that hail of death and burn that house, as if they had been invited guests speeding to a bridal dance, six men, North Carolinians all, leaped forward to perform the fatal mission. Geo. T. Williams, Thomas Fallon, John H. Thorp, Robert H. Ricks, Henry L. Wyatt and Robert H. Bradley; truly it is a roll of immortals, of men who were not born to die. I will not tarry to pay just tribute to this illustrious sextette, their heroic deed has spoken them into deserved fame. As the enemy's guns thundered a volley, Henry Wyatt fell, as becomes a man and a soldier, with his face to the foe. From a wound in his forehead the slowly oozing blood told the story of his death. Hear the account given by Maj. Randolph, an eye witness to its happening, fifty years ago: "On getting there (to the battle field) I learned from the infantry that a small house in front was occupied by sharp-shooters, and I saw the body of a Carolinian lying thirty yards in front of the battery. He had been killed in a most gallant attempt to burn the house." What a legacy of honor to leave to his loved ones! What noble epitaph can be written above a soldier's grave!

That Carolinian was Henry Wyatt, in whose memory the patriotic women of the State are now engaged in building a worthy monument. His was the first life offered upon the altar of the South, in token of her supreme faith in the justice of her cause.

The years have passed. On the battle field of Big Bethel in spring time now the mating birds sing and the flowers blossom. Near the spot where the life blood of Henry Wyatt enriched the soil, there sprang up a lusty young dogwood, whose star likeflowers, by their silent symbolism, have annually reiterated the truth of a nation's peace. Not long since, a Confederate soldier, Jno. L. Christian, compatriot of Wyatt and Thorp and Bradley, walking over the blood-baptized field of Big Bethel, and living again in memory its glorious history, cut, as a memento of his visit, the dogwood into whose sap had been drawn young Wyatt's life-blood. The fancy seized him to make it into a gavel to fit the hand of the presiding officer of that organization that is now engaged in preserving for posterity the history of those times and of the men who made them. For the Daughters of the Confederacy, who gave to the cause, in time of war a deathless devotion, and in time of peace a constant memory; who are even now piously and persistently gathering together the matter from which will be written a true history of that mighty epoch, he designed and carved this symbol of authority. In the name of John L. Christian, Confederate Veteran, worthily wearing his cross of honor and marching to meet the enemy, now as he did half a century ago, smiling and unafraid, the Bethel Heroes Chapter presents this gavel, with its history as I have told it, to the North Carolina Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. On it the patient hand of this old Confederate has lovingly etched the features of those two princes of the earth, Lee and Jackson. To him, as to us, they were the world's best types of men and soldiers. May the meetings rapped to order with this gavel be conducted with the same high sense of patriotism that inspired them whose features adorn it.

The gavel was accepted by Mrs. Williams in most appropriate words.

Mr. Ricks and Mr. Thorpe were escorted to the rostrum and General William Ruffin Cox who commanded the last charge at Appomatox, after repeated calls responded most happily for a few moments.

After the presentation of the state flag by Mrs. W. C. Feimster of the Ransom-Sherrill Chapter, Newton, and its acceptance by the State President, the Fourteenth Annual Convention was declared ready for business by Mrs. F. M. Williams.

MRS. FEIMSTER'S ADDRESS

As it is customary for a State Flag to be presented at roll call at every General Convention, and as this year North Carolina's President will be one of our own loved members, the Ransom-Sherrill Chapter, through me, wishes to present the flag that will be sent to Little Rock by the North Carolina Division.

We do this as a token of the love we bear our fellow-member; as well as a mark of the high esteem in which she is held by her chapter, for her untiring zeal in state and chapter work, and for loyalty and devotion to the Confederate cause.

Mrs. Williams, may you bear this to the Little Rock Convention with the same love and pride that you have ever given to the work of the Ransom-Sherrill chapter.

Mrs. Winstead made the motion that the following resolution be sent Prof. Hill:

It appearing that from his history of the late war, Prof. D. H. Hill has omitted the name of R. H. Ricks from the list of the six men at Big Bethel who attempted to storm the empty house, now be it resolved that a letter be written to the author calling attention to his omission and asking him to correct the same."

The roll call showed present Honorary Presidents, Mrs. W. M. Parsley and Mrs. E. E. Moffitt; Honorary Vice-President, Mrs. T. J. Jarvis. The officers absent were Miss Carry Leazar of Mooresville, 3rd Vice-President, and Mrs. Thos. Lee Craig, of Gastonia, Recorder of Crosses; Miss Rebecca Cameron, Hillsboro, Historian and Mrs. W. O. Shannon of Henderson, Asst. Historian.

After the roll call by the recording secretary and report from the Chairman of the Credential Committee, the motion was made to adjourn for luncheon, given at the Cambridge Hotel by the city aldermen to the N. C. Division United Daughters of the Confederacy.

FIRST DAY—Afternoon Session

The afternoon session was called to order by the President at 2:45 o'clock. Immediately after the opening Mrs. Williams was presented with a cane made by Mr. Christian, with the message, "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world."

Mrs. Winstead then read invitations: One extending courtesies from the manager of the Gem Theatre to the members of the Convention, and the other to a reception to be given by the Pythians, at night from 8:30 to 11 o'clock.

Telegrams of greetings were read from the President General, Mrs. McSherry; North Carolina's Asst. Historian, Mrs. W. O. Shannon; the 3rd Vice President, Miss Carrie Leazar; also from Mrs. Frank Anthony Walke, Norfolk, Va. Motion was made and carried that these telegrams be responded to. This was done.

Annual report of the President was read and accepted with thanks:

REPORT OF PRESIDENT

DEAR DAUGHTERS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA DIVISION:

One year ago you placed me in the highest office within your gift, and it has been my earnest endeavor to give you the best service in my power. Nothing has come before my work in the Division. I have given to every work and every question my most earnest thought and attention. Every letter or postal has been answered the day it was received. Promptness and conscientious attention to duty has been my watchword and it remains with you to say whether you think I have faithfully fulfilled the high trust you gave into my keeping last fall at Wilmington.

Soon after that Convention closed I sent out a letter of warmest greetings to every chapter and urged them to pay special attention to each and every branch of our State and General work.

It was not long after the Convention that the State treasurer notified me that there was a deficit of $4.02 in the amount due the painter for the Randolph-Shotwell portrait. There being $6.00 in the treasurer's hands credited to the Wirz Monument fund and that being completed your president ordered the treasurer to place $4.02 to the credit of the Shotwell portrait fund and thus liquidate our indebtedness to Mrs. Marshall Williams, the remaining $1.98 being added to the State fund.

Early in December cards were sent out to the Chapters notifying them of the continued illness of our Recorder of Crosses and stating that all papers for Crosses of Honor should be sent to your president until the Recorder should be able to resume her work.

Your president's attention was next called, by a newspaper clipping, to the fact that the Confederate Veteran at Nashville had published a statement that North Carolina had but two monuments to her Confederate dead, one at Pittsboro and one at Bentonville. Immediately your president made out a list of all the monuments of which she knew, and refuting this assertion in the strongest terms sent a copy of her letter to the Veteran, Keystone, News and Observer, and Charlotte Observer requesting publication. She also asked her Corresponding Secretary to send a card to every Chapter, requesting that they notify her at once which had monuments, which contemplated erecting and also to send the name of any towns they knew had a Confederate Monument but where there was no U. D. C. Chapter. Our list of these monuments, erected to North Carolina Soldiers is very incomplete and your president would urge that Chapters take some interest in aiding and securing a thoroughly correct list.

Having been told by your last president of the earnest request by the Committee in Richmond for a North Carolina flag to float above our state column in the Jefferson Davis monument on certain occasions your president early in the year obtained through the courtesy of Mrs. Allison Hodges, your vice regent of the N. C. room, the desired dimensions. The best wool bunting flag was ordered and sent to Richmond where on May 10th it waved above the N. C. column.

In December a heavy bereavement caused Mrs. Brodnax, our most efficient chairman of the educational committee, to resign her work and Mrs. William H. Overman was appointed to fill her place.

Your president has been called upon to make several decisions in very important matters, and it now remains with the convention to decide whether those rulings were correct or not, but to them all she gave much thought before deciding.

1st. An appeal came from Florence, Alabama for $50 towards the purchase of Christmas seals to be sold for the benefit of the Arlington monument. Our state treasury could not stand the strain, but North Carolina must not be delinquent in her duty, so your president ordered the treasurer to pay this amount out of the Arlington fund, as that seemed best, since all the proceeds of the sale of these stamps would go to the Arlington Monument.

2nd. Late in the spring came another request for a decision and that was whether a mother chapter had a right to take from a Children's chapter, money which they had made, and desired or intended to otherwise use. In this matter your president, decided that the children under their leader, had a right to control their own funds.

A request came in August from our President General for the name of a good worker to be placed as Director from North Carolina on the Dan Emmitt Monument fund and the name of Mrs. John H. Anderson, president of the J. E. B. Stuart chapter, Fayetteville was sent her.

The work along all lines has been progressing finely as will be shown by the different reports. The money for the Henry Wyatt Monument is about completed and the 50th anniversary of the day on which the Bethel Heroes performed their deed of valor, and our

First at Bethel fell, will see the veil fall from the handsome bronze statue to his memory.

The Endowment Fund to the North Carolina Room should call for prompt attention. We must not lag behind other states in this matter.

In April and again in May your president met with the committee on the Boy Soldier Monument at Chapel Hill, at that place; plans and designs were submitted and work begun in earnest, and a stirring appeal is now made to the ladies present to return to their homes determined to lose no time in raising the required money for the cause.

Our educational work has been progressing finely. Many appeals have been sent out to local institutions, with the result that fourteen scholarships were reported to the General Educational Committee in July. Of these the Division supports three at the State Normal, Greensboro, covering all expenses, the University gives two free tuition scholarships, one to the state, one to the general organization. There is one at A. and M. College at Raleigh. The others are local scolarships awarded by chapters or individuals, and given only to descendants of Confederate soldiers. Of these Charlotte is the oldest, then there is one at Mt, Pleasant College for tuition, room rent and fees; the others are all for tuition, namely, at Fassifern in Lincolnton, given in honor of Judge Wm. J. Shipp, one at Davenport College, Lenoir, one at Oxford Female Seminary one at Claremont College, Hickory; one at Catawba College, Newton, and one at Concordia College, Conover. Your president is justly proud that in her home county three of these scolarships have been given.

During the past year, as well as can be learned, there have been erected the following monuments; at Reidsville, Lenoir, Monroe, Rutherfordton, Morganton, and Henderson will unveil this month. Winton and Durham have laid cornerstones. A tablet commemorative of the Confederate Navy Yard in Charlotte has been placed. This tablet is on the spot where stood the Navy Yard when moved from Norfolk. The Dixie-Lee Children's Chapter of Tarboro will on October 18th unveil their fountain to Henry Wyatt.

The Division has been augmented by three new chapters, King's Mountain at King's Mountain, Raeford at Raeford, and Ransom-Lee at Sanford, making 88. Three others have their papers about ready. Children's chapters have been organized at the following places, the Rockingham Volunteers, Reidsville; Lee-Jackson, Durham; Richardson Mallet, Chapel Hill; Bonnie Blue Flag, Lenoir, and one at Mt. Olive, and one at Graham. The Children of the Confederacy now number 33.

Three U. D. C. chapters have been reported dead and stricken from the roll after repeated attempts to revive them: Matt Ransom, Middleton; Holly Springs, Holly Springs; and Clayton, Clayton.

356 U. D. C, certificates have been signed and sent out to chapters.

In May your president was appealed to by Mrs. Brooks, to take up the Soldier's Home work again as they needed help. This was done, and here the suggestion is made that we never drop the work again till the Home ceases to exist.

Your president would urge the Daughters to subscribe for the Keystone. One copy at least should be taken by every chapter in the state, and its N. C. column read at the monthly meetings. Thus are you kept in touch with the work of your Division, and you can also gain valuable information regarding what is being done in other states. Chapter secretaries are urged to keep Mrs. Gordon Finger of Charlotte informed, from time to time, of work done by their chapters, so as to give her material for her monthly reports.

In August your president was requested by General Irvine Walker, Secretary of the Monument to Confederate Women Association to make an appeal to the Daughters of North Carolina. This she did and Gen. Walker had the appeal printed and gave your president a number of copies, which will shortly be sent out to the different chapters. This appeal will be read to the convention later in its session.

Your president would suggest that hereafter stationery be furnished to the Chairman of each committee, as it would give more dignity and prestige to the office. Also that each chairman be allowed to have her postage paid out of the amount collected for the work she represents. Those committees doing state work without collecting money should however have their postage paid out of the state fund.

The suggestion is also made that the number of minutes printed be increased to 600, as your president found this year, after sending the allotted amount to each of the chapters, that there were not enough left over to meet the demand from outside parties and use in organizing new chapters.

All pledges made at the Houston Convention in the name of the North Carolina Division have been redeemed.

The Grim Reaper has paid many visits to the homes of our members, and four of our prominent workers have felt his presence. In December Mrs. Brodnax was called upon to give up her only child. Later our Chairman of the Home for Wives and Widows, Mrs. Hunter Smith, saw her beloved brother fall asleep. In May the husband of our Assistant Historian, Mrs. W. O. Shannon passed away. The last was Capt. R. H. Brooks, so long the faithful superintendent of the Soldiers Home, and husband of her whom we all loved to call our own Mrs. Brooks. To all of these your president wrote words of love and sympathy from the Division.

And now the resume of the year's work is completed, but before closing I would say a word regarding the many courtesies showered upon me during the year, as your representative.

On May 3rd on an invitation from their president, I attended the Convention of the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Clubs and bore them greetings from the North Carolina Daughters. Here your president was most royally treated, and was invited to make one of the receiving party at the reception given by the Daughters of the American Revolution. After the Convention she visited Littleton, by special invitation, and was elegantly entertained by the Roanoke Minute Men chapter, and the Annie Lee children of the Confederacy. On May 10th an invitation was accepted to attend the unveiling in Raleigh of the Gateway in the Confederate cemetery. This is not the Memorial Arch, but the small pink granite gateway turned over to the Johnson Pettigrew chapter by the Division several years ago. While in Raleigh your president had the pleasure of meeting and talking with a large number of this flourishing chapter, being delightfully entertained by their president, Mrs. Josephus Daniels.

Lenoir gave a cordial invitation to attend the unveiling exercises of their Confederate Monument in June, and your president witnessed the falling of the veil from this beautiful memorial to Southern bravery, besides being delightfully entertained at a reception by the Z. B. Vance chapter.

June 29th was a memorable occasion to the people of Rockingham county, for at that time at Reidsville, the veil fell from their exquisite Confederate Monument of granite and Italian marble. Your president was not only present, but was honored by being selected as one of the four ladies to draw the veil. The afternoon before an elegant reception was given her by Mrs. Hall, president of the Rockingham chapter.

Before closing this report I desire to utter a few words of hearty thanks to the members of the Executive Committee as well as to the chairmen of Committees for so ably upholding my hands and aiding in carrying forward our work during the year.

FANNIE RANSOM WILLIAMS, President.

Reports of the Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Registrar were read and accepted with thanks.

RECORDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

MADAM PRESIDENT AND DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

It has been one of my most pleasant duties during the past year to sit at my desk daily and communicate with one or more of the Chapters of the North Carolina Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. In every instance each letter that has been received has brought with it kind words, encouragement and consideration for me; which has always been appreciated beyond words.

I have tried to respond promptly to all requests, and if there have been failures to do so, it was through no indifference or lack of interest on my part. The work continues to grow and that among the Children's Chapters is most gratifying. The State books record 88 chapters, and thirty one Children's Chapters; there being four new chapters: King's Mountain Chapter, King's Mountain; Raeford Chapter, Raeford; Ransom-Lee Chapter, Sanford. Also four new Children's Chapters: Lee-Jackson Chapter, Durham, Rockingham Volunteers Chapter, Reidsville; Richardson Mallett Chapter, Chapel Hill and Mt. Olive Auxiliary, Mt. Olive, have been organized this year.

1150 application blanks for the chapters and 493 for the auxiliaries have been sent out, 275 letters and 115 postals have been written.

It is to be hoped that the chapters have discussed the suggestion made at last Convention in regard to reducing the size and cost of the minutes. This is a very easy matter, if reports will be made short enough to cover the ground, without unnecessary details.

I thank you Daughters of the North Carolina Division for the honor you have conferred upon me and earnestly hope my work has been satisfactory.

Respectfully submitted,
JACKSIE DANIEL THRASH.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

MADAM PRESIDENT AND DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

During the past year the services of your Corresponding Secretary has been always at the call of the president when needed.

Chairmen and members of all committees were promptly notified. A circular letter was sent out to each Chapter, and also a request for aid for the Soldiers Home.

Letters written during the year 101, postals 111, circular letters 91. Postage on same amounting to $4.04.

Thanking the Division for their kindness and co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,
BESSIE YOUNT FEIMSTER,
Cor-Sec. N. C. Div. U. D. C.

REGISTRAR'S REPORT.

MADAM PRESIDENT AND UNITED DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

I have the honor to herewith submit my annual report as your Registrar. All data, herewith appended, have been compiled with great care, and I have done my best to secure accuracy. However, it is incumbent on me to say, as an official duty, that the books of the Registrar have not, do not, and cannot, in the present state of affairs, accurately reflect a true condition of your organization, as to number of members, names of members et cetera,

I heartily commend to this body that some measures be taken, whereby a general overhauling of the records of the Chapter Registrars and the State Registrar may be had. This will be absolutely necessary, to the end, that your Registrar's books may be what they should be; to-wit: an accurate reflex of the condition of your organization,

I am sure that those who have preceded me in the office of Registrar, have given liberally of their time, industry and fidelity to this work, as your present Registrar has done; and yet for a lack of careful and accurate information that must be furnished to the State Registrar, by the individual chapters, it has not been possible to have the State records so accurate and reliable as they should be.

Your Registrar feels that, in justice to herself, she may say a word here in explanation of having returned individual membership blanks to the several chapters, whence they came. On the recommendation of the Registrar-General, the last General Convention, held at Houston, Texas, October 1909, amended the constitution to this effect; and your Registrar in returning said blanks, acted under instructions of that general officer.

Conforming to the new rule, your Registrar must send to the Registrar General, only names of members, names of ancestors, companies, regiments and titles, or rank.

The requirement of all State Divisions is now made by the general organization, that revised type-written copies of all State Registrars' books be sent by State Registrars to the Registrar-General. Your Registrar was physically unable to do this stupendous work herself, nor would it be fair to expect any Registrar to do it. However, she secured estimates from several public typists and the lowest bid she had was ten ($10.00) dollars per thousand members. Having no authority to expend any sum of money for such work, your Registrar contented herself by making inquiry of the few State Divisions that have complied with the rule, and takes the liberty of commending to this body that the State Registrar be furnished, by each individual Chapter Registrar, with a type-written list, carefully revised, of the required data. This data to be properly compiled by the State Registrar and forwarded to the Registrar General. This method of procedure allows a division of the labor and secures a substantial saving to your treasury.

Your Registrar came to this work without experience, and has prosecuted it without experienced assistance, and naturally she has made mistakes; yet, "it is human to err, but divine to forgive," and rendering this account of her stewardship in this sentiment, she will be amply compensated if it meets with your approval.

Our Registrar General, than whom we have no nobler nor abler member, concluded her last report with the words of Philip Brooks' "Burden Bearer," which are equally appropriate here:

"The little sharp vexations,
And the briars that catch and fret;
Why not take them all to the Helper,
Who has never failed us yet
Tell Him about the heart-aches,
Tell Him the longings too;
Tell Him the baffled purpose
When we scarce know what to do;
Then leaving all our weakness
With the One divinely strong,
Forget we bore the burden,
And carry away the song."

Our work is a noble one, voluntarily assumed by a band of noble women, and should ever be performed under the influence of noble purposes,

Respectfully submitted,
ELIZABETH REED WATT,
Registrar.

The report of the Recorder of Crosses was read by Mrs. Williams, who has so willingly and faithfully carried on the work during the illness of Mrs. Craig.

CROSS OF HONOR REPORT.

DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

During the continued illness of your Recorder of Crosses, Mrs. Thomas Lee Craig, your president has kept up the Cross of Honor work for her, so that chapters might not be disappointed in getting Crosses for those desiring them at appointed times. Your special attention should be called to certain rules, which if carefully attended to, would save much trouble to both Recorder and chapters and secure Crosses where otherwise they are not attainable.

First, all papers are required to be in Mrs. Raines' hands three weeks before appointed time. Little attention is paid to this by chapters, applications often being rushed in a few days ahead of time, giving no time for corrections. All applica tions must be signed by two veterans giving company and regiment, as well as the Adjutant of the camp, and these companies and regiments must be written after endorsers name on record sheets. Post office money orders must be made payable to the Custodian of Crosses, now Mrs. Raines, she will not receive checks, and lastly sufficient postage first class should always be sent your state recorder, with which to forward all papers.

You hardly realize, ladies, that your Recorder of Crosses is required to compare every application blank with your record sheet in order to approve before forwarding, and then she has to record in her books. It is an immense amount of work, but chapter presidents or custodians can greatly aid by seeing all requirements are complied with before sending papers out of their hands.

During the year there have been 787 Crosses of Honor awarded. Of these 749 were to veterans and 38 to descendants and widows as follows:

REPORT OF HISTORIAN

MADAM PRESIDENT:

A report of the year's work is in order, but like Channing's "Needy Knife Grinder;" "Lord love you Sir, I've no story to tell," for out of our eighty four chapters only two chapter Historians have reported any work. These honorable exceptions were Mrs. E. D. Foxhall of the Dorsey Pender Chapter, Tarboro; who reports filing two historical papers; and Mrs. J. P. Leach, of the Roanoke Minute Men, of Littleton; who reports eight. These make on file, so far as I know, one hundred and twenty seven papers.

But only a hundred and twenty seven papers, when we sent 125,000 men to the front is so infinitesimally small a portion that we should be, every one of us, most heartily ashamed of it. Why cannot we do better? Other states sent fewer men, most all of them file more historical papers, and so, in the years to come, can claim more soldiers by the records they can show. Yet, we might if we would, surpass them all by this simple matter of justice to our own men.

"The field is white to the harvest" now, but in a little, little while there will be nothing left even for the gleaners.

They are going so fast, these matchless men who wore the Grey! Barely a skirmish line is left now, and we let them go with their splendid memories unrecorded, their heroic stories all untold!

Oh! Daughters of the Confederacy! This should not be! I pray you, I beseech you, each one, to make an effort this year to gather up what fragments may yet be had; what stories can yet be told by living lips. Today I was told of the death of a gallant soldier cousin of mine, who died in Goldsboro, and here with us, as I write these words, a gallant officer of the 56th North Carolina, is dangerously ill. Death will not wait upon our tardy leisure, nor break the seal he sets upon brave lips.

There is no time to lose if we care to own those wonderful stores for those who will care, but will be too late to hear, and to record them.

Three monuments have been reported to me this year. One at Reidsville, one at Weldon, and one at Lenoir. I was sorry not to be able to accept the invitations to be present on each occasion.

A very handsome, and well gotten up history of the immortal twenty sixth Regiment has been published by Assistant Surgeon George C. Underwood, and I am greatly indebted to Mrs. J. M. Brown, of Albemarle, for a copy of it.

And speaking of this work brings me naturally to a circular letter issued by our Historian General, Mrs. J. Enders Robinson, of Richmond, Virginia, urging upon all the Divisions of the U. D. C. the establishment by each one in their most centrally located city, of a U. D. C. Exchange Library, the object of which will be to locate, collect and preserve by gift, purchase or bequest, all Mss., newspapers, books, letters, poems, music, maps, charts, drawings, text books, money, stamps, State rosters of troops, and any and all miscellaneous matter connected with, or concerning in any way the C. S. A. dating from 1850 or even father back.

The officers of these libraries shall be a Librarian and Assistant Librarian, never the Division Historian, or Assistant Historian, who shall reside permanently in the library city, and shall always be members of the U. D. C.

This plan commends itself to me very strongly, for as Mrs. Robinson says, "many valuable papers are rapidly passing to other sections through gift or purchase," and many are being hopelessly lost by fire and flood and carelessness. This grand work is crying aloud for the aid of the U. D. C. There is not a day to lose, and I therefore beg our Division President to appoint a Librarian, and a Library Committee at once, for no time is ever so good as the present, for today only belongs to us, tomorrow may never be ours.

Respectfully submitted,

REBECCA CAMERON.

AUDITING COMMITTEE REPORT.

The Auditing Committee have examined Mrs. Eugene Little's books and find them correct in every detail. This committee would suggest that the Treasurer's books be closed on October 1st and all money for the year be sent in before that date.

We think thanks are due Mrs. Little from the Convention for the beautiful and concise manner in which she has kept the books.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. B. RICHARDSON,

Chm. Auditing Com.

Mrs. Little, Treasurer, next read her report and was given hearty thanks by the Convention. The report showed accuracy and that much attention had been given it.

TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE REPORT

MADAM PRESIDENT AND DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

Railroads have offered special rates only upon condition of certificates of two hundred delegates. Convention attendance never approaching that number, your committee reports with right that there are no special rates.

Respectfully submitted,
CARRY A. LEAZAR.
Chairman Transportation Com.

Mrs. Hall of the Constitution and By-Laws Committee read changes to be made in the Constitution and By-Laws. This called forth much discussion and all changes were adopted but two.

Motion was then made to adjourn.

SECOND DAY—Morning Session

After the reciting of the Lords' Prayer by the Convention assembled, and a most touching prayer by the Chaplain, Miss James, the business session began at 10:30 o'clock.

The President appointed the following Committee on resolutions of thanks:

Mrs. D. A. Garrison, Gastonia, chairman; Mrs. J. B. Richardson, High Point; Mrs. W. M. Ransom, Littleton; Mrs. B. L. Tyree, Durham; Mrs. Newton Smith, Fayetteville.

Telegrams were read, one from that ever good friend of the Daughters and true soldier, Gen. Julian S. Carr of Durham, and one from the Virginia convention, in session in Suffolk. The motion was made and carried that responses be sent to both. This was done.

The song "United" composed by our gifted and highest type of womanhood, Mrs. Mary Speed Mercer, of Edgecombe county, was sung by the choir, after which, Mrs. Winstead explained the reason the Daughters should be loyal to this song.

Then Mrs. Mercer most interestingly gave a sketch of the purpose of her work. Each chapter was earnestly requested to insist that the sale of the song be encouraged in order that the Endowment Fund, for the perpetuation of Annie Lee's grave, might soon be established.

As is the beautiful custom, time was given for Memorial exercises, and chapters so unfortunate were called upon to pay tribute to their deceased members. The President requested a moment of perfect silence.,

A moment of peculiar interest to your Recording Secretary was when the "mother" of the North Carolina

Division, Mrs. W. M. Parsley, of Wilmington, a noble woman that knew the hardships of '61-65, and bore them with equal patience and fortitude, was escorted to the platform, and Mrs. Williams, in most touching and appropriate words presented the beautiful pin to her, that was the privilege and pleasure of her Daughters to give her.

MRS. WILLIAMS'S PRESENTATION OF PIN

DAUGHTERS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA DIVISION:

Will you, for a few moments, go with me back in memory to those days that tried men's souls, that made heroes of these men and yet greater heroines of the women.

'Twas a day in 1862; the scourge of disease and pestilence lay over the city, where dwelt a proud young couple, to whom all was joy and sunshine, for they had that day plighted their troth to each other; she a maiden yet in her teens, he a brave and noble young man. But the clouds of war gathered fast and faster. His State needed his services, so with breaking heart though smiling lips,this fair young bride bade her husband go forth to battle for the right.

A few brief visits home, to brighten the lives of the lonely wife and her tiny babes. The dark day of Appomattox was approaching and the little remnant of that long gray line would soon return to their firesides and their families. But the Master yet needed a few more of the South's grand heroes, and one day in the fight around Petersburg this young hero, now bearing the title of Colonel, laid down his life upon his country's altar.

Dark days of sorrow and fight with poverty ensued for that young widow and her babes, but with it all she yet found time and heart to aid those weary, heart-sore men who had fought beneath the Stars and Bars. To aid them in sickness and distress, and to cover with earth's fairest blossoms the silent resting places of the men who wore the Gray was to her ever one of life's greatest pleasures.

About 1893 there came the news of the organizing of the first chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The cause, for which this chapter was to do and dare, appealed to the eager heart of this noble woman, and she persuaded the Memorial Association of her native town to become the third chapter of this great organization. By 1896 several other chapters had been formed in the State, and this same leader called them together in the city of Wilmington, and there formed the North Carolina Division of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

From that day to this, our friend and organizer has ever stood ready to aid in every good work for the Confederate cause. Time and again she has been the head of the banner chapter in the state. To us, one and all she is a tender loving mother. Her ear is ever ready to listen to her Daughters call for assistance. To many of us she is well known, to others more or less a stranger, but to us all a well beloved mother. There is but one person in this grand old state of ours, to whom we give that name, and that is Mrs. William M. Parsley, the organizer of the North Carolina Division. Such is but a brief, imperfect sketch of one, who stands for all that is true, noble and grand among that band of heroines, the Women of the Confederacy.

And now, dear Mrs. Parsley, your Daughters have bid me bring to you in their name, this slight token of their love and esteem. May its scintilating jewels speak to your heart of the glory of a cause, we know was right. May its encircling wreath remind you of the laurels that will forevermore rest upon the memories of every hero who bore the gray and of every woman who stayed at home and waited for the tidings from the front. May the pin itself bring to you ever, thoughts of the tenderest love and devotion of your Daughters of the North Carolina Division.

Mrs. Winstead was so enthused she requested the Convention to assist her in giving expression to her feelings by singing "Blest be the Tie that Binds."

A letter was read from the Hon. L. V. Bassett, regretting his inability in not being able to carry out his part of the program. His place was taken by General Irwin Walker, Commander Army of Northern Virginia, U. C. V., asking the Division to lend its support and influence for the erection of a Monument to the Women of the Confederacy—our Mothers and Grand-Mothers.

Motion was made by Mrs. Henry A. London:

That the President appoint a committee to memorialize the next Legislature for an appropriation to erect this Monument to the Women of the Confederacy.

After much discussion it was carried, then followed by another:

To reconsider Friday morning immediately after the opening of Convention.

Motion was seconded and carried.

Report by the Chairman of the Memorial Arch Committee was read and accepted.

REPORT MEMORIAL ARCH

DAUGHTERS AND FRIENDS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

As many of you know the movement to erect a Memorial Gateway at the entrance of the Confederate Cemetery in Raleigh was inaugurated at the Convention held in Asheville seven years ago. It waa voted at a subsequent Convention that each chapter donate twenty dollars. Since that time about 45 chapters have responded, and so far about 40 chapters for some reason have not contributed to this object.

A resume of the progress of the work may be important. We now have about $1000 in hands of the treasurer. We need $2000 for the work. This will about cover the stone work and will not include bronze tablets with names of all the chapters inscribed thereon. Since this cemetery holds the mortal remains of over 1000 soldiers of the Southern Confederacy, representing every Southern State; therefore the Memorial will not be a local one, but to memorialize the Southern soldiers. I recommend the following as a suitable inscription:

"A Memorial to the soldiers of 13 States, erected by the U. D C. of North Carolina."

We hope to enroll the name of every chapter in North Carolina. Every daughter and member should have the privilege of adding to this fund. It is a glorious opportunity for the daughters of the state to unite in erecting this Memorial Gateway, which will stand as a tribute to Southern Valor and an enduring evidence of woman's devotion to her valiant dead, of those who gave their lives to a lost cause, and whose deeds will never die, but will live in the hearts of a devoted and grateful people.

Motion was made by Mrs. Winstead:

That after the Wyatt Monument fund is raised, we make the Memorial Arch a special work for the coming year.

This brought forth unusual discussion, but was carried. Motion was made to adjourn after the announcement was made that the Convention would be entertained in the evening by the Benovelent Protective Order of Elks of Rocky Mount.

Luncheon was given by the Tobacco Board of Trade.

SECOND DAY—Afternoon Session

At 2:40 o'clock business was resumed, opening with prayer by the Chaplain.

Following the rules of the Constitution the election of officers was taken up.

Tellers, Mrs. Chas. Lee Smith, Mrs. Marshall Williams, and Miss Lena Reinhardt, were appointed.

The following officers were elected unanimously:

Mrs. F. M. Williams, Newton, President; Mrs. M. O. Winstead, Rocky Mount, 1st Vice-President; Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Raleigh, 2nd Vice President; Miss Carrie Leazar, Mooresville, 3 Vice-President; Thad W. Thrash, Tarboro, Recording Secretary; Mrs. W. C. Feimster, Newton, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Robt. Kornegay, Goldsboro, Treasurer; Mrs. Robert Davis, Louisburg, Registrar; Mrs. W. M. Creasy, Wilmington, Recorder of Crosses; Miss Rebecca Cameron, Hillsboro, Historian; Mrs. W. O. Shannon, Henderson, Assistant Historian; Miss Hettie James, Wilmington, Chaplain.

Motion was made that letters be written to Mrs. Shannon and Mrs. Wills expressing regrets at their absence and sympathy for them in their recent bereavements. This was done.

Report of Educational Committee was read by the Chairman, Mrs. Overman, and accepted.

EDUCATIONAL COMMITTEE REPORT

President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

To-day, I stand before this Convention in the place of another: lovely Mrs. Brodnax, who has taken such active interest in this noble work, has halted on account of deep affliction, and our President, Mrs. Williams, asked my services in her place for the year. The work is new to me and I have not accomplished as much as I hoped. still our efforts have not gone backward, but interest has been kindled in new directions. It is truly said a mother's influence never dies but reaches onward and upward through eternity. Seed sown is felt through coming generations. Next to motherhood is the power of education reaching onward and upward. Therefore the educational interests of the Daughters of the Confederacy must be our noblest and best work. To honor our dead heroes with monuments, must be done, for monuments tell a nation's history, a nation's glory. To shelter our infirm veterans is fulfilling a divine command, honoring old age, the greatest of these is charity, is love. But with education for the young is a power for future generations, future greatness. Who can estimate what the power of education is? The development of mind and heart, that lights genius, that opens to the world some powerful discovery, some invention to help mankind, some great missionary to go forth to the world carrying the light of Salvation to darkeded minds. 'Tis here then we find the blessed comfort that we are on the right duty, lighting the right spark. This educational interest begun must be continued, become perpetual, the noble work yearly increasing, pressing onward. I find in talking of the work of the U.

D. C., more interest is awakened when we speak of what we are trying to do for the education of the children of veterans than any other. I feel that in this direction we have the prospect of raising more money, than for any other object. Camps, individuals, memorial scholarships have a prospect of being perfected, let us then hope, let us hope for great success.

Our Treasurer in her report gave the amount of funds on hand, and what chapters are interested in this great movement. The opening of the fall term at Greensboro in September received three young girls sent there by the educational fund of the Daughters of the Confederacy, one from Newton, one from Mooresville, the third from Reidsville. We would like to place at least four scholarships instead of three.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. WILLIAM H. OVERMAN,

Chrm. pro tem for Mrs. Brodnax.

Call was made for the report from the Executive Committee and read by the Recording Secretary.

Each suggestion was voted on separately and accepted:

1st. All Chairmen of Committees have the privilege of calling on the State funds for postage connected with their work.

2nd. All chapters to be taxed one cent per capita to pay for the complete list of registration up to date.

3rd. To continue the appropriations and committees for the Soldiers' Home and to have a purchasing committee for same.

Report from the Arlingtan Monument was next read by Miss Hicks in the absence of the Chairman, Mrs. Faison, and accepted.

ARLINGTON MONUMENT REPORT

MADAM PRESIDENT AND DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

The report of the North Carolina Division for the Arlington Confederate Monument Association is not aa good this year as it has been for the past two years, I am sorry to say. So many of our towns and counties are erecting Confederate Monuments it is hard for the chapters to contribute to everything.

North Carolina has always stood second in this work, and I hope next year we will endeavor to be first.

Why cannot every chapter in the Staie raise $100.00; or the smaller ones, $50.00, during the coming year, and pay what North Carolina is expected to give at one time, so I will not have to call upon the chapters every year? Even my penny collections from the schools in the State have not been so good, but since I began this it has added quite a nice amount to our collection. I began this penny collection in the State for Arlington Monument alone and it is my scheme.

Ladies, I wish to tell you about a Confederate Seal or Stamp to be used on all Christmas packages, letters, postals or anything sent by mail or hand, gotten out by Mrs. Edgar James of the Florence, Alabama, Chapter, U. D. C., and sanctioned by that State and our President General, Mrs. McSherry. It is now ready for use and all chapters are expected and earnestly urged to take hold of this work for Arlington Monument. I will take order for them at once; $5.00 for one hundred envelopes, with one hundred seals in each envelope; 50 cents for each envelope, and they can be retailed two for one penny. So you see you can make a neat sum, and it is all credited to your chapter for Arlington alone. Send all money to me and I will send to State Treasurer, as this money belongs to our General Convention. Every cent made on these seals or stamps belongs to Arlington Monument exclusively.

Each State Director sent $50.00 and received one thousand seals, which will net $500.00 or more.

The following is a list of chapters contributing and of the penny collections taken in schools by chapters:

Mrs. Henry A. London read the report from the Chapel Hill Monument Committee which was accepted

CHAPEL HILL MONUMENT REPORT

In April, the committee appointed for this work, met in Chapel Hill. Mrs. F. M. Williams, State President, a member ex-officio of this committee, was present.

President Venable presided over the meeting, and showed many beautiful designs that had been sent for our inspection by different firms of marble works and sculptors.

Most of these were too expensive for us to even consider.

Plans for raising money for the erection of this monument were discussed. One of these designs from Mr. John Wilson, sculptor, was beautiful, but cost more than we could afford. This design was presented at last Convention, and was much admired. We decided to write to Mr. Wilson for further estimates for a less expensive monument, and to decide on it at our next meeting in June. Before adjourning, we selected the site for the monument. It is to be north of the Caldwell monument, and about fifteen feet on the north side of the main walk that runs across the campus from east to west. This is a fine position for it.

The committee met again in June, during commencement week. This time it was augmented by the auxiliary or advisory committee of Veterans which had been selected at the former meeting in April. This "advisory committee" consisted of General Carr, Colonel Kenan, Maj. H. A. London, Maj. E. J. Hale and Dr. Venable.

After examining the beautiful designs, (some of them slightly changed), and discussing the minutest details of each, the joint committee decided on the one sent by Mr. John Wilson, a Canadian Sculptor, now living in Boston. He had changed it somewhat at the suggestion of the committee, and considerably reduced its price for us. Its cost will be $7500. It is thought that the alumni will give a great part of it, if the Daughters will give $1500.

We can easily do this, but we must hurry; for the Veterans of the State earnestly desire that it shall be unveiled in June 1911, when the "Boys of '61 and '65" hold their Reunion at the University during commencement week. It will be the fiftieth anniversary of 1861.

I quote from President Venable's interesting speech at last Convention:

Dr. Venable said that he was an adopted son of North Carolina, but one who loves the State as a native son. He had been thrilled with the historic story of the University and knew of no story in history that would compare with it. The placing of the monument on the campus is not a local matter, for North Carolina and the University are inseparable. The pages of the civil history of the State are filled with the deeds of University men. He regretted that the records had been imperfectly kept, and stated that even though the records are not complete the story is an inspiring one. There were all told, more than 1,000 University men in the struggle between the States, enlisting from various States of the South and out of this number one-third were killed. At least 40 per cent of the students entered the military service which is a record not equaled by any other institution. From some of the big Northern institutions there were 23 per cent; from University of Virginia, the the speaker's alma mater, 25 per cent. Of those who volunteered from Virginia 225 were killed while of the North Carolinians between 340 and 350 never returned home. They laid down their lives in the most important battles of the war.

Dr. Venable said that he would like to see the monument at the University because it would tell eloquently of the story of the sacrifice made by the students prior to the civil war. Their record should ever be before the eyes of the present-day students. Tablets have been erected in memory of those who lost their lives, and those who enlisted are worthy of a monument.

Let us all come forward, and give the money now, or as soon as possible, so that we can know what to depend on. Mr. Wilson told me on his visit to North Carolina in July, that he had always required a guaranty of 1-3 of the money in advance, but, that feeling sure that the Daughters would pay him before the unveiling of the monument, he would not require it of us.

The following amounts have been contributed to this monument up to date, and paid in to the Division Treasurer. (See her report.)

Through Mrs. James Kenan last year	$23.50
Anson Chapter	10.00
Henry Wyatt Chapter	1.00
Frank Bennet Auxiliary	1,50
Jane Hughes Auxiliary	5.00
Bell Battery Chapter	5.00
Wiunie Davis Auxiliary	2.50
Mrs. Thomas C. James	1.00
J. E. B. Stuart Chapter	25.00

Leonidas Polk Chapter	10.00
Mt. Airy Chapter	5.00
Stonewall Jackson Chapter	10.00
Pamlico Chapter	10.00
Interest	.84
John W. Dunham Chapter.	10.00
Washington Grays Auxiliary	1.00
Wm. A. Allen Chapter	3.00
Halifax Chapter	3.00
Bethel Heroes Chapter	50.00
Norfleet Harrell Chapter	6.00
R. E. Lee Chapter	5.00
George B. Anderson Chapter	60.00
A. M. Waddell Chapter	25.00
Winnie Davis Chapter	25.00
Interest	1.10
Faison Hicks Chapter	2.00
Graham Chapter	8.00
High Point Chapter	5.00
Julian S. Carr Chapter	10.00
Collected by Mrs. Via, Wadesboro	26.25
Gastonia Chapter	15.00

In addition to the above, many of the chapters that have already given, promised a still larger contribution, and these that have not contributed promised goodly amounts to be paid early in the year.

I would suggest that each chapter appoint a member to collect contributions in her town and county. These to be sent through her chapter, but must not be confounded with the chapter contribution. The name of each contributor to be sent with the amount to State Division Treasurer. These names will be enrolled in a book at Chapel Hill. For Dr. Venable keeps the names of every person who gives a cent to the University.

I beg of you to attend to this immediately. For unless a sufficient amount is paid in early in the year, the committee will not feel justified in having Mr. Wilson go ahead with the work—the money not being in sight. And thus the monument could not be unveiled in June 1911.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. HENRY A. LONDON,
Chrm. Chapel Hill Monument Com.

Motion was made to adjourn.

FRIDAY MORNING

Convention called to order at 10:45 o'clock by the President. Miss Hettie James again led us in a most beautiful prayer. Minutes of Thursday's proceedings were read by the Recording Secretary and accepted.

Mrs. London rose to a point of personal privilege and withdrew her motion made relative to Soldiers' Home.

Motion was made to allow the visiting ladies, Mrs. Johnson, Chairman of N. C. Room in Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Allison Hodges, Vice Regent of the N. C. Room to be heard from.

Report was read by Mrs. Johnson and accepted.

NORTH CAROLINA ROOM IN RICHMOND MUSEUM REPORT.

MADAM PRESIDENT AND DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

I beg to submit the following report of the N. C. Room since our last State Convention in Wilmington. It is becoming more and more difficult to secure relics because of the effort of the owners to keep them in their own State, and naturally as the years go by the relics become scarcer. The following articles have been given:

A history of North Carolina given by the author Dr. J. B. Alexander, of Charlotte. Five pieces of calico that sold for $9.00 and $12.00 per yard that ran the blocade in Wilmington, and also some skeins of thread spun from cotton, and used for sewing, given by Mrs. Wm. Parsley of Wilmington, the first President of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in North Carolina. A sample of coffee taken from a sack which came through the blocade at Charleston, S. C., in 1863, given by Mrs. D. P. Hutchinson, Charlotte, N. C. Loans: Mrs. John Wilkes, of Charlotte, N. C., loaned a map that was the only one General Beauregard had to guide him in his campaign. This map was afterward returned to Capt. Wilkes with General Beauregard's thanks written on the margin.

An invitation from the Museum to the State regents to attend the annual meeting on June 3rd, could not be generally accepted

I, however, had the pleasure of attending it and it was a privilege to be there and see for myself the work the ladies of the association have done for the honor of our State. I was entertained in the beautiful and hospitable home of our Vice Regent, Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, where I was the recipient of many social courtesies.

Mrs. Hodges was escorted to the rostrum and spoke very interestly for a few moments on the work being done.

Mrs. Williams was requested to read a short history of the Confederate Museum. Suggestion was made by the President to place a North Carolina flag over the mantel in the N. C. room.

Motion was made by Mrs. Tyree, of Durham that the flag be made of silk. Carried.

Mrs. Cotton made a motion that the President draw from the sinking fund for the next two years enough money to purchase this flag. Mrs. Marshall Williams, our well known artist, offered to paint free of charge, North Carolina's Coat of Arms for the same room. A rising vote of thanks was given her.

Motion was made by Mrs. Overman that business be suspended until a candidate for the General Presidency for 1911 be endorsed. The ladies withdrew.

Report of the Henry L. Wyatt Monument Committee was read by Miss Margaret Etheredge and accepted.

HENRY L. WYATT MONUMENT REPORT

MADAM PRESIDENT AND DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

Another year's work has drawn to a close and again we come to report to you the progress made in the particular phase of work that you have given unto our care and keeping, that of honoring our first Confederate hero, Henry L. Wyatt.

We, the U. D. C. and the Legislative committee that you and State have chosen to perfect this work, have worked with all our might, and given to it the best of our thoughts and service. With this our object in view, that the results of this work should be something that would be an honor to our State and Confederacy. Something that our army of grey jackets, yet with us, and, even were it possible, the noble comrades that have crossed over the river, could look down and see we honor our Confederates with the very best we have to give.

Three times during the past twelve months our committees have met together to discuss and plan for the completion of this work. It has been a pleasure and a rare privilege to have the gifted men of the Legislative committee to work with us, and we feel indebted to them for the interest shown in this undertaking and for their valuable assistance.

The entire amount of our fund now is $2,231.62, the following chapters having contributed this year: Leonidas Polk, Chapel Hill; Graham, Graham; Cape Fear, Wilmington; Anson, Wadesboro; Junius Daniels, Weldon; Geo. Singletary, Greenville; Thomas Ruffin, Goldsboro; Cleveland Guards, Shelby; Henry Wyatt, Selma.

Besides the chapters that have contributed, there are quite a number of men and women, who have proven their patriotism by giving most liberally to this cause, and we most heartily appreciate this personal interest.

Knowing so well of what our State is capable, we decided not to wait until our entire amount was safely lodged in our treasury, but to give the commission for the monument, feeling sure that ere it is completed we will have every dollar.

At our first committee meeting Mr. John Hinsdale, Jr., was appointed our Secretary and he has most faithfully filled this office, and we fully appreciate the amount of work he has done for us.

By the suggestion of Mrs. Allison Hodges of Richmond, and the untiring efforts of Mr. Hinsdale, we have secured a Sculptor of National reputation to make this monument. We have given the commission to Sir Moses Ezekiel, a Virginian by birth, a V. M. I. boy that left that college to go out and fight for our Confederacy. His works of art adorn many foreign palaces. We have in our Southland some of his work but not in our State.

As the music of the Masters is but the echo of the music of their souls, so is the picture or the statue of an artist but the embodiment of all the music and the poetry of his soul.

When the monument is completed we feel that it will not be only cold metal and stone, but will be a work of tender sentiment and love. Something fit to stand for bravery and true worth, a beacon to the youths of our land, beckoning them on to patriotism.

We can truly say this work of ours has been a work of pleasure, love and sentiment, now for the realization of our fond hopes we have turned our hearts, work over to a Confederate, who gave his service for our Southland. Who could more fittingly shape and mould our love of brave youth and true worth into something beautiful and lasting. Something we can be proud to show to the whole world and they can feel that love inspired it.

We trust now that ere this Convention closes we can raise the amount needed to complete our fund, for here in dear old Rocky Mount we have heard so much of Henry Wyatt.

We have been entertained in the homes of his comrades, we have had the honor of looking into the faces of two of the men who were with Wyatt when he fell, Capt. John Thorpe and Mr. Bob Ricks. These men are real live heroes, heroes of Bethel and many years of war and privation.

Let it be said that it was here we completed the amount needed to erect a monument to the Edgecombe county boy who was the first to give his life for our Confederacy.

MARGARET ETHEREDGE,

Selma, N. C. Chrm. Henry Wyatt Monument Com.

Since our Convention in October, the Wyatt Monument Committee has met, and seen fit to withdraw the commission for our monument from Sir Moses Ezekiel.

This was done because his contract required several years in which to complete his work. Every one thonght it wiser to give it to some one who could assure us of the early completion.

The contract has been signed and the work given to Gutyon Borghins, of New York.

He is one of our foremost American sculptors, he has work in the Metropolitan Art Museum, a bust of Lincoln in the Capitol at Washington, besides numerous other pieces of work that are recognized amoung the best.

The contract assures us the Wyatt monument will be completed in the year 1911.

MARGARET ETHEREDGE.

Miss Etheredge called for pledges to finish out the necessary amount. Many chapters responded.

Report by Miss Rebecca Cameron from the Historical Committee read and resolutions presented.

HISTORICAL REPORT

The Historian duly regrets the unintentional injustice done the Historian of the J. E. B. Stuart Chapter, of Fayetteville, by the omission of my mention of the two excellent contributions sent by her, viz: 1. War Days in Fayetteville. 2. Speech of Mr. J. H. Currie, on Capt. McCullers. Both of them were along the lines specially desired for historical papers.

Also the omission just discovered of a historical paper sent by the Historian of the Monroe chapter, Miss Margie Williamson who says Union County sent 11 companies, all officered by her own sons, to the front in the first two years of the war. A splendid record truly.

My only apology for omitting to mention these papers, in my report is that they came at a time of great distress and anxiety and one was mislaid, the others overlooked.

REBECCA CAMERON,
Historian N. C. Div. U. D. C.

Motion was made by Mrs. Moffitt "that Legislature be petitioned for a fire proof building for the preservation of all papers," and amended by Mrs. Josephus Daniels to be Historical Building only. However the President ruled out the resolution as being unconstitutional.

Motion made by Mrs. London, "that the Legislature be asked to provide a fire proof place in which to preserve our Confederate Records and Relics." Carried.

Mrs. Williams then appointed Chairman for Eastern Section, Mrs. Martin Willard; for Western Section, Mrs. Dalton, for the Old Soldiers' Home Committee. Purchasing Committee, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. Chas. Lee Smith and Mrs. J. O. Litchford, of Raleigh.

Report on the Homes for Veterans, Wives and Widows, read by the Chairman, Mrs. Hunter Smith, and accepted.

HOME FOR WIVES AND WIDOWS

MADAM PRESIDENT, DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

At the Convention held in Goldsboro there was a motion made and unanimously adopted, to build a Home for the Wives and Widows of Veterans to be added as "annex" to the Soldier's Home in Raleigh. As Chairman of this committee I have not been able to give this great cause the personal attention I would have liked but hope with the coming year to see the fruit of our labors.

I have met with many expressions of hearty and cordial endorsement, and now all that is needed is the active co-operation of our people to make this a very great benefit to the entire State. For this Home is an immediate necessity, and as the late lamented and beloved North Carolinian, who has just passed to Glory Land, Maj. B. F. Dixon, said, "He considered it one of the greatest needs of the State, and in his opinion a Home could be erected for five thousand dollars, that would be sufficient for the present."

We shall appeal to the next Legislature for an appropriation for this Home, and with the co-operation of the chapters and Veterans, we feel that those who suffered and endured at the rear while their loved ones went to the front, shall be given food and shelter in their declining years.

We want to thank the chapters that have already contributed to this great cause.

Madam President, and Daughters of the Bethel Heroes Chapter, it is doubly pleasant to be permitted to come within the borders of yeur progressive city and report your Chapter—Bethel Heroes—the Banner Chapter of the State, having paid the largest pledge for the Home for Wives and Widows, $100.00. May this chapter be an inspiration to us all. and I hope that every hour of our stay among you will be crowded with pleasure, which will ripen at length into precious memories.

I have written numerous personal letters. I have written a letter to every Chapter President in the State hoping to receive a contribution from every chapter the coming year.

It is very gratifying to the committee to see that the leading newspapers of the State are advocating this great cause.

The following contributions have been pledged for the Home for Wives and Widows.

Bethel Heroes Chapter, Rocky Mount		$100.00

invitation to an Eastern Carolina Barbecue given by that grand old Bethel Hero, Mr. R. H. Ricks.

FRIDAY—Afternoon Session.

Afternoon session called to order by the President at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Smith received pledges for Wives and Widows Home.

Reports on the Jefferson Davis Home Association and on the placing of portraits in schools were read and accepted:

REPORT OF JEFFERSON DAVIS HOME ASSOCIATION

MADAM PRESIDENT AND DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY:

It is with regret that the Chairman of the Jefferson Davis Home Association Committee must report so few names and "dollars" secured for the Association; but at the same time she recognizes the fact that several chapters had already taken chapter memberships, and further, they have work on hand which must be completed before anything else is undertaken.

Soon after my appointment on this committee I wrote each one associated with me in the work, asking her co-operation. I have also sent letters to every chapter president, asking her help in interesting her members and in securing names among them for our association. Many have written me, expressing their interest and promising to help in the work later.

I have received and forwarded to the Treasurer the following amounts, with the names to whom certificates of membership were to be sent:

Miss Julia James, Wilmington	$1.00
Mrs. John. G. Rankin, "	1.00

Mrs. Jane De Rosset	"	1.00
Mrs. Junius Davis	"	1.00
Gastonia Chapter		5.00

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. A. A. McLEAN,
Chairman.

REPORT COMMITTEE PLACING PORTRAITS IN SCHOOLS

Nine Portraits were reported us being placed in public schools.
MRS. WILLARD.

REPORT ENDOWMENT FOR N. C. ROOM

At our last Convention held in Wilmington, Mrs. J. A. Hodges, of Richmond, made an appeal for an Endowment Fund of $2000.00 for our North Carolina Room in Richmond. The Convention voted for this to be the special work for the ensuing year. As your Chairman of this Committee, I wish to thank my able assistants, Mrs. R. C. Costner, of Lincolnton; Mrs. W. J. Mongomery, Concord; Mrs. C. F. Harvey, Kinston; and Miss Sue Tate, of Morganton. Our Treasurer, Mrs. Eugene Little, reports $537.72 received. While we are very grateful for this amount, many of the chapters have not responded. We wish to emphasize our appreciation of the large donation of the Confederate Grays Chapter, of Mount Olive, which, under the auspices of Mrs. Brazeale, raised $28.00, by far the largest amount raised by any chapter. The Goldsboro Chapter deserves special thanks, along with the generous check of the U. C. V. of Charlotte, and the donation of General Julian S. Carr.

This is important work, and we hope next year the entire Division will be aroused to the necessity of this Endowment Fund.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. M. McD. WILLIAMS,
Chairman.

REPORT OF CHILDREN CHAPTERS

Because the children of today are the hope and power of tomorrow, we believe that the training and education of the children of North Carolina in Confederate principles and history is the most important work that we as Daughters of the Confederacy can do.

Your committee has issued a circular letter to every chapter and every leader in the State seeking to obtain facts of the work that has been done, a history of the organization of the chapters that have ever existed, as well as a sketch of the Confederate person for whom named. The circular also sought the name of any interested person who might take up the work in the towns where chapters have never existed. Your chairman has been delighted with the cordial, helpful replies to this appeal.

A conference of presidents and leaders, this morning, was an enthusiastic success, and we believe it will further the work in the State, for the discussions concerned various interesting and helpful phases and suggestions for conducting and organizing the children.

Respectfully submitted,

MAUDE F. FINGER.

REPORT OF CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE ON DEPT. OF HISTORY AND ARCHIVES

MADAM PRESIDENT:

Your committee begs to report as follows:

The department of History and Archives is already established under the title of The Historical Commission, and is doing wise and valuable work.

It remains now for the State of North Carolina to erect a suitable fireproof building for the safe guarding of these treasures snatched from the destroying hand of time, and preserving them for those who are to inherit the ages gone before.

To this end we respectfully suggest the passing of the following resolution unanimously:

Resolved, that we, the North Carolina Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, in Convention assembled, do unanimously, and earnestly beseech the honorable, the Legislature of the State of North Carolina, at its next session, to pass a bill for the immediate erection of a safe, commodious and handsome fireproof building, to be used for the storage and preservation of all Historical material, documents, records, papers, letters, mss., books, newspapers, maps, prints and everything relative to the domain of History in all its bearings and branches.

And we also beg that different funds do and shall be provided in said bill to build such a house as will set forth the pride and dignity of its purpose and represent in its way the splendor of North Carolina History.

Your committee would also urge that the President or Corresponding Secretary, of each chapter in the Division, either see personally, or writ to the Senator and Represenative of her district and county and beg them to vote for the passage of this bill.

United action will accomplish it without a doubt, as all the other patriotic organizations in the State are working with the Historical commission to secure this building. Fer the erection of which we say: God speed the day!

Respectfully submitted,

REBECCA CAMERON,
Chairman.

Remarks—Memorial Day was fittingly observed in Henderson. It was an occasion made memorable in more ways than the ordinary observance of this hallowed day by speeeh making, pageantry of soldiers and civilians, and decorating the graves of the dead. The ceremony of laying the corner stone of the Confederate Monument by the Grand Lodge of Masons, made the occasion one long to be remembered. Senator Lee S. Overman delivered a magnificent address, after which lunch was served to the Veterans and their friends. In the evening, a delightful public reception was given Senator Overman in the Croatan Club, by the Club members, the citizens of Vance county, the Daughters of the Confederacy, and the Confederate Veterns. We are proud to make this report, that the entire amount of money has been pledged for the monument, and a thirty-five hundred dollar monument will be unveiled on November 10, 1910, with elaborate exercises, and with Gov. W. W. Kitchin and Gen. Julian S. Carr, orators of the day. A banquet for Veterans and visitors will follow the unveiling. Our every effort for two years has been for this monument. A cause very near and dear to our hearts.

D. C. projects; and most important of all a keen interest in local Confederate History, is resulting in historic spots, being suitably marked. Sent fruits and delicacies to sick Veterans.

On June 3rd, Maj. H. A. London, during the school commencement, presented this picture of General Lee to the auditorium in behalf of the Chapter. This ringing eulogy was heard by hundreds of grown people and children. We hung it by the side of that of President Davis, and next year we will hang Stonewall Jackson on our auditorium walls. If the Soldiers' Home needs it, we will give either money or bedding next year. We have been under the impression that the Soldiers' Home did not now need our help. We promise to aid the Auxiliary next year, and to give to the Normal scholarship, and for N. C. endowment in Richmond, Va.

Our principal efforts the present year have been directed towards raising funds for a Confederate Monument. We have responded to calls for contributions from Chapters who are building monuments. Memorial Day exercises were quite a success. Judge Buxton, of Winston, delivered a splendid address. After exercises at cemetery, we served dinner to about 300 Veterans. On January 19th, Lee's birthday, we had appropriate exercises.

Our Chapter has sustained a heavy loss this year, by reason of the deaths of Mrs. J. J. Harney, 2nd Vice President and charter member, and Mrs. Sutherland, who took an active interest in all that pertained to the welfare of our Chapter. Both are greatly missed.

On May 10th we presented five crosses, three of which were to replace those that had been lost.

We gave one Veteran $20.00, another $2.00, a third $1.35. We sent $1.00 to the Louisburg Chapter for their monument and gave $60.00 to the monument for the students of 1861, at Chapel Hill, of which $15.00 was the memorial of a friend to our late Corresponding Secretary, and $5.00 a memorial to a freshman of the class of 1909, the only grandson of a Veteran.

This money was raised wholly within the Chapter with no appeals to the public, or outside aid.

We now hope to be able to begin work for our own Orange county monument.

Remarks—All our meetings of the year have been held in the "Julian S. Carr" Chapter room at the Y. M. C. A. building. We had a program arranged January the first, giving the Historical subjects, and Hostesses for the social half hour throughout the year. This we carried out in connection with our business meetings on the 2nd Tuesday in each month. Our membership is gradually increasing and financially we have had the "biggest" year in the history of our Chapter. Our best work, of which we are justly proud is the organization in January of our "Lee Jackson" Children's Chapter. Miss Tuck as leader and the children as officers. This bids fair to be one of the banner auxillaries of our State. On Lee's birthday we ran our "penny collection" in all the Graded Schools in Durham, realizing $15.00. This being our plan to keep the U. D. C. before our children. From a moving picture benefit, given us we cleared $10.00, and in a "cake contest", our U. D. C. members who won prizes, donating same to our Chapter, we raised $15.00.

All our pledges for the year have been met, including an increase of $5.00 to our State Normal Scholarship Fund and a donation of $26.00 to the Confederate Museum in Richmond and $10.00 to Chapel Hill monument.

On the 10th of May we observed Memorial Day in the most elaborate way ever before in Durham. A half holiday was given by the city schools, many business houses closed during our exercises and decorated in our colors. The Confederate Veterans of Webb Camp and neighboring counties, numbering two hundred, wearing the red or white carnations, provided for them by a friend, lined up with their Commander and Marshals in red and white regalia, and were escorted by the Durham Military Company and band followed by Lee Jackson Children Chapter and hundreds of school children, (wearing white dresses, and red sashes) and Daughters, all marching to Maplewood Cemetery where our exercises were held. Our speaker of the day was Durham's Confederate Veteran orator, Maj. W. A. Guthrie, who most elaborately, eloquently and pathetically delivered a fine address to a large assembly of people. After which the "Grand Master Mason" and Durham Lodge of Masons had most impressive services, and laid the corner stone in the base of our Confederate Monument, which we hope to soon erect over our fallen heroes' graves in Maplewood Cemetery. Forty nine Crosses of Honor were presented by the Chapter and presented by Elizabeth Davis Tyree and Matilda Bryant of the Children's Chapter. Many war songs were rendered by the school children and while the band played Dixie the two little girls placed our emblem, the 'Laurel Wreath," and a bunch of white carnations tied with the U. D. C. colors on the base of the monument.

The Veterans fired the salute, while school children joined with the Daughters in placing Confederate Flags and flowers on each Veteran's grave. Vehicles were then provided by the Chapter members for the transportation of Veterans to their respective homes. Thus closing a day long to be remembered by all present. Best of all, we paid for our monument base in one day by selling souvenir "Monument Tags," and hope before our next Convention to report our entire monument completed.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. B. L. TYREE, President.

Mrs. Little gave the Chapter a most delightful reception in May and presented each daughter with a certificate of membership. The most of our money is raised at our annual Chrysanthemum show. This Chapter has contributed $10.00 to Soldiers' Home, $10.00 to Chapel Hill Monument, $10.00 to State Normal Scholarship, $25.00 to Home for Wives and Widows of Veterans, $3.00 to N. C. room in Richmond, $1.00 to pin for Mrs. Parsley, $1.00 to Sinking Fund and $6.00 to complete our pledge to Arlington.

Monthly meetings are held at the homes of Daughters, and it is found helpful to serve refreshments. We endeavor to fittingly observe the days especially set apart, besides honoring birthdays of other loved heroes.

Memorial Day was a glorious one with us. The band for the occasion was secured by the Jesse Barnes Camp of Veterans. An able address by Rev. J. C. Caldwell was followed by the annual dinner to several hundred Veterans and the usual exercises at the cemetery. The most beautiful feature being the marching of the graded school children around the Confederate monument—all carrying wreaths and garlands which they placed upon the mound of our Confederate dead, leaving it a vast bank of lovely flowers. We wish to have our Chapter perpetuate our custom of sending memorial wreaths whenever a dear old Veteran dies.

This year our interest has chiefly centered in the Home for Wives and Widows of Veterans. With us are touching evidences of the need of such a noble provision. Two Veterans, infirm and greatly impoverished, are unwilling to leave their helpless old wives behind them, so they stoutly refuse to avail themselves of the comfortable refuge of the Soldiezs' Home.

A Veteran, nearing the day when the bugle will sound "Taps" over his grave, was recently looking, with tears in his eyes, on an old soldier who was dressed in Confederate gray. He exclaimed with a sob, "I would be willing to give a thousand dollars for a suit like that to be buried in." Our Daughters could not resist the pathetic longing of his loyal old heart, and such a suit was ordered. It has come, and he will have the pleasure of wearing it for awhile, and the pride of knowing that he will be laid to rest in it.

We have had a most successful year. Seven new members enrolled, and a fine spirit of enthusiasm pervades our work. We are in a good financial condition after having responded to every demand made upon us in the name of the U. D. C.

Madam President, Daughters of the Confederacy: Granville Grays Chapter having accomplished the erection of an imposing Confederate Monument in Oxford, which stands thirty-five feet in height, surmounted by a bronze statue of Confederate Soldier in position of "Ready", at the junction of Main and Hillsboro streets, we have now as our special work to place a suitable curbing and iron rail around the monument and to place neat slabs at every soldier's grave in the cemeteries here, now unmarked.

On May 10th, 1910, we presented nineteen crosses of honor to Veterans here and observed the day with imposing ceremonies. Dr. D. A. Long of Burlington, was present as orator of the day, and delivered fine addresses to the Veterans. We took pleasure in serving elaborate dinners to the Veterans on October 31st, 1909 and on May 10th, 1910. As the Veterans started off to the reunion in Norfolk, about one hundred in number, we placed blue ribbon bands on each hat, bearing name of company and regiment in which each Soldier served.

We have now on hand fifteen applications for crosses of honor to be presented in January, and ten new applications for membership to our Chapter.

We have responded to more calls than ever, and will have a nice sum to start our next year's work. We gave $50.00 to Wives and Widows Home, $25.00 to Chapel Hill Monument, $7.00 to Arlington, $1.00 to Franklin County Monument, $10.00 to Soldiers' Home, $10.00 for Normal Scholarship, $5.00 to N. C. room, Richmond, $25.-$75 for Grave Markers and $45.54 to charity, besides Chapter expenses. Our special work has been the compiling of a booklet, "War Days in Fayetteville," containing a picture of the first Confederate monument erected in North Carolina, (Fayetteville 1867,) reminiseences of our women vividly recalling days of Sherman's raid, from which we realized a nice sum. It is the only book of local war history published by any North Carolina Chapter and has reached many states of the Union. We celebrated Lee-Jackson Day, Memorial Day and President Davis's birthday with orations and appropriate exercises, the military and citizens attending. On May 10th we entertained 300 Veterans at dinner. The late Dr. B. F. Dixon was the orator, and Crosses of Honor were presented. The procession, headed by a band and both local military companies, was the largest ever seen here. The Children's Chapter always assist in our celebrations and the Veterans enjoy their stirring war songs. We gave substantial aid to many Veterans at Christmas and constantly during the year. A laurel wreath and Confederate flags are placed on the casket of every Veteran who dies and we have marked every Veteran's grave with a Confederate Star. A voting contest and moving picture benefit netted $136.00 Our museum is filled with many Confederate relics. At our meetings we have sketches of War Heroes and the Daughters pay loving tribute to their memory.

Remarks—January 19th was appropriately observed by this Chapter. The exercises were conducted by Drs. K. P. Battle and Thos. Hume, who made very enjoyable fnformal talks on personal reminiscences of Lee and Jackson.

May 18th, our most elaborate celebration day, in no particular, fell short of its standard this year, and was made especially enjoyable by a splendid address from Maj. Charles M. Steadman. Besides the Memorial address, we served a bountiful dinner to 70 Veterans.

We are making a strenuous effort toward helping to erect the Monument to the "Boy Soldiers," each member having her shoulder to the wheel. We have paid our 50 cents per capita and have $75 more in hand for this monument. We hope to add new members to our Chapter this year, and to arouse our membership to greater zeal.

Remarks—For the last three years the Monroe Chapter has struggled to raise sufficient funds to erect a monument to Union's Confederate soldiers. Our fondest hope has been realized and we are proud of the work we have accomplished. On May 10th the corner stone was laid by the Grand Lodge of Masons in the presence of the largest crowd ever assembled in Union county. The orator of the occasion, Mr. J. C. Sikes, made a fine address. Crosses of Honor were presented, and a U. D. C. badge presented to Miss Lee, as a token of appreciation of her faithful work. After which the annual dinner to the Veterans was served.

On July 4th, the handsome twenty five hundred dollar monument was unveiled by thirty little girls and boys dressed in white. Attorney-General T. W. Bickett delivered an excellent address to an immense crowd.

Remarks—We have placed a portrait of President Davis in our graded school, also given, on the same day, a prize of $5.00 for the best essay on his life. We offer this year, a prize for best paper on the "Causes leading up to the War between the States." Have contributed $5.00 to the State scholarship at the Normal, also $5.00 to Arlington Monument Fund. Don't know why, but all Veterans among us applied to McDougald Camp U. C. V. at Lillington for Crosses of Honor, consequently the privilege of awarding them has been denied us. Memorial Day is always observed by us at Chicora Confederate Cemetery, on Averasboro Battle Ground, this is cared for by the Chicora and Averasboro Battle Chapters jointly. On last May 10th an eloquent address was delivered by Mr. E. S. Smith, of Lillington. Ode to the Confederate dead, and I'm a good old Rebel, were sung, the latter being most enthusiastically applauded by the Veterans present. One visiting Veteran said he had last seen the ground when taking part in the battle fought there in 1865. He located the very tree, under which he was cooking, on an old hoe, a corn-meal cake, when surprised by the yankees, his orders were to fall back very slowly, while protecting Johnson's retreat, so though very hungry, he had to leave his hoe-cake. Our Historian has prepared a history of the Chicora Monument, one of the first, if not the first erected in North Carolina. We furnished and take care of a room in Soldiers' Home, in Raleigh, sent as an Xmas present an Art Square from the Chapter, a picture from Mrs. Faison Hicks and a rug from Mrs. E. Lee, afterwards sent one of our members to the Home to find out all the needs of our room and forwarded, at once, to Mrs. Brooks $6.00, all she said was needed. We have sent wreaths and flags to be placed on the newly made graves of two Veterans—J. A. Green and W. J. Smith. This year we have lost one of our charter members, Mrs. David Smith. We have at present 33 names on our roll, some have left our town but still pay their dues. Blanks for three new members are now in transit and two or three blanks sent out but not yet returned to our Recording Secretary.

Remarks—Our Chapter is now in a very flourishing condition, and prospects are bright for new energy and renewed interest.

On the 6th of August we were much honored by the "Matt W. Ransom" Camp giving a large dinner in our honor, Judge Clarkson was the orator, and needless to say, delivered an eloquent oration. Speeches were also made by Judge R. B. Peebles, Col. W. H. L. Burgwyn and Hon. Thomas W. Mason. There were about a hundred Veterans present.

We are now working for a monument which we hope some day to place in the court house grove.

MINNIE G. BURGWYN, President.

C. room in Richmond $1.00, Crosses of Honor $1.50. The 3rd of June was one of the most enjoyable days in the history of our Chapter. We had two splendid drawing cards. The Governor of N, C., who was the orator of the day and a brass band. At 10 o'clock the band, followed by the old Soldiers, and Daughters of the Henry Wyatt Chapter as an escort to his excellency, marched to the town hall where the exercises were held. After a magnificent address by Gov. Kitchin, important talks were made by ex-Judge Graham, of Oxford, and Col. Robinson of Goldsboro. By the invaluable aid of our good citizens, we were able to give the old Soldiers a sumptuous dinner.

The coming year we expect to turn much of our assistance to the support of the home for Confederate women, for we feel that no grander or nobler work could have been undertaken by the Daughters than the care of our good women who suffered and lost so much during the long and weary struggle.

Remarks—Since this was my first year to do active U. D. C. work, perhaps our report will not make as great a showing as formerly. I accepted the presidency with fear and trembling in January 1910. We have had a most harmonious year. I do not think any Chapter in the state has more earnest, loyal workers, and to them is due the success we have attained. All dues and taxes have been paid, and all celebration days observed.

Although I was elected president just one week before January 19th, we observed the day with fitting exercises. We served coffee and sandwiches to a number of Veterans.

On May 10th we had our largest celebration. Appropriate exercises were held in the Hpera House, which was crowded. On this occasion we presented the Graded School with a splendid portrait of Stonewall Jackson handsomely framed. Following the exercises in the Opera House we had exercises at the cemetery and decorated the old Soldiers' graves, after which we served a basket dinner to about 130 Veterans, which they voted as the best we have ever given.

We celebrated June 3rd with appropriate exercises, after which we served lemonade. At all three celebrations we had splendid addresses and good music. We bestowed Crosses of Honor on all three occasions—18 in all.

The Daughters acted as caterers at the annual reception given by the Commercial Club in February, from which they cleared $90.00.

We gave our annual gold medal to the pupil of the graduating class of the Graded School, who wrote the best essay on "The Causes sf the Civil War.'.

Recently, we took a penny collection in the schools for the Arlington and Shiloh monuments, by which we raised $5.00 for each monument at the Central Graded School in Gastonia, and $1.00 for each at the Dallas Graded School.

We sent $5.00 to the North Carolina room at Richmond. We sent $15.00 to the Gastonia room at the Old Soldiers' Home in Raleigh. The Chapter gave $5.00 to the Chapel Hill monument, and $10.00 was raised for this purpose by the committee, making $15.00 in all. We took a Chapter certificate, $5 00, in the Jefferson Davis Memorial Home. We have answered all calls for money and aid from old soldiers. We gave to the Gastonia Library three silk flags, Confederate, State and National.

All things considered we feel we have had a very good year.

Remarks—This Chapter was organized one year ago with 18 members. We have since added seven more. Our meetings are held monthly and are very enjoyable. The attendance is good. We have paid our taxes, $5.00; sinking fund $1.00. Besides the running expenses of our Chapter, we have responded to the following calls; Soldiers' Home $5.00, Chapel Hill Monument $3.00, N. C. room in Richmond $2.00, Arlington Monument $1.25, (Halifax High School penny collection), $1.00 for pin for organizer of N. C. Division U. D. C., $4.59 for flowers for a beloved Veteran. Lee-Jachson Day was publicly observed at the school building, the children taking part in the exercises. At the conclusion of the programme, each child was presented with a bag of fruits and confections. After a look into their happy little faces, we felt well paid for any trouble we had taken, and felt sure they would always remember the 19th of Jnnuary, Lee-Jackson Day. The 3rd of June, Jefferson Davis's birthday, was celebrated at the court house, with appropriate exercises, and a splendid address by one of our beloved Veterans, Rev. P. N. Stainback, of Weldon, N. C. Three Crosses of Honor were bestowed on that day.

CHILDREN'S CHAPTER REPORTS.

No. 2—WASHINGTON GRAYS CHAPTER, WASHINGTON

MADAM PRESIDENT, DAUGHTERS AND CHILDREN OF THE CONFEDERACY:

I congratulate myself that it is my delightful task to bear to you to-day, the hearty greetings of the Washington Grays Chapter, Children of the Confederacy and assure you that as the years go by we faint not nor grow weary in commemorating the brave deeds of a noble ancestry. We remember them most tenderly today, as they sleep. Our Chapter was organized by the late lamented and much beloved leader, Mrs. W. H. Call, in the year 1887, being the first organized in North Carolina, and the second in the entire south, Virginia leading with the first, North Carolina second. When organized it had only sixty-five members, but that number soon increased to one hundred. Mrs. Call was inspired to organize the Chapter not to perpetuate the memory of our noble ancestry by the recital of cruel wrongs, that occurred during the great civil strife, but free from the feelings of ill will and bitterness, untrammeled by prejudice and unfettered by bias, she saw the necessity of teaching to us the truth of history in its simplicity, in love and in peace. As some of you are aware, we have placed in the North Carolina room of the "White House" of the Confederacy, at Richmond, an oil portrait of General Bryan Grimes, costing about one hundred dollars. We have also placed a portrait of Mayor Thomas Sparrow in the room of the Historical Society of N. C. in Raleigh, costing about one hundred dollars. Major Sparrow, after whom our Chapter was named, commanded the first company raised in Beaufort county. In 1905 we erected a beautiful monument to the memory of seventeen soldiers killed in 1862, in defence of Washington. This cost about one hundred and fifty dollars. We have disinterred a large number of soldiers and placed their remains in the Confederate plot in our city cemetery, and marked each grave with a marble slab. Another delightful labor which we have performed is contributing to the necessities of soldiers' families, giving them timely and substantial aid.

Of course we aid the Daughters on Memorial Day, for we feel that they could not get along well without us, and we take great pleasure in rendering all the assistance we can. Our labors for the past year have not been so abundant as in former years, but we hope to turn over a new leaf and improve the coming year, under the leadership of Mrs. G. C. Bragaw.

Respectfully submitted,
WASHINGTON GRAYS CHAPTER,
ELIZABETH TAYLOR, Sec.

No. 4—JANE HUGHES CHAPTER, NEW BERNE

This Chapter, auxiliary to the New Bern Chapter, has a membership of one hundred. Fourteen new members have been added during the year. They meet regularly on the tenth of each month and always unite with the Daughters on celebration days.

They gave their annual sweet pea show in June, from which they realized twenty-eight dollars and forty cents.

They have sent flowers to a Veteran's funeral, placed a copy of "Heroes in Gray" in the New Bern public library, sent $4.40 to the Arlington momument, $5.00 to Chapel Hill monument, and $5.00 to Jefferson Davis Home Association. They are now planning a box for the Soldiers' Home at Raleigh.

Balance from 1909	$24.38
Receipts from 1910	43.80
Total	$68.18
Expended	21.90
Balance on hand	$46.28

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. HUGHES HOLLAND,
Leader.

No. 5—GEORGE DAVIS CHAPTER, WILMINGTON

The George Davis Children's Chapter is in good condition. We have fifty four members and six applications pending. One member has joined the Cape Fear Chapter, and several others will do so in January. As I was elected late in the year, we have not raised our money for the year's work. But we are planning a Halloween party, and several entertainments during the winter. We have promised ten dollars to the Chapel Hill monument, and hope soon to be prepared to respond to other calls. The children took part in Memorial exercises on May 10th.

I have a book in which I register the children's applications.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. C. COVINGTON,
Leader.

No. 6—J. D. MOORE CHAPTER, GASTONIA

The J. D. Moore Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, is still energetic and to the cause for which organized. Owing to the long continued illness of their leader, they have been unable to do any work during the year, but are looking forward to making much better progress along all lines the coming year.

The greatest ambition is to aid in the erection of the Confederate monument to the Gaston county soldiers, for which they now have on hand $257.21.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. THOMAS LEE CRAIG,
Leader.

No. 7—FRANK BENNETT CHAPTER, WADESBORO

Greetings from the Frank Bennett Chapter! This second year of our existence has been one of interest and progress. Our membership is 54, with an average attendance of 23-30 at our regular meetings. From a patriotic entertainment, Lee-Jackson Day, January 19th, we realized $20.00 We had readings on the life of Jefferson Davis, in commemoration of his birthday, June 3rd.

Appropriate exercises were held Memorial Day, May 10th, in which the children took the leading part. Over fifty Confederate soldiers are buried in the Wadesboro cemetery. "The Roll Call of the Dead" was called by one of the Veterans, Mr. E. F. Fenton, and in response to each name, a short sketch of the soldier was read by one of the children. Each grave is assigned to a member of the Chapter for care and decoration. Twelve graves, already marked by Anson Chapter, and for whom there is no one to care, have been refilled and cradled with beautiful white brick and the Frank Bennett Chapter has defrayed all expenses, $28.00. The children are greatly interested in this, and the cause, so dear to us, will be kept ever fresh in their minds.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. E. LITTLE,
MRS. R. M. MANN, Leaders.

No. 8—DIXIE LEE CHAPTER, TARBORO

The Dixie Lee Chapter is still a most energetic and loyal little people, always doing promptly and well any and everything their hands find to do.

Quite a number of our members are away this year in the different colleges, this makes it hard to keep the fire of patriotism kindled. Our work varies little, and is chiefly memorial. We always take part in the celebration of Memorial Day, of Gen. Lee's birthday, and President Davis's, and keep the birthday of our own honored William Dorsey Pender. This year our work has been that of raising funds to erect a fitting memorial to Henry L. Wyatt. Our efforts have been crowned with success, and in October we unveiled in our Town Commons a drinking fountain in memory of Edgecombe's Soldier Boy, who was the first to sacrifice his life for State rights.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. ROBERT J. WALKER,
Leader.

No. 10—WINNIE DAVIS CHAPTER, KINSTON

Regular meetings of the auxiliary were held up to and including April 3rd,since which time no meetings have been held,but they will be regularly resumed this month.

All pledges have been paid, and $1.00 donated to the Shiloh Monument Fund. We have also contributed to the Soldiers' Home and assisted in sending a Veteran, an inmate of the County Home, to the Soldiers' Home.

The treasurer has a balance on hand and we stand ready to respond to any call for assistance.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. F. HARVEY,
Leader.

No. 12—ANNIE K. KYLE CHAPTER, FAYETTEVILLE

Greetings from the Annie K. Kyle Chapter: We herewith report a satisfactory work for the year just closing. The Chapter enjoys an enrollment of fifty members, whose loyalty to the cause is gratifying.

The regular monthly meetings are held on the first Saturday morning of each month, and are well attended. An efficient corps of little officers preside with graceful ability.

A varied program is arranged, consisting of the Confederate catechism, music, poems, and other items of war history. As no dues are imposed, a birthday offering is received, thus adding pennies to the floating fund. At our benefit tendered, the Chapter realized $18.00 We contributed $5.00 to the Soldier's Home, and $5.00 to the Wives and Widows, besides donating a box of substantial cheer and other gifts during Christmas tide to needy Veterans.

Lee's birthday was celebrated with suitable exercises in which the Chapter took prominent part. And the 3rd of June was appropriately remembered.

On May 10th, the Chapter formed a long line of march to beautiful Cross Creek cemetery, where each member bore and placed on the grave of a Confederate soldier a garland of roses, thus perpetuating a service of loving memory of those who passed over and whose "sun set while it was yet day."

The Chapter is arranging for greater things the coming year.

MISS KATE MATTHEWS,
Leader.

No. 14—W. G. QUAKENBUSH CHAPTER, LAURINBURG

The W. G. Quakenbush Children's Chapter was organized 1909, and named after a man who though too young to fight in the war, still gave his life to the children of our Confederate soldiers. His life work was to educate the children regardless of remuneration. Our town has a beautiful monumeni to his memory, but the children wanted to commemorate his work by giving his name to their Chapter. It was reported at the last convention as numbering 25, it is now 39 in number, and with bright prospects, and a band of enthusiastic children. Its work as cut out for the ensuing year is to share in the endowment of a fund for the education of some soldier's child.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. T. T. COVINGTON,
Leader.

No. 15—ANNIE LEE CHAPTER, LITTLETON

The Annie Lee Chapter is still a loyal little band. This year has been rather unfortunate for them on account of two long spells of sickness in their leader's family, which necessitated fewer meetings, as the meetings are held in her home, but sympathy for their leader in her trouble seem to unite them in a closer bond of love which was clearly demonstated in their many attentions they paid her in their Chapter's name. At Christmas they presented her a U. D. C. badge with their love.

They have planted flowers and put the graves of each soldier buried in the town cemetery in order.

Added much to Memorial Day exercises with songs and recitations. Helped the Daughters in an entertainment for Shiloh. Gave one dollar for Shiloh monument. Gave a reception in honor of Mrs. F. M. Williams, when she visited our town. Who inspired them with much interest by a very interesting talk. Are still working to mark the graves of all soldiers buried in town.

Respectfully submitted,
BESSIE LEE WIGGINS CAWTHORNE,
Leader.

ROCKINGHAM VOLUNTEERS CHAPTER, REIDSVILLE

This Chapter organized June 5th, 1910 under the leadership of Miss Emma McKinney and Mrs. R. G. Gladstone, with an enrollment of thirty-three members. They formed part of our procession on June 29th, Reidsville's greatest day, and decorated the iron railing at the base of our monument. Monthly meetings are held at homes of members.

MRS. E. F. HALL,
President.

LEE-JABKSON CHAPTER, DURHAM

The Lee-Jackson Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, auxiliary to Julian S. Carr Chapter, was re-organized March 12, 1910, and is now composed of twenty-five active members.

The meetings are held once a month, in the house of some member. They are called to order by the President and the Secretary calls the roll to which the members answer with the names of famous battles, Southern heroes, or leading generals, whichever the leader requests. Special States are sometimes studied, recitations given, papers read and occasionally some patriotic contest is given. Often a Veteran is asked to talk to the Chapter, and this always creates much interest and patriotism. The meeting closes with a short social feature and refreshments are always served.

The Auxiliary took part in the Memorial exercises on May 10. They gave $71.65 to the Durham Confederate monument fund and are now making plans for raising more money.

Since the reorganization of our Chapter, Mayor Guthrie, one of Durham's most prominent citizens, and a Veteran, presented the Chapter with a framed picture of General Lee, beneath which is his farewell address to his army. We have also been presented with a gavel, hand carved by Mr. Christian, of Rocky Mount. Especially is this appropriate for our Chapter, as it has a picture of General Lee on one side and of General Jackson on the other. We feel deeply indebted for both of these beautiful gifts.

GLADYS GORMAN, President,
MABEL READE TUCK,
Leader.

THOMAS GARRETT CHAPTER, WINDSOR

The Thos. Garrett Children Chapter has about fifteen members and meets each month just previous to the meeting of the mother Chapter. It has a full set of officers, with Miss Willie Pugh as leader, and is opened with appropriate exercises. The children give a penny each, a month, and once a year as many pennies as they are old. They take part in all celebrations with the mother Chapter.

They meet alphabetically, each little hostess serving light refreshments, and at each meeting some child recites or reads something concerning the Confederacy. They are learning the Confederate songs, and hope soon to have a good paper on the war record of Thos. Garrett, for whom their Chapter is named.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. J. SAWYER,
Rec-Sec. Francis W. Bird Chapter.

ANNIE D. KENAN CHAPTER, KENANSVILLE

The Annie D. Kenan Chapter has a membership of ten earnest little workers. Their chief work is directed to the building of the monument in their county.

MRS. H. D. WILLIAMS,
Leader.

RICHARDSON MALLETT CHAPTER, CHAPEL HILL

The Richardson Mallett Chapter, Auxiliary to the Leonidas Polk Chapter of Chapel Hill, was organized by Misses Blanche Pickard and Mary Pritchard, July 15th, 1910. There were enrolled twenty two members who are enthusiastic and wide-awake. They have monthly meetings with a full set of officers, who conduct their meetings with forms and responsibilities of business.

They hope soon to add to the interest of their meetings by having a literary program that will be in keeping with the great cause they commemorate

Some members of their Chapter assisted their mother Chapter in getting up and giving a play recently, for the benefit of the Boy-Soldier Monument, that we hope soon to see erected in our midst, in memory of the boys who so willingly laid down their books and went to fight for their country. Mother Chapter, in return for what they did, gave them $15.00 of the amount gotton from the play. The principal work of the Chapter for the coming year shall be that of raising funds to aid the erecting of the Boy-Soldier Monument. They have begun this desired amount with $15.00 as the first deposit.

Before they were organized, they assisted the Leonidas Polk Chapter with the Veterans' dinner the 10th of May. Too, they were a feature of the day with their red and white badges, wreaths and flowers, when they marched in a body to the cemetery, there covering the graves of the Confederates with flowers, and singing songs to their memory.

Respectfully submitted,
MISS BLANCHE PICKARD,
MISS MARY PRITCHARD, Leaders.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION

of the

FIRST DAY—Morning Session

The Fifteenth Annual Convention of the North Carolina Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met Wednesday morning, October 25th, 1911 at 10:40 o'clock, in Winston-Salem. The Convention was called to order by Mrs. H. L. Riggins, the most capable President of the Jas. B. Gordon Chapter, and opened with prayer by the U. D. C. Chaplain, our much beloved Miss Hettie James, who always brings words of encouragement and peace to us.

Mr. Eugene E. Gray in eloquent and well chosen words turned over the keys of the Twin City, the largest leaf tobacco center in the world, to the North Carolina Division and made us "as welcome as could be."

Beautiful music by the Winston Orchestra as well as songs and poems added much to the attractiveness of the program.

Greetings of welcome were brought from the Norfleet Camp United Confederate Veterans, from the local chapter Daughters of the American Revolution and the James B. Gordon Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy. They were responded to most feelingly by our honored State President.

The morning exercises being over, at 11:30 o'clock the State President, Mrs. Fannie Ransom Williams, declared the Convention opened for business.

Report from Chairman of Credential Committee, Mrs. Eugene Little, was read showing 191 votes.

Mrs. Williams then gave us the greatest honor the North Carolina Division has ever had, an introduction to Mrs. Cornelia Branch Stone, ex-president of the General Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, the most highly honored woman of our Southern land.

Report of the President was then read.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

After another year of arduons, but pleasant, work for the good of the division, I bring to you an account of my stewardship as your president and come also to tell you of the work done in the Division and to make some suggestions, which after most careful thought and study seem to me necessary for the good of our work.

The year just finished has been the busiest within my knowledge as a Daughter. To the work I have given all my energy and attention. Many questions and opinions have been asked and to all the best answers given as far as lay in my conception of the law, after giving to each special consideration. These decisions may not have coincided with the opinions of all, but they were the best constructions that your president could give, after much thought on each separate question.

Never before have the duties of the office been so heavy, nor the expenses so great. Letters have been more than double other years. The new law, made at the Little Rock convention, requiring all communications and printed matter to pass through the hands of the State President instead of being sent direct to chapters, while a most excellent one in many respects, causes very much greater expense to the Division.

The interest in all work, whether General, State or chapters has been greater than heretofore. There have been four new chapters added to our roll since last we met, viz: Harnett at Lillington, Transylvania at Brevard, McDowell at Marion, and Wilkes Valley Guards at North Wilkesboro, also two new Children's Chapters, the Thomasville Blues at Thomasville and the Rocky Mount Standard Bearers at Rocky Mount. I would feel that justice were not done the new chapters at Brevard, Marion and North Wilkesboro did I fail to give them special mention for having done, what has never occurred before in the history of the Division, and that is that in ordering their charters they also sent in check to cover taxes and U. D. C. certificates.

Just here would I call the special attention of chapter presidents to the fact that it is required that every daughter be given one of these U. D. C. certificates by the chapter. Most new members are receiving them, but it is very much to be doubted if all old ones are supplied. This is a matter that should be inquired into by every chapter.

It is with regret that I must report the disbanding and cancelling of the charters of four chapters in the Division. Of these, three have been so for several years, but the hope has been cherished that they might be revived. These four chapters are; the Wm. A. Closs, Henderson; Theodore Hassell, Williamston; Knott's Island, Woodleigh; and Mt. Zion, Cornelius. Thus our revised roll shows 88 U. D. C. chapters and 37 children's chapters in the Division.

The work of the different officers and committees call for special praise, for they have all given time, thought and energy to their different works.

Shortly after the close of the last convention your president entered into correspondence with the Registrar General, relative to the manner in which she wished the state records sent her, with the result that a special lot of blanks giving the described dates, was gotten out for the use of the state registrar. Mrs. Davis at once began the work of making a complete and correct copy of every name registered upon the Division books, and early in the spring this record was sent to the Registrar General. A fine work most thoroughly done.

The Cross of Honor Record book which was ordered several years ago being full, your president ordered a duplicate from the same firm, for which, however, they insisted on charging $11.00 against $9.00 the time before. While on a visit to Atlanta Mrs.

Creasy made a copy of several hundred veterans names who had obtained Crosses prior to the establishing of the office of Recorder of Crosses. It is to be regretted that North Carolina has not a complete record of all these names. Chapters are especially urged to bear in mind the fact that there is only one more year in which these Crosses can be awarded to veterans or their descendents, so every exertion should be made to see that no one desiring a Cross fails to secure it at once.

Chapters are earnestly requested to send in their state and general taxes and their $1.00 to the Sinking Fund by March 1st of each year. Bills for stationery and minutes are in the treasurer's hands by that time and she should have the funds to meet them. Besides, it adds to postage bills when the treasurer and president have to write many letters to get your taxes. Many chapters pay no attention to the law of $1.00 each to be paid to the Sinking fund. This year only about half of the chapters having sent it in. Please notice this particularly.

Your president would call attention of chapters to the fact that the Keystone is the organ of the North Carolina Division, and one copy at least should be taken by every chapter and the North Carolina report read at each meeting. Mrs. Gordon Finger has proven herself most efficient as our state manager and has endeavored each month to give a brief summary of the work. The very small cost of the Keystone, and the great good to be derived from reading it should make it a most popular paper among Daughters.

Working in conjunction with Mrs. Marshall Williams chairman of the Endowment Fund Committee, Mrs. Latta Johnson, regent of the North Carolina Room in Richmond endeavored to secure an appropriation from the Legislature of $1000 for that endowment. In this however they were not successful, but did succeed in having the amount raised from $100 yearly to $200.

Mrs. London has worked heroically for the Boy Soldier Monument at Chapel Hill, and the Alumni of the University last June pledged themselves to aid us in raising the fund necessary for this work

Miss Etheredge has completed the fund for the Wyatt Monument. When the small amount was needed to secure the $2500 from the State, she personally borrowed the amount, which your president ordered refunded her, when the interest on the money in the hands of the state treasurer fell due.

Mrs. Moffett has by no means let the Memorial Arch drop and will tell you her ideas and plans to complete this work.

The Home for Wives and Widows was most ably placed before the legislature by Mrs. Hunter Smith and her committee but there was not money in the treasury that could be appropriated for this cause.

Our Educational work is still in a most flourishing condition. The same three young ladies were this year returned to the State Normal at Greensboro,after consultation with Dr. Foust, and twelve other schollarships of free tuition are awarded by various schools, and colleges in the state. The cost of living being so high, the expenses at the Normal have been raised $25 for each youug lady, so it is incumbent on these chapters, who have not yet contributed to this fund to do so at once. Your treasurer must meet these bills at stated times during the year, so that the amounts given for this purpose should be sent in early-

In obedience to your commands at Rocky Mount your president in the spring wrote to the American Flag Company relative to the state flag to be placed in the North Carolina Room in Richmond and on receiving samples of silk, submitted them to several Daughters, in whose knowledge of such matters she had perfect confidence. The flag was later placed in the hands of Mrs. Latta Johnston for the Richmond room.

The Soldiers Home has been well looked after by Mrs. M. S. Willard, Mrs. D. A. Garrison of this Committee and Mrs. Josephus Daniels of Purchasing Committee.

As far as can be ascertained five monuments have been unveiled this year. One at Henderson by the Vance County chapter, one at Elizabeth City by the D. H. Hill chapter, one at Ashboro by the Randolph chapter, a very handsome drinking fountain at Lincolnton by the Wallace Reinhardt chapter, Children of the Confederacy, and one to Hon. George Davis, Attorney General of the Confederate States at Wilmington. It was the privilege and pleasure of your president to be present on both the latter occasions, also to speak to the Cape Fear chapter at their celebration of "Shiloh Day". As soon as your president learned of the date set for the unveiling of the George Davis monument she wrote to each of her executive committee, asking their opinion regarding placing a wreath on the Monument for the Division as well as a suggestion as to cost of same. As a result of these letters a very beautiful wreath was placed at the base of the monument, and later taken to Mr. Davis' grave. Scotland chapter, Laurinburg has also completed their monument.

During the summer an appeal was made to your president for North Carolina to contribute to a testimonial for Mrs. Raines, our Custodian of Crosses, and the matter was placed in the hands of Mrs. Creasy with very fine results It is but right Mrs. Rains' great work should bs recognized for it has been most stupenduous, Out of dreadful chaos has she brought the most beautiful order, and has recorded in books the name and record of every man ever receiving a Cross of Honor. This has been a work of love done without any pay whatever.

At the old Hugunot Springs, Virginia is a graveyard, where sleeps many a North Carolina soldier. The sacred place has been deeded to the Richmond chapter, who have put it in order, and are trying to place an iron fence around it. The appeal comes to us, to aid in thus protecting the graves of our dead heroes. Daughters of North Carolina be true to your own and let not this appeal go unheeded. Send your contributions to your State Treasurer.

Time and again have come protests against that miserable design for the monument to the Women of the Confederacy by Miss Kinney. North Carolina Daughters need never fear that this piece of statuary, an outrage to our noble mothers, as well as to our heroic fathers, will ever rise upon our soil. Better, far better, will be the handsome dormitory upon the State Normal grounds at Greensboro, for which our last Legislature appropriated $25,000 and dedicated to the Women of the Confederacy. Noblest monument of all is this.

The Arlington monument has been most ably placed before you by Mrs. Faison, but a special appeal comes at this time to push the sale of the Arlington seals, as a testimonial of love to the memory of Mrs. Edgar James, who designed them, and who has lately been called to join the mighty hosts across the river, whom she desired to honor.

Shiloh Day was observed by all the chapters over the state, with the most gratifying results, which are due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. A. L. Smith. This is but the beginning of good work, which it is hoped will continue for Shiloh.

My friends it is neeessary that this division awaken to the State's financial affairs. Our treasurer will show you there is a deficit this this year, and some steps must be taken to meet the ever increasing state expenses. Year by year they grow larger. Our minutes are by far the heaviest. The price per page remains the same as given seven years ago, the cheapest that can be obtained, but the pages increase each year. Something must be done in order to make them less bulky. The subject has been one to which your president has given both thought and study during the past years, and hence would make a few suggestions:

1st. That all chapter reports be limited to the space allowed for remarks on the blanks, and if they exceed this the Recording Secretary be authorized to shorten them.

2nd. That all committee reports be limited to three typewritten pages.

3rd. That all addresses of any kind be omitted.

4th. That one or more pages be set aside for Memorial ones, giving simply names of deceased and chapters of deceased members, and date of death.

5th. That all committee stationery and expenses be paid out of said committee fund where there is one, otherwise from State fund.

6th. That the state tax be increased to 15 cents per member, as this is necessary to meet necessary expenses.

7th. That your state treasurer be instructed to pay out of the Sinking Fund, so far as it will go, all outstanding debts, also to continue to use next year's SinkingFund till these debts are liquidated.

8th. Your president would also suggest that hereafter one evening during each convention be set aside as Historical Evening, at which time suitable papers be read by ladies selected for the occasion. This evening to be under the auspices of the Assistant Historian, who after consulting with the State Historian, will select the subjects for the papers and those to write them.

In June it was your president's privilege to go to Marion and aid in the final organization of the McDowell chapter, and on October 20th in the name of that chapter to welcome the Veterans to their Veteran's Day and explain to them the objects of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Your most particular attention is called to the question of demits. These blanks are gotten out by the general organization and are required where a Daughter moves from one chapter to another, they must be signed by the president and secretary of the chapter on order from that chapter, and no paper or letter purporting to be a dismissal blank and signed by any other officer is legal. These blanks must be presented to the chapter named in the blank and registered in both chapter and state book, otherwise the lady cannot be counted as a member. Sufficient attention is not given to this matter and hence much confusion and misunderstanding results.

During the past year your president has written 2000 letters and 1000 post cards, signed and sent out 349 U D. C. certificates, and 79 children's certificates besides a number of blanks and other papers.

The saddest part of every report is that which tells of those who were once among us, but whose faces we shall see no more. This year has seen pass away the originator and designer of the Southern Cross of Honor, Mrs. S. E Gabbett of Atlanta. In our own Division death has taken in the prime of life and work our ex-treasurer Miss Alice Nelson of Greensboro, and also our earnest, devoted co-worker Mrs. Helen DeBerniere Wills, both true, loyal Daughters of the Confederacy, whose places are hard to fill. They were my friends true and tried, on whose advice I could always depend, and I miss them

And now my friends I feel that my report has been long but I wished to render unto you a just account of my stewardship. For seven years I have given to you and our work the best that was in me, of my time, my energy and my talents, it now remains with you to say how you think I have succeeded in my stewardship. Before laying down the office of high honor which you have bestowed upon me, I want to thank you one and all for all that you have been to me in my work, for the kind loving letters and messages that have come from you each year, and to tell you that no one will ever know how much they have been appreciated. May I ask that in the future you may prove to my successor in office the same true, helpful Daughters you have been to me. To you of my Executive Board and members of all my committees I would extend sincerest thanks for your aid and kindly forbearance with my many shortcomings, and may we in the future, as in the past, each in her own sphere, work together for the love of everything that belongs to the Confederacy.

And now my friends I am done. Confederate work will ever be my joy and pride, and thus as your president I bid you farewell.

Sincerely yours,
FANNIE RANSOM WILLIAMS,
State President.

Motion made "that a committee be appointed by the President to thoroughly investigate the good suggestions and report later before accepting her report." This was done.

Reports from the Recording and Corresponding Secretaries, Registrar and Recorder of Crosses were read and accepted.

RECORDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Madam President and Daughters of the North Carolina Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy.

It is a priviledge and an honor for me to bring to you my second report as your Recording Secretary. Before giving this report allow me to thank collectively and individually you that have given me such cordial support, aiding me by words of encouragement and kindness to make my work one of pleasure. Each letter seemed to be from a loyal friend speaking ever thoughtfulness and consideration for me. Many of my most pleasant hours were caused by lovely invitations to your homes to unite with you in your local work for the Cause we represent.

It has always been my desire to answer all letters promptly by return mail if possible.

Our work holds its own; with an encouraging increase among the Children's Chapters. The State Books record 88 Chapters with 35 Children's Chapters, there being three new chapters:

Transylvania Chapter,	Brevard, N. C.
McDowell Chapter	Marion, N. C.
Wilkes Valley Guards,	North Wilkesboro, N. C.
Four Children's Chapters:
Stonewall Jackson,	Graham, N. C.
Virginia Jacksie Daniel,	Winton, N. C.
Mrs William M Parsley,	Murfreesboro, N. C.
Fassifern Chapter,	Lincolnton, N. C.

There have been sent out 1221 Application Blanks and 424 for the Auxiliaries. 342 letters and 185 postals have been written. 79 childaen's certificates have been sold. I would suggest that more of these certificates be procured by these chapters. Very few demit blanks have been issued.

My dear co-workers now that my official duties and honors for the past two years are about to be laid down I wish to again thank you for the love you have shown me and the sympathy you have given my failures and shortcomings.

Respectfully submitted,
JACKSIE DANIEL THRASH.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

Madam President and Daughters of the Cosfederacy:

Again it becomes my pleasant duty to submit to you my annual report as your Corresponding Secretary.

All matters coming into my hands and under my supervision have been given prompt and careful attention.

The Chairmen and Members of the Committees were duly notified of their appointment, several of whom wrote nice replies and manifested much interest in the work.

A circular letter from Mrs. McSherry, President General, U. D. C., calling attention to where and how the U. D. C. pins could be obtained, was sent out to the President of each chapter.

At the request of our President, each Chapter President was written to with reference to obtaining a copy of the General Minutes.

The members of the newly appointed Soldiers Home Committee were also notified of their appointment.

All miscellaneous correspondence was given the proper attention.

The year's work has been pleasant and instructive, and, I trust, satisfactory to the Division.

I retire from the honored position bestowed upon me two years ago, and renewed one year ago, with thanks to you for the honor, and I especially thank the Division for their uniform courtesy, kindness, and co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,
BESSIE YOUNT FEIMSTER,
Corresponding Secretary.

REGISTRAR'S REPORT

Madam President and Daughters of the North Carolina Division: United Daughters of the Confederacy.

I herewith submit my report of work done, the past year.

Early last spring I completed the copy of our State Record, and sent it in to our Registrar-General, Mrs Gantt.

I have registered 365 applications and 17 demits; have written 141 letters and 42 post cards

This large number of letters and cards was rendered necessary by the fact that chapter officials do not seem to understand that it is now an essential that the Veterans endorsing the application papers must give both Regiment and Company to which they belonged. Also, that no demit can be accepted, unless made out on regular demit blanks

If you will turn to the report of my predecessor, in this office, you will note her statement "that the books of the Registrar have not, do not, and cannot, in the present state of affairs, accurately reflect a true condition in your organization as to number of members, names of members, etc."

This opinion I most heartily endorse, and I humbly suggest to this honorable body that they do not separate until some action be taken whereby a more accurate registration can be secured.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNIE JONES DAVIS,

Registrar.

RECORDER OF CROSSES OF HONOR REPORT

Madam President and co-workers of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Your Recorder of Crosses in submitting her report for the year 1911 would impress upon you two facts which would tend to lessen both labor and expense connected with this work: First. In ordering crosses or materials for cross applications, write directly to the Recorder of Crosses aed not to the State President. In the latter case the President has to write to the Recorder of Crosses and Chapter President; and the Recorder in turn writes to both State and Chapter Presidents, making four letters where one would answer. Second. In making money orders for crosses do not include Recorder's postage in that order. Make post office order on Mrs. L. H, Raines, Savannah, Ga., for the crosses, and with the order inclose sufficient stamps for the Recorder to forward all papers by first class mail. By remembering these suggestions the State expenses will be decreased

In looking over the North Carolina Recorders' books I find there are ten chapters that have never awarded crosses. I have written several of these chapters calling their attention to this matter, and in one or two instances offered to go and assist the chapter in starting this work. The awarding of crosses is one of our most important duties and we should all see to it that no veteran, who deserves and desires a cross, is without one when December 1912 arrives After that date no more crosses may be awarded.

Although we have been awarding crosses since 1900, our State records go back no father than 1907. When I went to Savannah in February 1911 to consult Mrs. Raines, I copied the records for 1903 and a part of 1904. As a matter of State pride I think we should have all these back records copied and filed with the State Records; however that is for you to decide

During the year there have been 506 Crosses of Honor awarded. Of these 461 were to veterans, 14 to widows, 31 to descendants and 21 were duplicates as follows:

MRS. W. M. CREASY,
Recorder of Crosses.

The historian's report was partly read by the Recording Secretary. When the motion was made to adjourn to accept the so much appreciated invitation to a beautifully appointed luncheon given at the Board of Trade rooms by the Women's Clubs of the Twin City.

FIRST DAY—Afternoon Session.

Business was resumed at 2:30 o'clock and the Historian's Report taken up. Motion was made by Mrs. I. W. Faison, seconded and carried that the following Resolution be incorporated in the minutes.

"Whereas it was authoritatively reported to this Convention that Elson's History is in use in the schools and colleges in North Carolina: Be it resolved—that the North Carolina Division United Daughters of the Confederacy heartily endorses the action of its Historian in investigating the use of this History and commend the colleges that have eliminated it from their curiculum. Resolved—This be recorded in our U. D. C. minutes."

Motion was made by Miss McGill of Fayetteville, seconded and carried "that the historical papers of Miss Cameron's Report be sent to the News & Observer's Historical Review for publication and that the balance of her report be accepted."

Motion was afterwards made that the whole of the Historian's Report be published in the minutes, seconded and carried.

HISTORIAN'S REPORT.

Madam President:

I herewith present my report as Historian of the North Carolina Division, U. D. C. for the year 1910-11.

During November 1910 I received five historical papers for preservation.

Two were sent by the J. E. B. Stewart Chapter of Fayetteville, one from the Person County Chapter and two from the Stonewall Jackson Chapter of Charlotte. These were sent to the Office of the Secretary of State and put on file.

Since then the Division has reported no historical work to me.

During the late session of the Legislature, as the North Carolina member of the General Committee U. D. C. on the Department of History and Archives, and as Chairman of your State "Committee to petition the Legislature to erect a Department of History and Archives; and to erect a suitable building to store such records,

I and my committee in connection with the State Historical Commission, and the other patriotic organizations in the State, and by individual work secured the passage by the Legislature of a bill for the immediate erection of a State Administration Building which is to be fireproof, wherein we are to have ample space, supplied with all modern improvements for filing and preserving our U. D. C. historical records and papers.

This crowns with success the work of several years, and is most gratifying to your committee, who further report that the Department of History and Archives has already been created under the name of "The State Historical Commission," and is doing most valuable work.

The next matter of importance taken up officially, was the report published in the June issue of the Confederate Veteran on the authority of the President of the Maryland Division, U. D. C., Mrs. F. G. Odenheimer, that Elson's History of the United States was in use in the University of North Carolina and in Davidson and Trinity colleges, which statement was made to her by the McMillan Publishing Company.

I at once wrote to the Presidents of the University, Davidson and Trinity, asking if the history was in use in their class rooms. President Venable referred me to the Professor of History at the University, Dr. J. G. deR. Hamilton, who said he had drawn the attention of the McMillan Publishing Company to the errors and inaccuracies of this History long before the Roanoke College incident gave it such publicity, and declared his intention of dropping it from his class books. And stated that when these sectional questions came up in the class room the students were taught the truth from the Southern standpoint.

President Smith of Davidson College wrote me that his Professor of History had used Elison's book for the express purpose of having these especial charges against the South brought up in order to refute them, but had lately decided to drop it in future,

President Few, of Trenity Gollege says Elson's History is not in at Trinity aud has not been for many years. These statemeuts made authoritatively by Dr. Hamilton, Dr. Smith, and Dr. Few, satisfactorilly dispose of this most important subject. So far as I have been informed no steps have yet been taken for the establishment of the U D. C. Lending Libraries, for which our Historian General, Mrs J. Enders Robinson appealed so urgently.

I trust, now that we are to have the State Administration Building where it can be housed, that one will soon be established in our Capital City. I think this covers the range of my official work.

I have written something over a hundred letters and many postals and have made offieial report of my work as Div. Historian to the Historian General.

And now in the line of that history which it is our duty to preserve, I wish to report as briefly as may be another most glorious "FIRST" for NORTH CAROLINA.

It was only in June that I learned what all North Carolinians should rejoice to know that"The Stars and Bars," the first flag of the Confederacy and chosen badge of OUR OWN ORDER of the U. D. C. was designed by a North Carolinian and first floated over North Carolina Soil.

Is not this worth knowing? and do not we all think that a special Monument should be erected to the Flag and to its designer on the sacred spot which was forever hallowed by its sacred folds?

Here is the history of the Flag as told by Major Orren Randolph Smith, a native of Warren County, North Carolina who designed the Stars and Bars and first gave it to the winds of Heaven in Louisburg, North Carolina:—

When the Senators and Representatives of the seven Confederate States that had seceded Feb. 1st, 1861, met at Montgomery, Ala., the first business after organizing was to decide whether the new nation should have a new flag and a new Constitution or fight under the "Stars and Strips" and under the Constitution of the United States. The debate was short, both sides had strong arguments to offer.

A new Constitution, composed by Native White Citizens was adopted, and a Committee advertised in the leading papers for designs of flags, to be sent to them at Montgomery. One of these went from Louisburg, N. C. where there was living a man, an original secessionist, who so hoped that the Confederacy would adopt a new flag and a new Constitution that he was ready with a design when the advertisement of "Flag Wanted" appeared. When this man, Orren Randolph Smith, was introduced by Gen. Julian S. Carr, Commander-in-Chief of the U. C. V. of North Carolina, at their Reunion in Norfolk, September 1910, he told the story of the flag in the following words:—

"Three times have I been a soldier at my Country's call, twice fighting under the 'Stars and Strips' and one under the 'Stars and Bars.' While with Taylor, south of the Rio Grande, a unit in that proud army that never let an enemy touch our flag; in Utah with Albert Sidney Johnson, 1857-58, I learned what the flag meant to the men who were willing to give their lives for 'Old Glory,' every day and every hour in the day. A soldier's flag must be his inspiration, it stands for home, kindred and country; it must be something more than a piece of bunting or the blending of bright colors.

"When at Sumpter, the shot was fired that was heard around the world," I realized that a new country had been made and that the new nation must have a new flag of the deepest, truest significance, to lead the "Men in Gray" against the greatest odds and through the greatest difficulties that any soldiers have ever come since the world was made. The idea of my flag I took from the Trinity, "Three in One."

"The three bars were forchurch, State and press, Red represented State, legislative, judiciary and exeutive; white for Church; Father, Son and Holy Ghost; red for press, freedom of speech, freodom of conscience and liberty of press—all bound together by a field of blue (heaven over all) bearing a star for each State in the Confederation. The seven white stars, all the same size, were placed in a circle, showing that each State had equal rights and privileges irrespective of size or population The circle, having neither head nor foot, stood for eternity, and signified "You defend me and I'll protect you." I had the flag all complete in my mind before the Confederate Congress advertised for models, and when the advertisement appeared I went to my friend, Miss Rebecca Murphy(she is now Mrs. W. B. Winborne of Wilson, N. C) and asked if she would make me a little flag, I'd tell her how. I tore the 'Bars' and cut the 'Stars' and she sewed the stitches and when finished the little flag was sent to Montgomery with the suggestion that a star be added for each State that joined The Confederacy. The flag committee, as you all know, accepted the flag and named it 'THE STARS AND BARS" They also adopted the suggestion and it was not long before the flag bore eleven stars for the eleven Confederate States that voted for Jefferson Davis to be President.

"After the small flag was sent toMontgomery I bought dress goods from Barrows' Store and asked Miss Rebecca to make me a large flag 9x12 feet, for whether the flag committee accepted my model or not I was determined that one of my flags should be floating in the breeze.

"Splicing two tall saplings together, I made a pole one hundred feet high and planted it on the court house square at Louisburg, N. C. (where I was then living) and the flag was sent aloft on Monday March 18th, 1861, two months before North Carolina seceded.

"Over the flag was floating a blue streamer, like an Admiral has on his ship when 'homeward bound' and on this pennant I had stars for each State that had seceded and one for North Carolina, for though my State was still in the Union I knew she was 'homeward bound.'

"This was the first Confederate Flag ever raised in the Old North State, and this is how the 'Stars and Bars, came into existence, Dixie's Flag that floated over the bravest and hardest to wear out soldiers ever encountered in any War."

Major Orren Randolph Smith was born, Dec. 18th. 1827, in Warren County, in 1846 he volunteered for five years, or during the war with Mexico. He went as a private, he was discharged at Smithfield, N. C June 1848, with rank of 'Captain.'

He was in Kansas when President Buchanan sent Colonel Albert Sidney Johnston, in command of U. S. forces, to Utah to coerce the Mormons into obedience to Federal authority, which he accomplished. Smith with rank and pay of Lieut. left Fort Leavenworth, with the U. S. troops June 10. 1857 for Salt Lake City where he remained until fall of 1858, when he returned to North Carolina and made Louisburg his home.

He enlisted June 1, 1861, in the 2nd Batallion, N. C. troops, Lieut. Wharton J. Green commanding, at Warrenton, N. C, After his right arm was crushed, and he was unable for field duty he was made quarter master with rank and pay of Major. This position he held until end of War.

There is another bit of history that I would like brought to your notice just now and that is the death and burial place of Miss Anne Carter Lee, the second daughter of Gen. R. E. Lee, as next October will mark the half Century of her rest in North Carolina.

"Far from the toil and tumult of the twentieth Century, nine miles from a railway, and a half mile from the 'high road' is to be found a family graveyard, consisting of less than an acre, situated upon a knoll, surrounded by a forest of cedars, it is always in shadow, for the cedars have been left to shelter the graves. These, with two immense chestnut trees and the running box and flowers, are the only watchers "of those" asleep.

In the southeast corner there stands a granite column, twelve feet high on a square base four feet each way and one foot high. The die is three feet square with moulding on top, the shaft is eighteen inches at base and twelve at the top, capped by an urn. The whole composes as symmetrical a monument as one could find.

Three sides of the die are engraved. On the south (facing you as you approach the grave) is:

"Anne C. Lee, Daughter of Gen, R. E. Lee and Mary Custis Lee"

On the east:

"Born at Arlington June 18th, 1839, Died at White Sulphur Springs, Warren County. N. C. Oct. 20th, 1862

On the west:

"Perfect and true are all his ways Whom heaven adores and angels praise"

These are the closing lines of one of her favorite hymns, and the one she asked to be sung just before she died

When Gen. Lee was consulted about the inscription to be placed upon the monument, he sent the above and asked that nothing be added, and that nothing but plain English letters be used.

General Lee's family found that it was necessary for them to evacuate their home at Lexington, Va., early in the beginning of hostilities; and after trying several temporary homes, drifted down to the then famous Warren County White Sulphur Springs, hoping that here in this quiet place, with the help of the valued waters, Miss Annie Lee might be nursed to health and strength. Before the war "Old Warren" was one of the leading counties of the State and "Jones' Springs" (as it was more familiarly known) was the rallying place of the wealth and beauty of Norrh Carolina and her sister States. The proprietor, Mr. William Duke Jones, was an old time Southern gentleman, and treated his patrons as if they were veritably his "guests" Here in this haven, far from the battles, Mrs. Lee and her daughter made their home. But in October, 1862, the fragile sufferer sank to sleep, aurrounded by loving friends, and was laid to rest in this private cemetery of Mr. Jones', which was a short distance from the hotel.

Impossible as it was for Gen. Lee to leave his place at the head of the army, it was equally impossible for her friends to carry her body to her home at Lexington, so in this "resting place" the ideal of the old Saxon words "God's Acre" was buried the beloved daughter of the chieftain of the Confederate States Army.

Before the war began Mr. Joseph Speed Jones, son of Mr. William D Jones, employed a competent stonecutter, Mr. Zerald Crowder, to place granite steps and supporting columns to his house, which was being remodeled, and also to carve a monument for his wife lately dead; and in 1862, when Miss Lee died, he had intended that Mr. Crowder should also carve a stone for her grave, but every man having been called into service, Mr. Crowder was "at the front." Mr. Jones, wishing to leave undone nothing to show honor to the General's daughter, wrote to Gen. Bragg, a Warren county man, asking if he could not have Mr Crowder detailed for the work of cutting the monument, as his health was not good and he was unfit for active service in the army, Gen. Bragg wrote on April 2nd, 1864, "The feeling and just tribute you are quietly paying to the worth and eminent services of my old friend Gen. Lee, is just what I should have expected of "Old Warren." What ever I can do to forward the project will be most cheerfully performed."

Gen. Bragg was with Gen. Lee in the war with Mexico. On the 15th of April, 1864, he wrote again: 'Private Crowder will hand you this. He is directed to see you and execute the work of which you spoke to me, or rather of which you wrote to me. It was necessary to use some little circumspection to keep Gen. Lee from knowing the object, or he never would have yielded his assent. Be so good as to require him to finish the work as soon as possible and return and report to me if he is able."

The Warren women took up the work of love, and elected Mrs. Joseph S. Jones chairman, organized a society for the purpose of collecting funds with which the grave of Annie Lee might be marked by as handsome a stone as they in their own great need could give. No others were asked to subscribe than the women of Warren county.

This was the FIRST monument ever erected to a woman by women, and this handful of Confederate Daughters formed the corner stone of the many chapters of the U. D. C.

Mrs Jones and Mrs. W. J. Green were the largest contributors and they made possible this handsome monument, though many a "widow's mite" was gladly given.

It was not until the summer of 1866, that the monument was ready for public dedication. The ladies sent invitations to Gen. Lee and his family by special messengers: and asked that if they could not be present at the time specified, they appoint a time when they could be present. General Lee could not be present by the terms of his parole, and traveling at that time was too dangerous an undertaking for Mrs. Lee and her daughters; but Gens. G. W. Custis Lee, and W. H. F. Lee came, and were the guests of their old West Point comrade Col W. J. Green at his home, "Esmeralda," several miles from "Jones' Springs." Here too, as guest for the occasion, was Orren Randolph Smith, the right hand man of the "Daughter's," putting the monument in position, arranging the speakers stand and seats for the guests, and on the great day, August 8th, 1866, was master of ceremonies.

The year before Gen. Lee died, he, with his daughter, Agnes, drove in a buggy to Mr. Jones' house as quietly, and as simply as one neighbor visiting another.

When the General reached his daughter's grave he was deeply affected, and much gratified that the women of their little town had done so much for him and his: He said then, he never wished his daughter moved from this hallowed spot, and he spoke of the North Carolinians as true and tried friends.

In 1900, Mr. Smith, knowing so few people knew of the quiet grave in N. C., took his daughter to this "God's Acre" that she might make a sketch of it. An oil picture done from the sketch made on this trip, was exhibited at the Raleigh Fair, and then sent to the North Caroliua Room of the Richmond Museum, at Richmond, Va., the "White House" of the Confederacy. Another picture of the monument, as you approach the cemetery, is at his home in Henderson.

James Barron Hope, the "Poet of the Confederacy" was invited by the Warren county women to make the address when the monument was unveiled, and he delivered an elegaic ode, written for the occasion.

While a guest at Col Green's, Mr. Hope made a sketch of the grave and sent it to Mrs. Lee, and her letter is appropriate here:

Lexington, Va., Nov. 10, 1866,

"I cannot sufficiently express my gratitude to you, my dear sir, for sending that beautiful sketch of my dearest child's tomb.

"I have often longed to revisit it, and it is an inexpressible comfort to me daily to view this image of a spot so dear. I have loved to think of her lying so quiet, in that lovely place where the foot of our invaders never trod; to know, too, that she was spared the misery of seeing the downfall of the cause she so much loved. She only met the doom Heaven often awards its favorites, and I am content.

"I do not know the names or ages of your children, but send them two photographs of the General which they may perhaps value in the time to come. You can place their names on the back of each card.

Yours most respectfully,

M. C. Lee."

This letter and one of the photographs are in the possession of Mrs. R. A. Marr, of Lexington, Va., a daughter of Capt. James Barron Hope.

So here in this beautiful spot, where she was laid to rest in 1862, we leave until that last great morn, the dust of her who was the daughter of that Christ like man, OUR CHIEFTAIN, ROBERT E. LEE"

Begging pardon if I have taken up too much time, I have the honor to be Very respectfully yours,

REBECCA CAMERON,

Historian.

Motion was made by Mrs. Moffitt "that taxes be sent in as soon as possible," seconded and carried.

Mrs. Little made the motion "that a rising vote of thanks be given the Treasurer." This was done.

Report of Executive Committee. Motion was made by Mrs. Faison "that this report be acted upon later." Seconded and carried.

Report from Transportation Committee.

North Carolina Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy:

A special rate for this Convention was duly requested of the railroads, but the conditions required of us were such as to constitute a courteous refusal.

Respectfully submitted,
MISS CARRY A LEAZAR,
Chr. Transportation Com.

There was no report from Arbitration Committee. Just here regular business was suspended, and the President introduced the Hon. A. H. Boyden, of Salisbury, who presented for the consideration of the Division "The Erection of a Monument by North Carolina at the Battlefield of Gettysburg." A rising vote of thanks was given Mr. Boyden, and the discussion will be taken up under the head of new business.

Four o'clock, the hour appointed for the elegant reception to be given by that charming hostess, Mrs. W. N. Reynolds, for the Daughters of the American Revolution, motion was made "that Amendments be postponed and taken up as first business Thursday morning". Seconded and carried.

Motion made to adjourn.

SECOND DAY—Morning Session

Convention opened at 10:20 o'clock Thursday morning with prayer by the Chaplain, Miss Hettie James.

Minutes were read by the Recording Secretary and approved, also letters and telegrams were read.

Motion that replies be sent to telegrams and letters received from The National Regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, from Mrs. McSherry, President-General of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, from Arkansas Division, the Richmond Division, and Mrs. Eller of Virginia, made and carried. These telegrams were sent at once.

Mrs. London made a motion "that a letter be sent to 'our mother' the first President and organizer of the North Carolina Division, Mrs. Wm. M. Parsley of Wilmington," seconded and carried. This was done.

Miss Louise Bahnson rendered in sweetest tones, "Gems of Scotland," by Julie-Rives King, inspiring us for the day's work just begun.

As is our sacred custom, time was here given to Memorial exercises, that chapters so unfortunate, be enabled to pay tribute to those members "that have crossed the River."

The President called for a moment of perfect silence.

It was decided that one page be given to "A Tribute of Love" to Miss Alice Nelson, she being an ex-State officer.

Next in order was the fulfilling of a promise made one year ago by our "Court Painter," Mrs. Marshall Williams, and in graceful words she presented the "Coat of Arms" of North Carolina as a gift from herself to the North Carolina Division, to be placed in its room in Richmond, Va. This was unveiled by two tots, little Misses Dorothea Gorrell and Margaret Francis Green, and accepted by Mrs. Latta Johnson, Regent of the North Carolina Room.

MRS. MARSHALL WILLIAMS ADDRESS

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

It is with much pleasure, I present to this Division a painting of the Great Seal of North Carolina. You have so often honored my brush with orders to paint the portraits of our noble heroes, that I am glad of an opportunity to thus express my appreciation. The Seal comes down to us from the second Charter granted by King Charles II, to the Lords Proprietors of Carolina 1665.

In the Colonial period there were four different seals; since North Carolina became a State, there have been five distinct Seals.

Of the first Seal we have no official description, but it can be seen in the Public Record Office in London. As the form of government changed, so did the Seal, and when the government of the State of North Carolina was organized, the Constitution adopted at Halifax 1776, that "there shall be a Seal of this State, which shall be kept by the Governor, and used by him, and called the "Great Seal of North Carolina In 1776 the Seal may be described as follows: On one side the figure of Minerva of Liberty, holding in the right hand the pole and cap, and in the left hand a large scroll, with the word "Constitution," on the other side, is the figure, a woman, probably "Plenty"—in one hand a distaff, the other an ear of corn, trees in the back-ground, and a cow. This Seal has been changed, and to-day we have the present design: Minerva, Goddess of Wisdom presenting the distaff of Liberty to Dame Ceres, the Goddess of Plenty.

Respectfully,
MRS. MARSHALL WILLIAMS.

MRS LATTA JOHNSTON'S ACCEPTANCE

Madam President, United Daughters of the Confederacy:

In the name of the North Carolina Division of the Daughters of the Confederacy, I have the honor to receive the Seal of the State from our gifted artist, Mrs. Marshall Williams, whose skillful brush has been inspired by patriotic love; and whose faithful portraiture is also illustrated in "Esse Quam Videri"

As Regent of the N. C. Room in the Confederate Museum in Richmond, Va., it will be my pleasure personally to carry with me and to see hung within the walls where we have already accumulated much of historic interest, to be treasured for our sons and daughters; and that they may turn to them as Miltiades did to the Monuments of his Grecian heroes, may be an inspiration to them as to him, to deeds of high heroism.

Motion made by Mrs. Gordon Finger, seconded and carried "that an especial rising vote of thanks be given Mrs. Marshall Williams."

The Amendments were next taken up, and accepted.

AMENDMENTS

ARTICLE III

Section 2. Add "Said demit must be sent to State Registrar immediately on admission of member into a Chapter." Reason: This is done in order to make State and Chapter registration books tally.

Sec. 4 A U. D. C. engraved certificate must be awarded by all Chapters to every member upon their rolls, and to each new member as soon as admitted, and all charter members must order same with their charter. Reason: This is a law of the general organization, which they require observed.

ARTICLE IV

Sec. 2. Should a vacancy occur in a State office for any cause whatever, the State president shall have the authority to fill the same. Reason: There is no authority given, by which such a vacancy can be filled, and this is very necessary.

Sec. 3. Make present Section 2.

ARTICLE V

Sec. 2. Add "No proxies shall be allowed Chapters." Reason: Proxies are unparliamentary, and are almost always unsatisfactory.

Sec. 3. Add after word Convention "when present, but no proxies allowed." Reason: This is now a rule and should be incorporated in the Constitution.

ARTICLE VI

Sec. 2. Change tax of 10 cents to 15 cents for State. Reason: The Division business is now so large that expenses cannot be met at present rate.

ARTICLE VIII

Sec. 2. After word "Daughter" substitute for rest of the sentence the following: "When wishing to join a U. D. C. Chapter, the child's application blank must be copied verbatum with signatures of endorsers on a U D. C. application blank and then presented to Chapter Credential Committee for their signatures, before being registered in Chapter and State." Reason: Because it is not understood how this transfer is intended to be made, and the constitution should clearly state

Sec. 4. Add after word "Chapte " "but no proxy allowed." Reason: This is now the rule, but not stated in Constitution.

ARTICLE IX

U D. C. NORMAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Sec. 1. These scholarships at the Greensboro Normal are open only to descendants of Confederate Veterans, who are otherwise unable to attend college.

Sec. 2. All applicants must fill out a U. D. C. application blank showing eligibility, with signatures of Veteran endorsers, and nearest Chapter president, also formed with above statements from reliable parties as to financial disability to otherwise attend college, and good moral character.

Sec 3. All applicants for said scholarships must stand a competitive examination. Papers to be sent out by State president to some reliable party in applicant's home town.

Sec. 4. Those securing these scholarships shall be entitled to hold same for four years, if reports are satisfactory to State president and president of the college. Reasons: Nothing is said in Constitution regarding these scholarships, and some laws should be laid down.

BY-LAWS

No. 7. After words "return to Chapters," omit "if so desired" and substitute "president."

Mrs. Stone was escorted to the rostrum and gave the Division a heart to heart talk and splendid advice relative to U. D. C. work. Rarely are we given such a treat and each Daughter felt better able to continue her work. After Mrs. Stone's address Mrs. Williams in behalf of the North Carolina Division, in well chosen words, presented her with a beautiful floral token.

Mrs. Riggins, ever thoughtful of the welfare and enjoyment of all, extended an invitation to the luncheon given by the Norfleet Camp United Confederate Veterans.

Motion was made to adjourn.

SECOND DAY—Afternoon Session

The Convention was opened for business promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

Following the ruling of the Convention the election of officers was taken up.

Tellers: Mrs. H. E. Reid, Mrs. Doane Herring, Mrs. B. L. Tyree, and Mrs. B. C. Cobb.

Nominations for President were called for. Cape Fear Chapter placed in nomination, Mrs. Fannie Ransom Williams, seconded instantly by several other chapters. Mrs. Marshall Williams was nominated by the Goldsboro Chapter and seconded by the New Berne Chapter. Mrs. Fannie Ransom Williams was re-elected President of the N. C. Division, for the third time.

The other officers elected were: Mrs. H. L. Riggins, 1st Vice President; Mrs. J. G. Brodnax, 2nd Vice President; Mrs. Leo. D. Heartt, 3rd Vice President. Mrs. Thad W. Thrash, Recording Secretary; Mrs. W. H. Williams, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Robert Kornegay, Treasurer; Mrs. W. M. Creasy, Recorder of Crosses; Mrs. Robert Davis, Registrar; Miss Rebecca Cameron, Historian; Mrs. W. O. Shannon, Asst. Historian; Miss Hettie James, Chaplain.

Motion was made by the Raleigh Chapter, and unanimously carried, that Mrs. Stone be made an Honorary Member of the North Carolina Division. She was received by the Daughters standing.

Assistant Historian's report read and accepted.

Educational Committee report, in the absence of the chairman, was read by the Recording Secretary.

EDUCATIONAL REPORT

Madam President:

It is a great privilege and pleasure to report to you at this the Fifteenth Annual Convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and announce that the educational interest is deeply awakened throughout our chapters. They respond promptly and generously The following sums have been donated and collected: $455.65 paid out to President Foust of State Normal, Greensboro, $273 for tuition. This much was reported by our faithful and polite treasurer the 1st October, 1911. Wishing for you a rich and fruitful year's work, with a pleasant and harmonious Convention. Your loyal and interested daughter, with love to each chapter and "Daughter" in Convention assembled.

MRS. WILLIAM H. OVERMAN,
Chr. Educational Com.

Report of the Eastern Section of the Soldiers' Home Committee was read by the Chairman, Mrs. Martin S. Willard, and accepted.

MRS. WILLARD'S REPORT.

As Chairman of the Soldier's Home Committee for the Eastern Section, North Carolina, I beg leave to report $365.35 having been contributed this year. This is encouraging and I hope the same interest will be shown this year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. M. S. WILLARD.

The one from the Western section was read by Miss Shuford, in the absence of Mrs. Garrison, chairman,

MRS. GARRISON'S REPORT

The report from the Soldiers' Home Committee, Western section, is very small. I hope the fault is not altogether with the Chairman.

My Committee consisted of 41 ladies from that number of chapters in the Western section of the State. I wrote to each one telling her of the work, and only ten responded. Some of these wanted more information I wrote to those in authority but received no replies Not satisfied with one effort, I made the third attempt to get information without success. Only in the last few days have we heard anything. It was then too late to write the Committee again.

There were some, I think, would have given if they could have received further information. Those reporting to me were as follows:

Asheville Chapter	$ 5.00
Lexington Chapter,	5 00
Shelby Chapter,	10 00
High Point Chapter,	5 00
Gastonia Chapter, blankets, sheets, pillow cases, and rugs for their room, amounting to	20 00

Let us not forget that the days and years of these old Soldiers are few and try and make them comfortable while they live

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. D A. GARRISON,

Chr. Soldiers Home, Western Section.

Mrs. Stone made a contribution to the Soldiers' Home, which was received with thanks.

Report from the Arlington Monument Committee was read by the Chairman, Mrs. I. W. Faison, and accepted.

REPORT OF ARLINGTON MONUMENT ASSOCIATION

The North Carolina Division U. D. C. bought fifty dollars ($50) worth of Confederate seals, for Arlington Confederate Monument, in Washington, D. C, and I bought $5.00 worth from the Asheville Chapter, as they bought $25.00 worth. Have sent to Mr. Streater, Treasurer, for this year, $284.25.

I still have my penny collections in the school for this monument.

The seals came to us so late last year or we would have sold many more.

Only 4 chapters sold the whole amount expected from them, $13 75 for one box up: Children's Chapter, Charlotte; Winston-Salem Chapter, Laurinburg Chapter, and Wilson Chapter.

We have sustained a great loss in the U. D. C. work in the death of Mrs. Edgar James, a native of North Carolina, and late of Florence, Ala, the originator of these seals. Her heart was in this work, and she was so anxious to see Arlington Monument completed next year and then Shiloh Monument.

I earnestly request every chapter to sell all the seals they have on hand during the coming holiday season and report to me by February 1912. We must keep up with other States.

Respectfully submitted,

SALLIE YATES FAISON,
State Director Arlington Monument.

The hour for the delightful automobile ride having arrived. Motion was made to adjourn.

THIRD DAY—Morning Session

The Convention was opened at 10:30 o'clock with prayer by the Chaplain.

Minutes read by the Recording Secretary, approved and accepted.

Report of Children's Chapters by Chairman, Mrs. Gordon Finger.

CHILDREN'S CHAPTER REPORT

As a result of last year's conference on children's chapter work, three new children's chapters have been organized. The historical data collected from last year's circular letter to the entire Division, is on file and seemed too voluminous to submit for the minutes, it includes the names of organizers of most of the chapters, with sketches of the lives of men and women honored by the chapter name. We would suggest that they be turned over to the historian or printed at intervals in the State papers and compiled in a scrap book.

The conference of this convention was helpful and informal, and many questions were asked and answered, the establishment of eligibility, the amendment since carried, being favored by the leaders.

Suggestions presented that the absent leaders and new ones might find helpful were, to divide a chapter where there is much disparity of age into two sections, letting the elderly members assist in the training and amusement of the younger ones; that a sham battle or some drill marching may draw or hold the interest of the boys. The importance was also emphasized of the instructive teaching of the children, make the State names, Robert F. Hoke, Johnston Pettigrew, Robert and Matt Ransom, as well known and revered as any your committee would suggest That in the important notices of State work, attention is especially called to all the main facts of how to organize, children are included. That no charter is required, no State fees and no chapter fees, unless locally desired. The name is selected by the mother chapter if they desire, and a member as Leader or committee detailed for the organization, the name sent to the State recording secretary

The conference was fortunate in having the vast experience and splendid information of our beloved ex-president, Mrs. Cornelia Branch Stone, in solving the problems presented by the members. A suggestion of hers, that we have a State banner or flag for annual awarding to chapter excelling along certain lines, your committee should decide upon, was enthusiastically adopted by the leaders, should it meet the approval of this body.

Leaders are asked to take our official organ the "Keystone," which tries in each issue to meet some need of the children's work, (price 50 cents.)

Respectfully submitted,
MAUDE TURNER FINGER,
Chairman.

Mrs. Thos. Lee Craig offered to donate the flag to the children and a motion was made by Mrs. Overman that Mrs. Craig's gift be accepted. Seconded and carried.

Mrs. Finger's report for Children's Chapters was accepted, and a rising vote of thanks given Mrs. Craig.

The Keystone report of the North Carolina Division was read by the Manager, Mrs. Finger. Accepted.

KEYSTONE REPORT FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA DIVISION

"The Keystone" has represented the North Carolina Division United Daughters of the Confederacy, as its "official organ" for the past four years, having been adopted in 1907.

We have printed reports of officers and chairmen, chapter reports and convention reports for your Division, besides carrying official U. D. C. notes for Virginia and South Carolina, as well as the General U. D. C.

"The Keystone" is preeminently a Southern woman's publication, and all work on it is entirely gratuitous, both editorial and clerical—the editors and managers giving freely of their time and ability to help record the happenings in our Southern women's organizations.

We appeal to you to send us a record of your doings, and when we print what you send us, we again ask you to read and preserve these printed records. It is only through your co-operation that this work of preserving printed records of Southern women's work can go on, and it is partly to you that we owe whatever of success we have achieved

We have put the subscription price of the "Keystone" at the nominal sum of 50 cents per year, which does not really pay for the cost of printing it, but we wish to make it within the reach of every Southern woman

We also make a combination offer with the Confederate Veteran, offering both magazines together, "The Keystone" and the Veteran for one year for $1.10.

During the past year Mrs. Gordon Finger, Charlotte, has been the Manager for the North Carolina Division column in "The Keystone," and it is to her unfailing efforts that your column has been so ably kept up: To her and to your State president, Mrs. Williams, we extend our sincere thanks for their hearty co-operation with us.

We appreciate your confidence in imposing this trust in us, in choosing "The Keystone" as your "official organ," and we hope that every member of the North Carolina Division U. D. C. will feel that she has a personal interest in "The Keystone."

We ask for your continued interest and co-operation in our efforts to maintain a publication in the South which will truthfully and impartially represent and record the achievements of our organized Southern women.

We have given you in the past the best of our ability and promise loyal and continued service for the future.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUISA B. POPPENHEIM, Manager.

The committee appointed to pass on suggestions in the President's report was called for. All were approved of but one. The report was then accepted, and these suggestions become laws.

SUGGESTIONS

1. That all chapter reports be limited to the space allowed for remarks on the blanks, and if they exceed this, the Recording Secretary be authorized to shorten them.

2. That all committee reports be limited to three typewritten pages.

3. That all addresses of any kind be omitted.

4. That one or more pages be set aside as Memorial ones, giving simply names of deceased, chapter, and date of death.

5. That all committee stationery and expenses be paid out of said committee funds, when there is one. otherwise from the State fund.

6. That the State tax be increased to 15 cents per member, as this is necessary to meet necessary expenses. (This was adversely reported by the committee, but had already been passed by the convention in the Constitutional amendments.)

7. That your State treasurer be instructed to pay out of the sinking fund, so far as it will go, all outstanding debts, also to continue to use next year's sinking fund till these debts are liquidated.

8. That hereafter one evening during each convention be set aside as Historical Evening, at which time suitable papers be read by ladies selected for the occasion. This evening to be under the auspices of the Assistant Historian, who after consulting with the State Historian, will select the subjects for the papers and those to write them.

Mrs. Marshall Williams' motion to add to the year report blanks "Have you read your Minutes" was carried.

The Committee of Resolutions of Thanks was appointed: Mrs. E. F. Reid, Mrs. J. J. Yates, Miss Annie Gash and Miss Maud Windley.

Report of the Shiloh Monument read by the Chairman, Mrs. A. L. Smith. Accepted.

SHILOH MONUMENT REPORT

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

As Chairman of the Shiloh Monument Committee, I am glad to make a much better report this year than ever before toward the Monument to be erected on the battle field where 10,699 brave heroes gave up their lives. Last year we congratulated North Carolina on contributing $90 00, a considerable gain over the two previous years. This year we will add to this fund $218.96.

A list of the contributions to Shiloh Monument will be found in the treasurer's report under Shiloh.

To each chapter an appeal was made, making it necessary to write a number of letters and post cards.

Many of these contributions came after the observation of Shiloh day, April 6th, which was inspired by the Special Edition of The Newton Enterprise, gotten out by Mrs. Williams our State President and State Director of the Shiloh Monument Committee. A copy of the paper was sent to every chapter in the General Division.

For the above we are specially indebted to Mrs. Williams and due her a vote of thanks for the admirable manner in which this matter was handled in this issue of The Newton Enterprise.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. L. SMITH.

Miss Leazar rose to a point of personal privilege requesting that one of the veterans, Mr. Brown, allow us the honor of seeing one of the battle scarred flags. Mr. Brown was escorted to the rostrum by Miss Leazar and with the Daughters standing, gave a very interesting sketch of this flag that had waved on both sides of the Chowan River.

Motion was made that Mr. Brown be thanked. This was done most enthusiastically. Mrs. Stone again most interestingly gave a talk in behalf of Arlington Monument.

The hour, one o'clock, having arrived for the luncheon given by James B. Gordon Chapter of Winston, motion was made to adjourn.

THIRD DAY—Afternoon Session.

Reports from the Henry L. Wyatt Monument, the Chapel Hill Monument and The Endowment for North Carolina Room Committees were read by the Chairman of each respectively. Accepted.

REPORT OF WYATT MONUMENT COMMITTEE.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

It is with a peculiar sense of joy that I bring to you this report of the Henry Wyatt Monument Committee For what gives us greater pleasure than to be bearer of glad tidings? The Henry Wyatt Monument just a few years ago a house of dreams is so soon to be a reality, upon which may the sunshine of your approval ever fall. It was at our last convention which was held in the home town of the Bethel Heroes that the amount necessary for the completion of our fund was pledged.

Chapters from the following towns were the ones to make the last contributions: Raleigh, Lincolnton, Fayetteville, Wadesboro, Newton, Washington, Tarboro, Wilmington, Gastonia, Goldsboro, Kenansville, Winston and Selma.

Last October I reported to you that we had given the commission for our Monument to Moses Ezekiel, but when the contract came it asked for three years in which to do the work, so we thought best not to accept it But we feel very proud that we have given the commiasion to one of America's most famous Sculptors, Gutzon Borglum of New York. It may be interesting to know where we can see some of his work. In the Capital at Washington is the bust of Lincoln, in the Metropolitan Art Gallery and the Cathedral to St. John the Divine New York we will also find pieces of his work, and in many other places The first model of the Wyatt Monument has been accepted and according to contract first payment of $1500 has been paid. The life size model will soon be ready and Mr. Bob Ricks of Rocky Mount has been appointed to see the model in the studio and accept it for our committee if correct.

On last Wednesday our committee met in Raleigh for the purpose of making the plans for the unveiling of our monument which we hope to take place at an early date. We can't say now just what day, but it will be sufficiently published. Various sub-committees were appointed by Chairman Dawes of the Legislative Committee to make all final arrangements.

This monument will face the Government Building that is soon to be erected in Raleigh, a most fitting site for this, our Monument. For truly it is ours, made possible by the Daughters of the Confederacy, the patriotic citizens and the State Legislature of the "Old North State"

We want everybody in North Carolina to be in Raleigh the day this monument is unveiled. I assure you, who have not visited our Capital City, that we who know the people there can safely say you will be welcome to Raleigh, and everyone be made to feel it is really our city. We certainly hope every chapter in our State will be represented and the children should see what we are doing to honor the memory of our heroes and to beautify our Southland, something the world can look upon and be glorified with noble thoughts of the brave and the true.

In a way I feel that before this report closes we should thank every Chapter in North Carolina, every individual who has contributed to this work, and especially should we be grateful to the Legislative Committee for their deep interest. But do we deserve any thanks? I'm inclined to feel it would be irony, for we have each done only in part what we owe to our native land. This is our heritage, shall we not make it a house beautiful?

If our brave heroes give their life's blood shall we not consider it a joy to help perpetuate their precious memory. So when you at last look on the Wyatt Monument know it represents joyful service and loyal rendering of our best in heart and head in your behalf.

I beg you to go home and work for this object. Remember that it cannot be unveiled 'till it is paid for.

REPORT OF NORTH CAROLINA ROOM.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

Last spring our President suggested to me to appeal to our Legislature, then in session for a donation to aid our Endowment Fund for North Carolina Room in Richmond. Mrs Williams' son kindly drew up the bill, and I asked General Julian S Carr to introduce same in the House, and Senator Rivers D. Johnson of my native county of Duplin to aid us in the Senate. Their efforts were effective, and an appropriation of $200 was secured for us. We gratefully acknowledge this valuable assistance. Our State Treasurer reports a sum total of $370.18. Now I do not think the Chapters, as a whole recognize the importance of this fund, and I trust next year the responses will be more generous.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. M. McD. WILLIAMS,
Chm, N. C. Room End. Fund.

Report from the Home of Wives and Widows Committee was read in the absence of the Chairman by Mrs. Currie.

Much discussion was brought forth. It was decided to do away with the idea of an Annex and to change the name, calling it a "Home for the Confederate Women."

Motion was made "That each Chapter President in the Division be requested to ascertain the number of Veterans' wives, widows and sisters of Veterans, needing a home and report the number to Mrs. Hunter G. Smith, Fayetteville, N. C. Motion made by Miss McGill, of Fayetteville, and carried.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WIVES AND WIDOWS ANNEX.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

At the convention at Rocky Mount a committee was appointed to go before the Legislature and ask that the State build a home for the wives and widows of Confederate Veterans, to be added as an Annex to the Soldiers' Home in Raleigh, and the State Division, U. D. C, pledged to furnish this home.

Your committee appeared in Raleigh at the time appointed—were met by one of Cumberland's most worthy representatives, Mr. A. D McGill, who asked the privilege of presenting this cause, as he had introduced the bill in 1891 for the establishment of the Soldiers' Home He made a most able and interesting presentation of the cause The committee, with the Johnston Pettigrew Chapter met with joint Committee on Pensions. The Bill was presented, asking for an appropriation of $5000 for erection and $5000 for maintenance of a home for Wives and Widows. The Bill was reported favorably. The time was appointed for a hearing on the Bill before the Committee of Appropriations from the House, but owing to a long session of the House until such a late hour, the meeting was postponed. Some members of your Committee had been in Raleigh for a week and were obliged to return home, but we left with the assurance that the Bill would be reported favorably After we had left there was some objection to the Home in connection with the present Soldier's Home. For moral reasons. some thought it best not to build the Home for the wives and widows there, Your Committee feel they cannot see the wisdom of this act, as it was to be an entirely separate building in charge of a matron.

This work is a labor of love to alleviate suffering humanity. Your Committee deem it best, in order to have concerted action by all our women in this most important work, that this Convention disbuss the whole question of location and take such action and make such recommendations as to them seems wise. Your Committee will then have the united support of the entire organization, whose unselfish devotion to a noble cause is one of the choicest possessions of the Old North State.

We want to say in this connection that we found no opposition whatever to the establishment of such a home, and we feel satisfied that this much needed provision for the wives and widows will be established by the General Assembly of 1913, and it is for the Convention to decide as to the location.

The Committee wants to thank Mr Joseppus Daniels for his assistance and commendation of the Home for wives and widows through the columns of the News and Observer, also, the Johnston-Pettigrew Chapter for courtesies shown them while in Raleigh.

Total amount received and on hand $452.70. For itemized statement of contributions for 1910-11, see treasurer's report.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS HUNTER G. SMITH,

Chm. Com. Home for Wives and Widows.

Report from the Committee to solicit members to the Jefferson Home Association read and accepted,

REPORT JEFFERSON DAVIS HOME ASSOCIATION

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

I beg to report some work done for the Jefferson Davis Home Association this year:

The Treasurer, Maj. Leather, writes me that "The Old North State" has done her part handsomely in helping lift the debt of $1600.

It is now the desire of the Association to build a highway connecting the birth places of President Davis and Lincoln, and further to erect a handsome Memorial to President Davis. This work should appeal to every patriotic Southern woman.

The following names and amounts have been received and forwarded: Mrs. Creasy, Wilmington, $1.00; Mrs. Woolvin, Wilmington, $1 00; Mrs. Ragan, Gastonia, $1.00; Mrs. Wilson, Gastonia, $1 00; Mrs. Garrison, Gastonia, $1.00; Mrs. Eddlemen, Gastonia, $1.00; Miss Mary Ragan, Gastonia, $1.00.

Respectively submitted,

MRS. A. A. McLEAN,
Chairman.

Memorial Arch Commsttee Report was read by the Chairman, Mrs. Moffit and accepted.

REPORT ON MEMORIAL ARCH

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

In looking back on the Minutes of the Society I find that it has been eight years since the inception of the idea of erecting a Memorial Gateway to the Soldier's Home in Raleigh. As a resident of that city and a frequent visitor to the Soldier's Home I was prepared to see what was needed to make this place more comfortable and attractive. As to the comfort of the Veterans, this had been provided for by the State and many generous citizens, with the volunteer help of the Daughters.

The lawn and flower beds and garden were beautifully kept up by the Superintendent and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, with the help of the strongest Veterans who felt a pride in their Home. It was thought that a handsome gateway would add much to the beauty of the place. It was at the Convention of 1904, held in Fayetteville, that I ventured to offer a motion which was seconded by Mrs. A. L. Smith of Charlotte, and passed the State Organization, to erect at the aforesaid entrance, a stone gateway, each stone having the name of a Chapter engraved upon it. The matter was left open until the next year, 1905, when the Committee asked to rescind the Resolution to place the memorial at the entrance of the Soldiers' Home, this being unadvisable, since this home will revert to the State eventually. The committee, in lieu of this, then proposed the erection of a Memorial Arch entrance to the Confederate Cemetery in Raleigh, as an enduring monument to the memory of over one thousand soldiers whose mortal remains lie in that sacred spot, representatives from every Southern state.

In order to raise funds for this object, a resolution was passed for each Chapter to raise twenty dollars, estimating the cost of the work would be about one thousand dollars. At this time there were fifty-seven Chapters recorded in the Secretary's book. You will see that I made allowance for a failure perhaps, of some small chapters that could not meet the allotment. The first contribution received was in October 1905. Dodson Ramseur Chapter, Concord, ($20) twenty dollars.

Treasurer reported contributions for 1906 (200)	.....	$ 180 00
June 1907 Balance in treasury (520)	....	700 00
1908 Balance in treasury (116)	....	816 00
1909 Balance in treasury (43)	....	859 95
1910 Balance in treasury, total to date (41)	....	900 85

It will be seen from this statement that for some cause the contributions have diminished each year, I suppose on account of the many other objects upon which you are called to direct your attention.

At the Convention at Rocky Mount, October 1910, Mrs. Little the efficient treasurer, reported that she thought the total amount on hand would be about one thousand dollars including the interest of the fund which she had loaned to a reliable party It will be seen from the contribution that only $40 was contributed from 1909 to 1910.

About fifty four Chapters have contributed, leaving now thirty-four yet to be heard from. Many of these Chapters have been formed since 1904, but which will no doubt respond to the call for $20 each

It was my misfortune not to be present at the Convention in Goldsboro in 1908, in which there arose a murmur of disapproval regarding the inscription on the Memorial Arch. It is the object of this Committee to act in the best capacity for this object, regarding material, construction and inscriptions. Your Committee has had advice from wise, and competent architects who all the time advise not inscribing name of Chapters in the stones. It would require 84 stones of equal size—it would be very costly and to a degree perishable to cut names on stone, apart from the detraction as an object of beauty. The best architects advise bronze tablets to be placed on each side, on which should be inscribed the Chapters making the contributions. This would add to the cost, which would be at least $200, but which should go on the Arch as a main feature,

Your Chairman must beg your indulgence for this long paper, but I suppose there may be delegates here who are not well informed regarding the work, but who would be interested did they know of it The falling off in contributions argues a failure on the part of some Chapters to come up to the requirement, but this has had no effect on the Committee who are generous enough to allow freedom of thought and action. Were the Committee to falter under the opinions of those who have raised objections to the project, it would indeed have fallen by the wayside. But for their duty and loyalty to the 50 chapters which have so generously and so heartily contributed to it, we will continue our work. This Arch will not only be erected in honor of our departed heroes, but it will stand as a memorial of the devotion of North Carolina's Daughters to the Confederate Soldiers representing every Southern State, who served in the war of 1861-1865.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS E. E. MOFFITT.

Report to place Portraits of Confederate Generals in schools was made by Mrs. Willard. 12 portraits being the number.

Motion was made to adjourn after the announcement by Mrs. Riggins that the cars tendered by Mr. Fries were waiting to transport the Daughters to the well known Institution of learning, Salem Female Academy to a recital given by the pupils.

THIRD DAY—Night Session.

The meeting was called to order by the President at 8:40 o'clock.

There being much business on hand the reading of the minutes was postponed. Chapter reports were then called for and observing the ruling made last year, the last chapter organized reported first.

Mrs. Marshall Williams made the motion "That the President appoint one large chapter and one small one to read a full report of the year's work but not for publication. Lost.

The reading of the reports was suspended and a most pleasant diversion was given in the way of beautiful music rendered by Mr. William Wright on the violin accompanied by Miss Lillian Johnson on the piano.

Chapter Reports continued, also Reports from Children's Chapters were read.

Motion was made and carried that reports be accepted.

NEW BUSINESS.

Motion was made by Mrs. Ed Overman of the Robt. F. Hoke Chapter, Salisbury and seconded by Mrs. W. M. Creasy of Wilmington that in the interest of truth and patriotism the North Carolina Division United Daughters of the Confederacy endorse the work of Hon. A. H. Boyden in attempting to have erected a suitable monument to the memory of North Carolina's brave sons who fell on the battle field of Gettysburg in defense of the Confederacy and that this division take immediate action toward this achievement. Carried.

Mrs. London called the attention of the Convention to the fact that some suggestion had been made to use in the Children's Chapters "The After School Club of America" Literature. Mrs. Stone spoke on this subject giving sound advice to the women of North Carolina. Mrs. London made this motion: Resolved, That the North Carolina Division United Daughters of the Confederacy enter its protest against the After School Club of America and that we have nothing to do with it whatever. Mrs. W. O. Shannon moved that a letter be written Supt. Joyner protesting against his name appearing as endorser of the After School Club for Southern Children. Carried, Mrs. Shannon to write the letter. Mrs. Gordon Finger objected, feeling the Clubs should not be antagonized. Mrs. London's motion was carried.

Mrs. Moffit presented a Resolution: Therefore,be it resolved that the North Carolina Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy endorse the present day movement for a Judicial settlement of International Disputes by other means than War.

2nd. That the Resolution be forwarded Secretary of the American Society for Judicial Settlement of International Disputes, Baltimore, Maryland. Carried.

Mrs. W. O. Shannon again presented the matter of the erection of a Monument to General Joseph E. Johnson. Motion was made that this matter be deferred until after the Convention in Richmond. Seconded and carried.

No other business, invitations for the entertainment of the Convention next year were asked for. Mrs. Ed Overman extended an invitation from Robt. F. Hoke Chapter, Salisbury and Mrs. Doane Herring, from John W. Dunham Chapter, Wilson.

According to vote the sixteenth Annual Convention of the North Carolina Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will convene in Salisbury the second Wednesday in October 1912.

The Recording Secretary made the motion "That this Convention extend a vote of thanks to "Our Manager," Mr. H. L. Riggins, who so untiringly assisted in making our visit "A Joy Forever." No second was needed and the motion was carried with applause.

The Chairman on the "Resolution of Thanks" read the following.

ASSISTANT HISTORIAN'S REPORT

Madam President, Daughters of the Confederacy, ladies and gentlemen.

It is with love and pride that I greet this great body of ladies, who have done so much to collect and perpetuate the heroic acts of the Confederate soldiers of North Carolina, and the great truths of our Southern history.

Our State stands "First in war, first in peace," and first in the hearts of her citizens—of her proud and loyal Daughters.

"Carolina! the pride of my bosom
Carolina! the Land of the Sea,
Carolina! the home of my fathers
Carolina! my song is of thee!"

My work, as Assistant Historian, has been collecting the unwritten history of our State, those great and glowing deeds of her patriotic sons, which will crystalize into everlasting laurels to wreathe the brow of Carolina, the Queen of the States.

But ladies, I saw the length of our beloved Historian's report, and I condense mine, commending hers to you, which I heartily endorse, adding a few words and recommendations.

Besides collecting history, etc., I aided in getting the appropriation for our Hall of Records, soon to be built in Raleigh, our capital, by collecting and sending list after list of signatures of the citizens of my section of State, asking it of the Legislature of North Carolina. But I must condense. Now for suggestions, or recommeedations.

Bennett House, where General Joseph E. Johnson, surrendered—days after the Army of Northern Virginia, under General Robert E. Lee, had surrendered, is an historic spot aud should be marked, and there are many others in our State. I feel that Gen. Julian S. Carr and Mr. Boyden would aid us in this great work. And in this connection I'd like to say that our first great chieftain—Gen. Joseph E. Johnston—first Commander-in-Chief of the Confederate forces (who lost his place on account of bravery and wounds) has received almost no recognition. Ladies, let us do our duty here, let us, let North Carolina, be the first to subscribe to a monument for him, in honoring him we'd honor ourselves. It is my intention to take this subject up at the General Convention of the U. D. C. in Richmond. He represented us as a whole, not as a Virginia General.

As a Southern lady, a Colonial Dame, a Daughter of the American Revolution, and a Daughter of the Confederacy, and as your Assistant Historian. I cannot endorse The Long Roll, Mary Johnston's Southern novel.

The book is well written, but I regard it as a caricature of our great General Stonewall Jackson. Even the frontis piece, the pictures in it are severe caricatures.

We should protest, unless we leave it quietly alone. Expect it will be taken up by the General Convention at Richmond.

We are too fond of helping Virginia, of placing our laurels on her brow, but trust me ladies, Virginia has the peculiar talent of helping herself—of taking care of herself. Lee and Jackson are already in the Val Halla, let them rest! I'm afraid the school children will think there were only two Generals in the war between the States. They are no doubt the largest and brightest stars in the Galaxy of theConfederacy,let us hunt North Carolina history—North Carolina heroes. The Bible says no man can do more than give his life for a cause, and many of our brave North Carolinians did that,

We are a monument building people, let us continue to build them in the hearts of the children. Educating the children is our greatest work now, and let them perpetuate the great truths of our great cause and country.

We should teach them that their gallant sires of old
Left a heritage more precious than rubies or gold,
That honor and patriotism are the rarest gems
That adorn America's diadems!

Lee S. Overman. As hundreds of children, dressed in white and carrying flowers, marched from the Graded School, with the handsome State flag borne at the head of the procession, they formed a charming picture which challenged the admiration of all beholders. The decorations were placed at the base of the noble monument to the Veterans of Rowan.

Remarks—The most important work of the Vance County Chapter this year has been the erection of a monument which was unveiled November 10th, 1910. The cost of this Memorial was $3636.10, and the chapter is proud to report that on the day of unveiling this amount was paid in full. We had on that day as our distinguished guests, Gov. W. W. Kitchin and General Julian S. Carr, and after a delightful program, dinner was served to over 200 Veterans.

Too much praise cannot be given to the President of the Vance County Chapter, Mrs. S. P. Cooper for her enthusiastic work for the Monument, and the phenominal success of the undertaking is due to her efforts. Pretty little Elizabeth Renfrow Cooper, the daughter of our President, and grand daughter of General Henry R. Jackson unveiled the monument amidst cheers and applause. Elaborate exercises were held in the Court House and dinner served to the veterans, January 19, June 3. Memorial Day was fittingly observed with parade, speaking and address by Hon. J. C. Kittrell, after which dinner was served.

The Vance County Chapter U D. C. and Henry L. Wyatt Camp Confederate Veterans, felt honored to have had the President of Vance County Chapter, Mrs. S P. Cooper chosen to represent N. C. as Sponsor at Little Rock, Ark., and also to be Sponsor at the State Reunion at Wilmington, N. C.

Remarks—Memorial Day always falls during our court week, and as usual, the presiding judge delivered the address to a large crowd gathered around the monument. We decorated each grave with laurel wreath and flag.

We gave $25.00 to Chapel Hill Monument—making $50.00 given by this chapter. We gave to Stonewall Jackson Scholarship, and gave to several monuments being built. Have placed portraits of our leaders in our school auditorium. Aided needy and sick Veterans.

On August 24th we gave a dinner to 200 Veterans at their annual re-union. Gave 22 Crosses of Honor. On this occasion we opened our Confederate Museum for Confederate relics. We have already a large collection of relics that are most interesting. Canteens, swords, bullets, uniforms, testaments with bullets imbedded in them, having saved the men's lives, old letters, and even a bone that was taken from a Veteran's head in the army hospital. I advise you all to have a Confederate Museum.

Remarks—Since last Convention, Anson Chapter has worked faithfully and has contributed to the Soldiers' Home, Home for Wives and Widows, Chapel Hill Monument, and to every demand made upon us. On Lee-Jackson Day, the Veterans were the guests of the Chapter and the Frank Bennett Auxiliary and Anson Camp U. C. V. presented a beautiful gold badge to the Chapter's President.

At our annual reunion was present Mr. Mills, aged ninety-two who "used to make coffins for the Klu Klux to leave around."

We are trying in the midst of our busy lives to carry on the precious work of the U. D. C., and our hearts and hands are warmed and strengthened by the knowledge that so many others are working for the same objects and jealously guarding our wonderful history.

Let us look well to it that we do our part, not only in handing down true history, but also the traditions of the South—of Chivalrous Honor and courtesy among men, courage and gentleness among women—in short; to follow the Confederate soldiers and their wives.

Remarks—Several appeals have been made to the Chapter by veterans residing near us or from those passing through, and all appeals have been met. The number has been larger than heretofore.

Several headstones have been placed at the graves of veterans in the cemetery here.

The birthdays of Lee and Jackson were celebrated in the auditorium of the Graded School at which time a very handsome steel engraving of General Lee was presented to the school by our Chapter. At this meeting five Crosses of Honor were conferred. Seven applications are now on file for Crosses and they will be given on next January 19th.

Memorial exercises were held on May 10 at the Court House, at which time Mr. T. C. Wooten of the local bar delivered a very valuable and entertaining historical address on the causes that led to Secession and a justification of the course of the South in seceding. The Children's Chapter took a very prominent part in the exercises.

On Jefferson Davis' birthday a picnic was given in the Park to the veterans. It was more largely attended than any celebration in years.

We have contributed $5.00 to the Educational Fund, to the North Carolina Room at Richmond $10.00, and the Winnie Davis Auxiliary has sent $5.00 to the Shiloh Monument Fund.

$25.00 given to Wives and Widows' Home, completing our $100 pledge.

Remarks—For the last three years we have worked very hard to supply every Veteran with a Cross of Honor, and this year we had only 9 to give out, though we have 7 uncalled for and 5 application papers already filled out. We also gave one Cross of Honor to a real Daughter of the Confederacy, the wife of a brave Confederate soldier. She herself worked through the entire four years for the Boys in Gray Our year's work has been a very pleasant one, as we feel that we have accomplished much. We have responded to nearly every call with great pleasure. The dear old Veterans know us all by name, and trust us to do everything in our power for their cemfort and happiness. The 10th of May dinner is the yearly event of their lives. The dinner that is given them then is simply grand, and besides, they are given a nice box of good things to take home with them. We remember the needy ones at Thanksgiving and Christmas by sending them well filled baskets of provisions, fruits, etc, which are greatly enjoyed and appreciated.

Remarks—Our treasurer has just died and I cannot get her books in such shape as to make a report of financial conditions.

Memorial Day was appropriately celebrated. Mr. J. M. M. Vann made a splendid address, and 31 Crosses of Honor were delivered to Veterans. The school children wreathed the monument, which was erected last year, with flowers and then Veterans, Daughters and children marched to the cemetery and laid a tribute of flowers on the grave of each who "wore the gray." Afterwards dinner was served to about 100 old soldiers. We have sent handsome floral designs to many Veterans this year and to deceased daughters.

Death has recently claimed our treasurer, Mrs. Francis Lee Crow, an enthusiastic worker, and Mrs. W. M. .Turner, one of the charter members of the Monroe Chapter.

Remarks—Our chapter is in good condition, our membership continues to grow. The attendaunce at meetings very good, and all seem much interested in the work. We sent $5.00 to Soldiers'

Home, Raleigh, N. C., $5.00 to the Chapel Hill Monument fund, $5.00 to Shiloh Monument, $1.00 to the fund for Mrs. Raines. Sent a box of provisions to an old Veteran. Christmas we sent a nice basket to an old Veteran who has been sick for a long time, has not been out of the house in three years. It pleases him so much for the Daughters to remember him. We observed Lee-Jackson Day with fitting exercises, gave the Veterans a nice dinner consisting of oysters, coffee, etc. Memorial Day was observed in the most appropriate manner, had so many beautiful flowers for which we thank the school children. It is a lovely sight to see every scholar bring flowers on the 10th of May to decorate the soldier's graves. Mr. R. C. Dunn of Enfield delivered the address which was grand and enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to hear him. The hall was small, so a great many could not get seats. After the speaking a bountiful dinner was served.

The line is growing shorter every year—so many familiar faces that were with us last Memorial Day were missing. It will not be much longer that we Daughters will have the pleasure of doing these little things that give them so much pleasure. We are working hard for our monument.

Remarks—The Haywood Chapter, though small in numbers is a patriotic, loyal band of women. Memorial Day was observed with the Veterans of the local camp, by bestowing a number of Crosses of Honor, and after a number of addresses, a bountiful dinner was served the Veterans. In July the chapter had the honor and great pleasure of giving a beautiful and largely attended reception to Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, at the Suyeta Park Hotel. The extensive grounds of the hotel were fairy-like with electric lights and crimson lanterns. The interior halls, parlors and dining room, were elaborately decorated with Confederate flags, festoons of bunting, palms, flowers and ferns. A picture of Gen. Jackson, draped with Confederate flags, hung in the parlor where Mrs. Jackson received with Mrs. Richmond Pearson Hobson, the officers of the chapter, and a number of the Veterans of the Pink Welch Camp. The evening was enlivened by the patriotic strains of Dixie and other old time Southern airs, rendered by the Waynesville Orchestra. The chapter, as well as the citizens of Waynesville felt highly honored by having Mrs. Jackson among its visitors, and the opportunity thus afforded to show respect and love for the honored widow of one of the foremost Generals of the world. In August a number of the members attended the re-union of the Veterans held in Waynesville and dispensed refreshments. Our president gave a short address, speaking of the monument to be erected at an early date to our honored county Confederate soldiers.

Remarks—This chapter endeavors to learn at all times if there are any needy Confederate Veterans in this locality in order that they may be of any service to them. Last winter we contributed to the needs of two old Veterans; underwear to one, and a hat to another. On June 3rd a bountiful dinner of barbecue, brunswick stew, etc., was given them by this chapter. The graded school auditorium was appropriately decorated for the occasion and the audience was charmed by the singing of the old Southern songs by the Daughters. The Hon. T. W. Mason of Garysburg, N. C, delivered an appropriate address to an enthusiastic audience. We have contributed to the Scholarship Fund at the State Normal, the Stonewall Jackson Scholarship Fund, the N. C. room at the Museum in Richmond, the Chapel Hill Monument and Mrs. Jefferson Davis's Portrait Fund. We also sent flowers at the death of one of the oldest members of our chapter and at the death of the oldest Veteran in this vicinity.

Respectfully submitted,
DAISY CRUMP WHITEHEAD, President.

CHILDREN'S CHAPTER REPORTS

No. 1—WASHINGTON GRAY'S CHAPTER, WASHINGTON

The Washington Gray's Chapter of the Children of the Confederacy, is a faithful and enthusiastic little band; the Chapter in a most flourishing condition.

The children are interested in all work they are called upon to do, and eager to carry it to a successful finish.

The monthly meetings are well attended.

The children always take an active part in the Lee Birthday exercises, and also on Memorial Day.

They make laurel wreaths for the Confederate Monument, decorate the soldiers graves, act as ushers, presnt the Crosses of Honor, and help to serve the dinner given to the soldiers by the Daughters of the Confederacy on Memorial Day.

Our work this year is to put a stone coping around the lot upon which stands the monument erected by our Chapter under Mrs. Call s leadership.

This monument is in honor of the seventeen soldiers killed in the defense of Washington in 1862. We have nearly the amount needed on hand.

Our next undertaking will be to present a portrait of Stonewall Jackson to the Public school of our city.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. STEPHEN C. BRAGAW,

Leader.

No, 2—JULIA JACKSON CHAPTER, CHARLOTTE

I am proud to state that the Julia Jackson, Auxiliary, is a very enthusiastic body of children and take pleasure in all work and exercises.

We take part in all public exercises of our mother Chapter. One or more of our members attend the monthly meeting of the Chapter and reads our report.

We have our meetings on the first Friday of every month, the day before the Chapter meets. Our best work for the year was the sale of Confederate Christmas Seals. We sold and reported the first box in the state, thereby making $13.75 for Arlinton Monument.

At each one of our meetings, we sing in chorus, have solos, both vocal and instrumental, recitations, lessons in history, our Confederate Catachism and last, but not the least, in the eyes of the children, light refreshments. We expect to double our number this year and try to be the largest Children's Auxiliary in the State.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. I. W. FAISON,
Leader.

No. 4—JANE HUGHES CHAPTER, NEW BERNE

Our meetings are held regularly on the 10th of each month with good attendance and an interesting program arranged by the children themselves. We always unite with the Daughters on the celebration days and do our part loyally. Twenty-eight new members have been enrolled during the year which gives us a membership of 119. Four of our girls have passed the age limit and have transferred to the Daughters.

From our annual sweet pea show we realized $25 which we donated to the New Berne Circulating Library to buy books suitable for children.

We have sent flowers to a veteran's funeral, $4.44 to Arlington monument, $5 to Chapel Hill monument, and a box of supplies to the Soldiers' Home for the Jane Hughes bed and have on hand $47.59.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. HUGHES HOLLAND,
MRS. BENJAMIN MOORE,
Leaders.

No. 5—ROBERT E. LEE CHAPTER, ASHEVILLE

Our Chapter in Asheville is not large, but it is constantly increasing its membership. We have, altogether, an enrollment of about thirty, but many of these have "out grown" us, so to speak.

We have held our meetings in Confederate Hall, endeavoring to have a Veteran meet with us as often as possible and tell us some stories of the war as he saw and knew it. It is my great desire that the children feel love and loyalty, a personal, deep-rooted feeling, for the cause their fathers fought for, and for the men who fought for that dear cause.

This winter we are meeting in the homes of the children, and are working for the Shiloh Monument, as our honored President, Mrs. Williams, felt that this was a splendid work, and we all feel that it needs immediate attention.

We are very careful about the children's membership blanks, as these will, in the future, entitle them to become members of the U. D. C. and the S. of C. V.

Strong hands, strong hearts!
Let us work for the children.
Teach them to honor, to love, and be loyal.
Teach them the men they know as grave fathers,
The women whose love guards their steps as they go,
Where the strength of a land in its fighting and dying,
We're a sad Nation's bulwark in its sorrow and woe.
Strong hands, strong hearts!
Let us stand by the children,
Teach them not bitterness, anger, nor hate.
Lift up their souls till they feel in their wondering,
The honor, the grandeur, of their young nation's fate!

Respectfully submitted,
ELIZABETH ELLIOTT LUMPKIN GLENN,
Leader.

No. 6—GEORGE DAVIS CHAPTER, WILMINGTON

The George Davis Children's Chapter sends greetings. The chapter is in good condition. There is an average attendance of twenty at the monthly meetings, and the children are interested. We have had fourteen new members, and two have been transferred to the Cape Fear Chapter during the year. The Chapter has given this year $10.00 to the Chapel Hill Monument, and $6.03 to the Arlington Monument. Sixty two names are enrolled, but several have moved away from here.

MRS. C. C. COVINGTON,
Leader.

No. 7—THE STARS AND BARS CHAPTER, NEWTON

The Stars and Bars Children Chapter has a membership of nearly 100 children and while we have no regular days for meeting the members are always responsive to any call made upon them. In the observance of our regular prescribed days during the year the children were very active in participating in our programs. On Memorial Day they carried out the program of songs and recitations entirely alone, joining the Daughters in the floral march through the cemetery. As members grow older we hope to enroll every one in the Ransom-Sherrill Chapter.

No. 8—J. D. MOORE CHAPTER, GASTONIA

The J. D. Moore Chapter, Children of the Confederacy is proud to report a most pleasant and successful year.

The membership—already large—has been increased by six members, all splendid workers.

Monthly meetings held in the homes of the different members prove most beneficial in both a literary and social way.

The chief study this year being the life of General Robert E. Lee.

On celebration days the children take a prominent part.

Three hundred dollars has been donated to the mother chapter for the monument, which they hope soon to erect, every cent of which has been made by these zealous little workers, and will be used to pay for the Statue of a Private Soldier, which will form the cap of the monument.

And after this good work is completed they will start with renewed energy to answer any other demands upon them.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. THOS. LEE CRAIG,

Leader.

No. 9—FRANK BENNETT CHAPTER, WADESBORO

Report of the Frank Bennett Chapter Children of the Confederacy to the North Carolina Division United Daughters of the Confederacy,

Under the capable management of their most efficient leader,

Mrs. R. M. Mann, this chapter has worked splendidly during the past year. There are 57 members enrolled, with an average attendance of 35 at each monthly meeting. The treasurer's report shows disbursements amounting to $25.90 as follows:

Chapel Hill Monument, $5.00; Shiloh Monument, $1.00; amount for brick and cement for soldiers' graves, $ 3.15; for hauling brick, $4.00; head stone, $1.75; balance on hand, $3 60; making a total $29.50.

Through the kindness and generosity of Major W. A. Smith Anson Veterans' beloved Commander, this chapter has been tendered the use of a room which is to be made a Confederacy room. In here are to be kept and preserved all the relics, memoirs and reminiscences of Anson Veterans. The members are most enthusiastic and zealous over this plan of work, and expect in a few weeks time, to have this room comfortably furnished, and housed within its walls, many relics and memorials, which will, in a measure, bespeak the worthy, noble part Anson's sons played in that memorable struggle.

To Mrs. R. M. Mann, the retired leader, is due the credit of the chapter's success, full of energy and enthusiasm, she ably lead this chapter, from its organization, to its present large and useful membership. In token of their appreciation the children presented her with a Daughter's badge, a beautiful emblem of their love and her fidelity. The chapter starts the new year with high hopes and aspirations to achieve great success along many lines of work.

MRS. L. J. HUNTLEY,
Leader.

No. 10—JOSHUA VICKS CHAPTER, SELMA

We have between 15 and 20 members, and a very good attendance, and lots of interest shown. We sold for Mrs. Faison about $10 00 worth of those Christmas seals and that is about the only work we have done. We have dues of 1 cent a month, 5 cents for birthpay dues. The meetings are in honor of the different girls who celebrate their birthdays during the month. All meetings were held with me, and I always tried to make them interesting by preparing a nice program and serving refreshments.

Respectfully submitted,
ANNIE FOY VICKS,
Leader.

No. 11—ANNIE LEE CHAPTER, LITTLETON

The Annie Lee Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, are still a faithful little band, and each year have some new work to report.

They sold $8.87 worth of Christmas stamps and have $3.63 worth on hand which they expect to sell and return the proceeds to Mrs. Faison for the Arlington Monument fund. They assisted the Roanoke Minute Men Chapter observing Memorial Day, and each Veteran's grave in the town cemetery showed signs of loving care. This work of caring for the graves being done by their own little hands. They have marked every Confederate Veteran's grave in town with a metal marker.

They assisted their Leader in entertaining the Roanoke Minute Men Chapter in honor of our beloved State Secretary, Mrs. Thrash, the occasion being her birthday. The little president, Susie Gay, gracefully presented her, in the chapter's name, a Confederate button, washed with gold to preserve it and mounted on a pin. Jefferson Davis's birthday was appropriately observed. Flowers have been sent, in their chapter's name, to several homes where the Angel of Death has visited. They have sent one historical paper to the historian of the mother chapter. There has been several new members since their last report. They have many plans for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,
BESSIE LEE WIGGINS CAWTHORNE,
Leader.

No. 12—ANNIE K. KYLE CHAPTER, FAYETTEVILLE

The Annie K. Kyle Chapter is pleased to report another year of successful work. After enjoying the rest and delights that a vacation gives, the first meeting of the Fall opened with new energy and satisfactory results.

The chapter has grown strong the past year, both in numbers and good work. The monthly Saturday morning meetings have been well attended and are always interesting. A few vacancies have occurred by members moving away, yet new recruits come in to take these places, and the secretary's roll shows that we are steadily gaining. Our bank book also shows that we have a fund on hand to answer any call of need. A box of clothing, toys and confections is sent to the children of some Veteran at Christmas time.

On the 10th of May the chapter maintained its reputation by uniting with the Mother Chapter in the Veterans' dinner exercises cheering the hearts of the old soldiers with inspiring war songs Afterwards had places of honor in the line of march to the Soldier's cemetery, the "little Daughters" riding in automobiles there to place a flower on the graves of those who wore the gray.

Respectfully submitted,

MISS KATE MATTHEWS,
Leader.

No. 13—W. G QUAKENBUSH CHAPTER, LAURINBURG

Dear Madam President and Daughters:

I regret with all my heart that I cannot be with you at this convention, but I send my loving greetings and best wishes. Especially do I regret not being able to read to you the report of my little chapter, "The W. G. Quakenbush Children's Chapter," for I am in hopes that this year it is the banner chapter in the number of increase and money raised. My report of last year gave my number as 39, I believe, this year I have 60, and within the last seven months have raised $25 for the Chapel Hil monument, and $200 for the monument in our own town. Isn't that fine? We hope to continue the good work. This chapter is only two years old.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. T. COVINGTON,
Leader.

No. 14—ROCKY MOUNT STANDARD BEARER'S, ROCKY MT.

The Children's Chapter of the Bethel Heroes of Rocky Mount, was organized in the home of Mr. J. C. Braswell, March 11th, with eleven members.

The meetings are well attended. Held the last Saturday afternoon of each month. Interesting paper's and selections are read at each meeting.

We now have a membership of twenty two, doubled it in seven months.

MRS. ROBERT CARTER BURTON,
Leader.

No. 15—ROCKINGHAM VOLUNTEERS, REIDSVILLE

We have thirty three members on our roll, but since several of our older girls are away at college, we have only twenty five active members. We were organized in May, 1910, and have held regular meetings every month. We observed the 10th of May by having our chapter children, and others, 99 in all, represent the Confederate flag. We aided the Rockingham Chapter in sening a Christmas box to the Soldiers' Home last year. We have much enthusiasm in our chapter, and we are planning this year to assist the Rockingham Chapter in the care and support of our Veterans. We also want to make a contribution to the Arlington Monument.

Respectfully submitted,

MISS EMMA McKINNEY,
MRS. R. G. GLADSTONE,
Leaders.

No. 16—LEE-JACKSON CHAPTER, DURHAM

The Lee-Jackson Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, comes forward with its second report, but we are a most enthusiastic band of workers. We have twenty three members and an average attendance of twenty. Our meetings are held the second Saturday in every month, and we have not missed a meeting during the entire year. We observed Lee's birthday, Jackson's birthday, and had a meeting in honor of Jefferson Davis. Our April meeting commemorated Joseph E. Johnston and his surrender at the "Bennett Place" near Durham, N. C. We held a meeting beneath the old tree under which history says he surrendered, and had papers and incidents of Johnston's life. We took part in the Memorial Day exercises. Our contributions for the year have been $26.00 to the Durham Monument fund, and $5.00 for the North Carolina room at Richmond, making a total of $31.00 contributed.

MABEL REED TUCK,
Leader.

No. 17—BONNIE BLUE FLAG CHAPTER, LENOIR

We have forty members and there is no more enthusiastic chapter in the State.

The children meet monthly, rain or shine, hot or cold.

We have celebrated Lee and Jackson's birthday, Memorial day, and Jefferson Davis' birthday. To these days have been added a county day, when we have the war history of our county.

MRS. R. L. GWYN,
Leader.

No. 18—WALLACE REINHARDT CHAPTER, LINCOLNTON

Wallace Reinhardt Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, organized 1903, reorganized 1910. Cost $1250.00, amount still due $305.00. Regular meetings are held every two weeks.

LENA REINHARDT,
Leader.

No. 19—ANNIE VIRGINIA JACKSON, WINTON

It is with pride and honor I bring you a report from the "Anne Virginia Jackson" Children's Auxiliary to the Hertford County Chapter of the U. D. C. It was organized by its leader just a year ago, and named in honor of our friend, that noble, true, and faithful woman, whom we all love, Mrs. Thad Thrash. It has only ten members and their ages run from 4 years to 14 years of age. They meet regular once a month for six months, since then no regular meeting has been held, for the older ones have been away and are now at school, and the little ones have been sick most of the time. But their dues are all paid up, for the one for which it is named believes in promptness in all things, so they follow her example in all doings. They have sent one quilt to the Soldiers' Home, Raleigh, and another is nearly ready to go, and also $2 00 in money. On May 10th, 1911, they held Memorial exercises and decorated each fallen heros grave with flags and roses. They have helped the sick Veterans of their town all the year. Last Christmas their leader made them a cake, a piece for every Veteran in their borders and these were carried by the little folks with cheerful words and happy greetings for the Christmas season. One old veteran was sick for a long time, and it was no unusual thing for their leadsr to hear of their carrying butter, milk, nice crackers, and many other good things to this faithful old man that still feels the weight of the hardships felt during 61 and 65. When they gathered for a meeting, first one little tot and then another would tell of what they had done, and then they would ask of their leader if she thought Mrs. Thrash would feel proud of them. She always told them yes, Mrs. Thrash thinks you are the smartest little band of workers she has, and when a letter came to them from Mrs. Thrash's own pen, they were so proud; so with these thoughts always in their mind, they worked harder than ever to do something nice for others. One little girl reported she had been and read "Mother Goose" to the oldest Veteran in town, he aged 80, she aged 5 years, and I was told by him he enjoyed it more than anything that had happened to him since the war. At the next meeting she wanted to know if I had told Mrs. Thrash. So Mrs Thrash was told of their interest, and she sent to each one a certificate, and they think just lots of it. I feel like I must tell you how they conduct their meetings. They open with prayer, followed by roll call, and reading of the last minutes, and then "best of all," as one little tot says, we give all the money we can. While the older ones are talkiug of what is most needed, and best to be done, the little ones are eating pop-corn, and getting ready to serve tea, etc., to the older ones when the meeting is over. (This of course, is prepared beforehand by their leader, for their use.) They use their doll cups, etc., and we are children together. They use the "Children's Catechism," and enjoy its use. One or the other will give us a recitation, hence we spend a happy hour together They have helped on the monument fund, and have now a nice little sum in bank. They have kept busy all the time. On Lee-Jackson day they held, at the home of their leader, a Confederate tea, and bazaar. The little folks wore white dresses and red and white sashes and served to each guest as she came a cup of tea, chocolate or coffee as their wishes were made known. Thin collars, handkerchiefs and other useful articles were sold and the time was also spent pleasantly with music and song, thus a nice sum was realized.

The officers are:

Mrs. R. C. Bridger, Leader; Miss Lillian Shaw, Ist V. Pres.; 2nd V. Pres. Miss Irene Clark; Rec. Sec. Miss Sallie Clark; Cor, Sec.

Miss Kate Taylor; Treas. Miss Emily Clark,

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R, C. BRIDGER,
Leader.

No. 20—MRS. WM. M. PARSLEY CHAPTER, MURFREESBORO

The Mrs Wm. Parsley Children's Chapter, was organized on January, 1911, with six members. We have had one withdrawal and four additions, making a total of nine members. We pay twenty cents when we are admitted, but have no dues. On Lee-Jackson night we joined the Norfleet Harrill Chapter in an entertainment, our part of the proceeds amounting to $2.48, $2.00 of which we sent to the Chapel Hill Monument. On August 23, we acted as pages for the Norfleet Harrell Chapter, and old soldiers at their reunion. also taking part in the program. We are learning the catechism, and all we can about the Confederacy. Amount in treasury $1.85.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED

CHAPTER PRESIDENTS ARE REQUESTED TO NOTE ESPECIALLY.

Chapter presidents will remember that all taxes, both State and General, must be paid to the State Treasurer, before votes can be counted in Convention. State taxes are now 15 cents and General 10 cents, making 25 cents to be sent for each member to State Treasurer. At same time send $1.00 from each chapter to Sinking fund. Money to be sent by P. O. money order only.

All members must be registered to vote them.

All chapter registrars must by September 15 of each year send a corrected list of members to State registrar.

All money for any and all causes must be sent to Mrs. Kornegay, State treasurer and not to chairmen of committees or private individuals. Send all money by P. O. order only, we cannot afford to pay exchange on checks.

All chapters are required to give a U. D. C. engraved certificate to each member. Preesidents are urged to attend to this.

All chapter elections must be held at regular or called meeting in November. This is very important to get correct list inMinutes, both General and State.

Remember no Crosses of Honor can be awarded after August 23, 1912, North Carolina's special day.

Do not fail to notify Mrs. Jno. S, Henderson, Salisbury, by September 15th, how many delegates will really attend convention.

Remember North Carolina Divisiou wants every chapter's tax paid at Washington, D. C. convention. So let us urge that all taxes be paid by June first at latest, and save much trouble.

Remember the new rules that chapters are required to read Minutes and Constitution and report on chapter report blanks next convention.

All orders for U. D. C. badges must in future be sent to Mrs. L. H. Raines, 908 Duffy Street East, Savannah, Ga., Chairman of Insignia Committee. Printed permits to be used in ordering can be obtained from her or your State President.

All orders will be returned to the Chapter Presidents. No individual orders filled and no samples or cuts sent.

Prices: Without bar, $3.75 each; with bar, $4.50. No checks will be received, only money orders. Those wishing the badge registered should include ten cents for registry fee.

Sacred to the Memory of Miss Alice Nelson, ex-Treasurer

A TRIBUTE OF LOVE

The Guilford Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, mourns the passing away of one of its most beloved, enthusiastic, faithful and efficient members—Miss Alice D. Nelson, who, on April the fifth, entered into rest.

She was a charter member, served faithfully and most acceptably as president of this chapter at one time and held other offices, as treasurer and secretary. At the time of her death. she was Chairman of the Monument Committee, and was deeply interested in carrying forward this work, which lay very near her heart and for which she worked with untiring energy.

Resolved: That with deep sorrow, we mourn our friend, so richly gifted with all the lovely and lovable qualities of perfect womanhood, endowed with fine intellect, wonderful sympathy, broad charity, all the charm and dignity of a true gentlewoman—with a noble devotion to duty, influenced ever by a sweet christian spirit. Her's was a life inspiring and enduring in its influence, a solace in the knowledge that her death is but a beautiful translation to perfect peace, joy, rest, and glory at the Throne of the Most High.

Resolved: That this tribute of love be spread upon our records and a copy be sent with our heartfelt sympathy to the greatly bereaved family.

Section 1. Each State and Territorial Division shall elect, or appoint a Recorder of Crosses of Honor, to whom Chapters shall apply for blank certificates of eligibility to be filled out by the veterans, and blank forms for alphabetical lists, to be filled out with data from the certificates, by the President of the Chapter ordering Crosses. When so filled out these shall be sent to the Recorder of said division, for approval or correction, and forwarded by her to the Custodian of Crosses, who will forward the Crosses to the Chapter, provided the rules have been complied with, and the decision of the Custodian shall be final.

The Recorders shall apply to the Custodian of Cross of Honor U. D. C., for the blank forms of certificates, and blank forms of alphabetical lists, supplying these, on demand, to the Chapters, accompanied by an order to the Custodian, signed by the President General and Recording Secretary General, U. D. C.

Section 2. The oldest living lineal descendant of Veteran, who has not received a Cross, may secure it in any county. Both Veterans and descendants can receive Crosses on some historical day.

If there is no lineal descendant of Veteran, or, in case that the oldest lineal descendant does not desire the Cross, the widow of a Veteran may receive the Cross. by presenting with her application written avowal of such descendant, that he or she waives the right to the Cross, provided said widow be a Confederate woman, who has endured the hardships and privations of the period from "Sixty one to Sixty five."

No descendant, or widow can receive a second Cross, such privilege being granted to Veterans alone, nor can such descendant or widow wear the Cross.

The Custodian General will supply to the recorder of Cross of Honor of such State and Territorial division, special blank forms of certificates for descendants and widows, which must be filled with data of eligibility, such blank forms in use should conform with the headings used in the Record Book of the Custodian General.

Section 3. After waiting one month, Chapters shall send to the Division Recorder and Custodian, names of Veterans for whom Crosses have been received and not claimed, and these Crosses, if not engraved, may be used at the next bestowal, provided, other certificates in due form have been sent to the Custodian.

RULE 2

Section 1. No Crosses will be furnished by the Custodian unless the order is accompanied by certificates of eligibility, properly filled out, by the veterans, and certified to by two, or more members of a camp of United Confederate Veterans, and alphabetical list from Chapter president.

Section 2. Presidents of Chapters shall fill out blank alphabetical lists from the certificates with all data contained therin to forward with certificates to their State Recorder of Cross of Honor with money order, for the number of Crosses desired.

The Custodian of Cross of Honor shall keep a book, or books, in which shall be kept, alphabetically arranged, the names and data of all veterans, descendants of veterans, and widows to whom Crosses have been issued.

Section 3. The certificates shall be returned by the Custodian to the President of Chapters who have ordered Crosses, and the same to be placed on file by the said Chapter, that data may be furnished when needed for historical, or other purposes.

Section 4. Each Chapter shall keep a book, alphabetically arranged, in which is recorded the name and service of every veteran and ancestor of descendant, and widow, of a veteran who receives a Cross. Each State or Territorial Recorder shall keep a similar record book of all Crosses issued.

RULE 3.

Section 1. Crosses may be granted by the muster roll of the nearest camp, U. C. V., and to Confederate veterans who are not members of a camp, who can give the required proof of eligibility, attested by two veterans who are members of a camp.

Section 2. The oldest living lineal descendant may secure the Cross, by giving the same proof of eligibility as that required of his veteran ancestor—and Confederate widows of veterans, applying for Cross, must fill blank form of certificate, giving service of veteran, whose widow she is—such widows must have endured the hardships of the war period from 1861 to 1865.

Section 3. Upon the certificate of a reputable physician that a veteran is dying, if desired, he may receive the Cross immediately.

RULE 4.

Section 1. The Crosses may be bestowed on Memorial or Decoration Day, selected by each State or Territorial Division, U. D. C.; the birthdays of President Jefferson Davis and General Robert E. Lee—June 3rd and January 19th; and one commemorative day, between July 1st and January 19th, to be selected by each State or Territorial Division, in convention assembled. North Carolina has selected August 23. The presentation shall be accompanied with such ceremonies as will give proper dignity to the occasion.

RULE 5.

Section 1. A veteran, in good standing, having lost his Cross, may have it replaced once only, by applying to the President of the Chapter from which he received the Cross, and he must furnish copy of the certificate upon which the Cross was first bestowed. If a second Cross is lost, a certificate may be given, in testimony that such veteran has been awarded a Cross.

Section 2. Chapter Presidents are urged to advise veterans to have their names engraved on the bar of Cross, for the purpose of identification, if lost.

Section 3. A veteran having been awarded a Cross, and dying before it is received, the President of the Chapter bestowing it may give it to the oldest lineal descendant, or widow, under provisions of Rule 1, Section 2. A veteran having received a Cross, may bequeath it to any lineal descendant that he may select.

Section 4. On, and after November 1st, 1912, no more Crosses shall be issued.

RULE 6.

The Cross cannot be worn, in any case, or on any occasion, except by the Veteran upon whon it was bestowed—no descendant or widow can wear it.

RULE 7.

Section 1. Where counties have no local organization of U. D. C., a veteran may receive the Cross through the President of the nearest local Chapter, as the President of Chapter in the county from which he entered the Confederate service if so desired.

Section 2. When chapters are not able to bear the expense of purchasing Crosses for other counties than their own, these may be furnished at the expense of the general association, upon the authority of the President General U. D. C.

RULE 8.

All orders for Crosses shall be filed in the Custodian's office three weeks before the day intended for bestowal.

RULE 9.

Any Chapter departing from these rules will not be entitled to Crosses for presentation,

. Preceding the presentation of the Crosses, Rules V., VI., VII., VIII., and IX., snall be read upon every occasion of the bestowal.

The President of each Chapter shall see that the camps of Confederate Veterans and Sons of Confederate Veterans in her county shall receive a copy of these rules for continual reference.

(Note: Cost of Crosses, 12 1-2 cents each, for an order of more than one. For an order of only one, the cost is 13 cents.)

OF THE

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION

OF THE

UNITED DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY.

NORTH CAROLINA DIVISION.

First Day—Morning Session.

In the historic city of Salisbury situated in the Piedmont section of North Carolina, and in sight of the Blue Ridge Mountains, the Sixteenth Annual Convention of the N. C. Division, U. D. C., was called to order.

The program was opened by a beautiful violin selection by Mrs. Kitchin, accompanied by Miss Lula Garner. Following this was the most beautiful and touching prayer by her whom we all love and honor, our Miss Hettie James.

In appropriate words, and most interesting Hon. John S. Henderson, one of Salisbury's most prominent citizens and loyal supporters of the Daughters of the Confederacy turned over the keys of the city to us.

In beautiful and most touching words the address of welcome from the Robert F. Hoke Chapter was given by the gentle, the lovely Mrs. Tiernan. Who does not feel the keenest interest when the name of "Christian Ried" is spoken, especially to all having read "The Land of the Sky."

In befitting words, Mrs. F. M. Williams, President of the N. C. Division, responded to these addresses.

Then in her most gracious and graceful manner Mrs. John S. Henderson, President of the Robert F. Hoke Chapter, turned over the gavel to the President, who called the Sixteenth Annual Convention to order.

Roll Call by the Recording Secretary showed present one Honorary President, one Honorary Vice-President, all State Officers except two. Also a majority of Chapters represented.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. THOMAS LEE CRAIG,

Chairman Credential Committee, U. D. C.

October 8, 1912.

Reports of the President and Recording Secretary were then read and accepted.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

Dear Daughter Friends:

It fills my heart with joy and gladness to again greet you in this our Sixteenth Annual Convention, and may our sessions be fraught with such good will and harmony that all our work may redound to the greatest good of our beloved organization.

When last year you did me the greatest of all honors in your power and for a third time placed me at the head of this Division, I accepted with the determination to, if possible, give yet greater energy and zeal to the work of the Confederacy. How I have succeeded in carrying out my determination remains for you to judge.

This year has been by all odds the most strenuous one of any, during the years it has been my pleasure to serve you as Recording Secretary or President, but at all times the business of the Division has taken precedence of any other call. There seems to have been a steady increase of interest ever since the close of the last Convention, and Chapters seem to be continually awakening to the great fact of what it really means to be a Daughter of the Confederacy.

While we can report no new U. D. C. Chapters formed this year my pen has been by no means idle in trying to awaken interest in new places and the need of a suitable leader in many instances seemed the only drawback to the organizing of several new Chapters. But in the old Chapters there has been much greater endeavor than heretofore to increase of membership and to draw the very many eligible women into the fold.

The work among the children has been fine and the Chairman of that Committee has done much to increase interest along this line. The idea of dividing the larger and smaller children or the boys and girls in a town into two Chapters has taken hold in some places with great results. The new Chapters formed this year among children are the Thomasville Grays at Thomasville, the James A. Weston and Dixie-Grays at Hickory, the Orren Smith at Henderson and Jefferson Davis at Weldon.

How few of us stop to study this work among the children and realize how great it has been in our Division. How many of you are aware that it is almost as old as the Division itself. As early as 1897 we find that Mrs. Margaret Call organized the first Children Chapter in her home town, the Washington Grays, and at the Convention of 1898 we find them presenting a portrait of General Bryan Grimes. In December, '98, Mrs. Margaret Branch Sexton organized in Charlotte the second one, the Julia Jackson, and from that time on the Children's Chapters continued to grow until now they number forty-one.

Your attention is especially called to the date of the organization of this Second Chapter for last winter your President's attention was called to a claim made in the Veteran that this Chapter was formed in 1908 and by other than Mrs. Sexton.

During the past year I have written some 3,000 letters and cards, answering all the day they reached me, this rule only having been broken when I was absent from home. I have signed and sent out 500 U. D. C. certificates, besides letters and papers from the general organization, demit and badge blanks.

Just here I would call your special attention to the great necessity of every registered Daughter having a U. D. C. certificate. No longer does it remain optional as to whether or not a Daughter shall herself purchase a certificate. It is not the member's duty to see to this. The General Constitution requires that every Chapter present to every member on joining or to every old member without one a U. D. C. certificate. All the past year have I endeavored to impress this fact upon Chapter Presidents. Some have responded by ordering for the entire Chapter, but there are still many among the older members particularly, who are without them. In furnishing to old members however bear in mind the fact that they must be signed by the officers in office when presented and cannot be ante dated.

Our Educational work in the State is now on a fine basis, and of all the work done by the Divisions first and foremost should stand this of educating the sons and daughters of Confederate Soldiers and sending them forth to teach the truth to coming generations. Many local scholarships under the U. D. C. are scattered from one end of the State to another, but it is to those at the Greensboro Normal to which I would call your undivided attention. The three girls are there and the Division stands pledged to meet their expenses of $150 each. Your honor as Daughters has been pledged. Many Chapters meet this fund regularly, but many others pay no attention to it. My friends wake up to this work. Send in your contribution to the Educational fund so that the money may be on hand to meet the quarterly payments and not embarrass your President, Treasurer and Chairman of Committee.

During the past twelve months the Division has seen the completion of one of its greatest works. On June 10th, the veil fell from the monument to Henry L. Wyatt, erected through your efforts and at your instigation, and it was the honor shown your President that the Wyatt Committee selected her to present this monument to the great State for which Wyatt bled and died. Too much praise cannot be given to your able chairman Miss Margaret Etheredge and her assistant Mrs. Josephus Daniels for their untiring zeal and energy in pushing forward this work, and at the same time we owe a debt of gratitude to the sculptor, Mr. Borgeum, for his magnificent conception of the subject. A large laurel wreath was placed at the base of the statue as a tribute from this Division.

One more Division monument have we yet uncompleted, but we trust that before another Convention rolls around, the one to the Boy Soldiers of the University may stand upon that beautiful campus to speak to the hundreds, daily passing to and fro, of the bravery and heroism of the University men of the '60's.

Among the Chapter monuments unveiled this year we find the one at Hertford completed by the Perquimans Chapter. The Frank Bennett Children's Chapter of Wadesboro have concentrated their energies on a Confederate Memorial Hall, which they opened in April with appropriate ceremonies. The J. D. Moore Children's Chapter in Gastonia has raised the fund of $300 to purchase the statue which will crown the top of the monument the Gastonia U. D. C. Chapter hope to unveil this month.

And my friends let us not forget that the two great U. D. C. monuments, Arlington and Shiloh, are calling to us to complete them. Let us put our shoulders to the wheel and push them to unveiling, and then let us bend our undivided energies to the erection of the greatest of them all, North Carolina's monument at Gettysburg. A monument that will tell the truth of all the men of this glorious old State stood for, which will tell how Petigrew led that famous charge, how North Carolina's sons went farthest and staid longest upon that bloody field and how none ever did or can surpass them.

The newspaper reports lately credit Gen. Julian S. Carr as saying he had a grudge against the Daughters of the Confederacy for not taking up the Stonewall Jackson Memorial. Surely if this is true that fine old veteran is ignorant of one of the U. D. C.'s most strongest rules. The U. D. C. can take up no general work such as that without the consent and endorsement of the President General, nor can a Division do so without endorsement of Division Presidents and neither of these were asked for, hence the North Carolina Division stands exonerated.

Your attention is very particularly called to the rules and regulations attached to applications for membership. In the first place no great nieces can hereafter be admitted, but this law in no way effects those already Daughters. In fact in every instance it is urged that application be made through material aid by lineal descent man or woman, rather than collateral descent through soldiers. This collateral soldier relation can be given in remarks.

The fact that each application be endorsed by one or two veterans, requires that these men give Company and regiment or camp so as to know they are veterans. These two matters if strictly attended to will save your Registrar much trouble and much expense to the Division.

The question of awarding Crosses of Honor has been greatly misunderstood causing very much confusion. After many applications for August 23rd had been returned by the Custodian General as "too late" your President requested the Division Recorder to take up the matter with Mrs. Raines in order to see if we could not excuse them, but alas, only to meet with positive refusal. Our only hope rests in getting the Washington Convention to extend the time every where till January 19, 1913.

This year North Carolina has received more recognition from our President General than has ever been our good fortune before, and is therefore represented upon more committees. On the two great committees of Arlington and Shiloh, Mrs. I. W. Faison is Director of the former and your State President of the latter. Mrs. Faison is also Vice-Chairman of the Historical Souvenirs Committee. Besides these the following ladies represent North Carolina on the various committees: Mrs. Martin Willard, President General's badge; Mrs. Leo D. Heartt, Program; Mrs. H. L. Riggins, Relief work; Mrs. Eugene Little, War Between the States; Mrs. E. F. Hall, Transportation, while your President has the high honor of being made chairman of the most important of this year's committees, that of the Revision of the U. D. C. Constitution and By-Laws.

Your special attention is called to the strict observance of the request to send all money to the Division Treasurer by money orders alone. We cannot afford to pay exchange on checks, and while some towns may be exempt from this rule of the bank, the Division cannot make exceptions to its rules. Much confusion and letter writing could be saved your Treasurer by adhering strictly to this request.

And just here I would state that many letters could be saved all State officers and a good deal of expense to the Division if Chapter officers would only consult the Minutes and inform themselves exactly to whom to write for various blanks. The law requiring all general work and communications to pass through the hands of the Division President, while a most excellent one, causes a heavy expense to said Divisions, as everything must be forwarded to chapters as soon as received and not held back till a convenient time.

Your President has been called upon, during the past year, to represent you in two very noted ways. First by being placed by Col. Ashley Horne upon his committee to select the design and manage the erection of his monument to the Confederate Women of North Carolina, and in the second place by being chosen by Major Orren Smith, the designer of the Stars and Bars, to present a flag of the original design to the general organization in Washington. Our President General writes that this presentation will take place at the opening exercises Tuesday night, immediately after the response to the addresses of welcome. For several years your President has made a thorough study of our U. D. C. work, its needs and interests and therefore desires to present to you at this Convention a few suggestions, which she would like for you to take up separately and thoroughly discuss.

1st. That we adopt the system that has worked so well in several other States, of dividing the State into several districts, which shall be under the immediate supervision of a District chairman. To this chairman be assigned the duty of forming new Chapters and in every way encouraging the work of those under her. Each district to hold a meeting of one or two days in some town during the spring, when the work be talked over and information given.

2nd. That every Chapter be required to have a Registrar.

3rd. That your President be instructed to immediately have printed the account of the organization of the Division and Minutes of first and second Conventions. Also that she have a set of all North Carolina Minutes bound for preservation. In suggesting your President to do this work, it is done because she has secured a full set of all printed Minutes, and has also compiled the notes of the two first Conventions.

4. In view of the fact that our Constitution is silent as to whether or not Presidents and Leaders are entitled to representation other than as delegates, and in order to settle this question for the future the suggestion is made that this matter be decided now. As it is the question of such representation must be left entirely with Chapters. Our Conventions are now so large that it is difficult, nay impossible, for small towns to entertain them. Your President would in view of such a fact suggest that hereafter the rule be made requiring each Chapter President to be its first delegate by virtue of her office, with duly elected alternate, said alternate under no circumstances being entitled to cast a President's personal vote. That as Leaders represent the Children's Chapters and as we do not recognize Children in our Conventions, that said Leaders be entitled to personal representation, but no alternates.

5th. That special Resolutions of Appreciation be sent to Col. Ashley Horne for the great work he has done in erecting the monument to the North Carolina Women of the Confederacy and a committee be appointed to draw up said resolutions.

6th. That a new office, that of Director of Children's Chapters, be created.

During the past year it has been my pleasure to visit a number of Chapters and every where many honors have been extended to me as your President. Early in December I attended a most delightful entertainment in Raleigh and listened to our Historian General, Miss Rutherford's, delightful talk on old times, the next day attending a meeting of the Johnston-Pettigrew Chapter. Later in the winter I made a delightful visit to Tarboro where I addressed the William Dorsey Pender Chapter, and was the guest of the D. A. R. Chapter on Washington's birthday. In April I attended the meeting of the Revision Commitee in Charleston and at a delightful tea given us by Miss Poppenheim met many of North Carolina's sons and daughters. Returning from there I stopped over in Wadesboro and took part in the delightful exercises of the Frank Bennett Children's Chapter at the opening of their Confederate Museum.

On May 20th you were represented at the unveiling of the tablet commemorative of the Mecklenburg Declaration erected by the Colonial Dames, and your greetings extended to that body. Midsummer brought a most delightful meeting with the Harnett Chapter at Lillington, when a number from neighboring Chapters were present to greet us. It was with regret that circumstances compelled me to decline invitations to attend the Veterans Re-union in Mobile, the unveiling of the monument to General John Morgan and the laying of the corner-stone of the Gastonia monument.

And now my dear friends, we must pause in our recital of what has been full of joy and gladness and turn for a moment to a darker side of our work. The angel of death has visited many of our Chapters, but we have been spared the loss of any of our honorary or ex-State officers. Yet while this is true, the Daughters have seen one of North Carolina's most shining lights flicker and grow dimmer till it ceased to shine to mortal eyes, but only became more luminous upon another shore. There has passed from among us that noble, retiring, brave, true Confederate Soldier General Robert F. Hoke, and we would pause to pay tribute to so true a Confederate, so noble a Christian, so loyal a North Carolinian.

And now to you Dear Daughters of our beloved Old North State, I have rendered the account of my stewardship. Whether it has been as you would have had it I cannot tell, but truthfully and faithfully I have given to your service the best that was in me, never letting anything interfere with your business.

To you one and all, to those present as to those absent, I would extend my heartfelt thanks for your generous dealings with all my short comings, for your kind thoughtfulness at all times, for your very many words and letters of encouragement and good cheer. The pathway has not always been strewn with roses, but your love has covered up the thorns. For my successor I bespeak the same kindness and good will you have shown towards me.

FANNIE RANSOM WILLIAMS,
President North Carolina Division.

SUGGESTIONS FOR COMMITTEE.

1st. That we adopt the system, that has worked so well in several other States, of dividing the State into districts, which shall be under immediate supervision of District Chairman. To this chairman be assigned the duty of forming new chapters and in every way encouraging the work of those under her. Each district to hold a meeting one or two days during the spring, when the work can be talked over and information given.

2nd. That our Treasurer be bonded, said bond to be paid for out of Division funds.

3rd. That your President be instructed to immediately have printed the account of the organization of the Division and Minutes of first and second Conventions. Also that she have a set of all North Carolina Minutes bound for preservation. In suggesting your President to do this work it is done because she has secured a full set of all printed Minutes and has also compiled the notes of the first Conventions.

4th. In view of the fact that our Constitution is silent as to whether or not Presidents and Leaders are entitled to representation other than as delegates, and in order to settle this matter for the future the suggestion is made that this matter be decided now. As it is now, the question of such representation must be left entirely with Chapters. Our Conventions are so large that it is difficult, nay impossible, for small towns to entertain them. Your President would in view of such a fact suggest that hereafter the rule be made requiring each Chapter President to be its first delegate by virtue of her office, with a duly elected alternate. Said alternate, under no circumstances being entitled to cast a President's personal vote. That as Leaders represent the Children's Chapters and as we do not recognize children in our Conventions, that said Leaders be entitled to personal representation, but no alternates.

5th. That special resolutions of appreciation be sent to Col. Ashley Horne for the great work he has done in erecting the monument to the North Carolina Women of the Confederacy and a commitee be appointed to draw up said resolutions.

6. That a new office, that of Director of Children's Chapters, be created.

7. That every Chapter be requested to have a Registrar.

THE REPORT OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY N. C. DIVISION U. D. C. SALISBURY CONVENTION.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

Words cannot express my heartfelt appreciation of the high honor you North Carolina Daughters conferred upon me and it is with pleasure that I present my third report as your Recording Secretary.

During the year quite a number of Chapters have been furnished application blanks, thereby showing a gratifying increase and enthusiasm. 1,049 application blanks have been sent out. The Children's Chapters have kept apace and 895 blanks have been furnished them.

Am sorry to report no new Chapters, on the other hand none have been cancelled, thereby showing the Division has held its own for the past year. 561 letters and 269 postals have been written.

With the hope that my work has been as satisfactory to you as it has been a pleasure to me, I again thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

JACKSIE DANIEL THRASH.

Report of the Corresponding Secretary was read in her absence by the Recording Secretary and accepted.

REPORT OF THE STATE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

To the President and Members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, North Carolina Division:

The undersigned, Corresponding Secretary of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, North Carolina Division, respectfully begs leave to submit the following as a report for the fiscal year, ending the 7th day of October, 1912.

Upon assuming the duties of Corresponding Secretary, all committees were notified of their respective appointments, the names thereof, at the same time, being sent to the chairmen of the different committees.

All work has been given prompt attention.

It is with much regret that the writer is unable to be present at the annual State Meeting of the Organization.

I have considered it an honor to serve you in the capacity of Corresponding Secretary. I do not feel, however, that my services can be of value to you in the future, on account of being so far from the President. I therefore tender my resignation.

Respectfully,

LILLIAN BONNER WILLIAMS,
(Mrs. W. H. Williams.)
State Corresponding Secretary.

Those of the Registrar, the Treasurer and the Recorder of Crosses were read and accepted.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

Once more I come before you to report work done: 264 applications registered, 28 transfers, nine of which were from outside Divisions, the remaining 18 being from one State Chapter to another.

I have written 221 letters and 64 post-cards and I am sure that two-thirds, nay, three-fourths of these were made necessary by the failure of Chapter officials to see that Company and Regiment of endorsing Veterans were put on application papers, and by the hitherto lax methods of registration.

I suggested in my report to the last Convention, that some action be taken in regard to these matters. I now urge it! for out of the fullness of two years experience and hard work, I realize that such action is absolutely necessary.

Until this is done, in regard to the endorsing Veterans, the work (and the postage bills) of the State Registrar will be doubled.

Until stricter rules are enforced in regard to registration, a correct State Register is impossible.

To these ends I would make the following suggestions:

A page in the Minutes, to be devoted to Hints Concerning Registration.

Concerning Veteran endorsers. Can statement of Camp to which one belongs be accepted in place of Company and Regiment? Can seal of County Clerks be accepted instead of Veteran endorser?

An emphatic statement that only printed demits can be accepted.

That great-nieces are no longer eligible.

That papers must be in by September 15th or State Registrar cannot have time to attend to them. Respectfully submitted,

ANNIE JONES DAVIS.

REPORT OF RECORDER OF CROSSES OF HONOR.

Madam President, Daughters of the Confederacy:

It is with feelings of pride and sadness that I bring my report of work done the past year. Pride that we have awarded so many crosses, but infinite sadness, when I reflect that there are still veterans, who not only desire crosses, but are begging for them, and still other veterans who have not heard of our "Cross."

This year, with the consent of our Custodian General, I asked several of the Eastern Counties to take up the work in the adjoining Counties where there are no Chapters. (All of the Western counties have Chapters.) Several of the Chapters responded enthusiastically; none more so than Pamlico Chapter of Washington; New Bern Chapter, of New Bern, and Cape Fear Chapter, of Wilmington.

August 23rd I accompanied the Wilmington representatives when they went to Onslow County to present crosses. The people of Onslow had not only invited Judge Clark to make an address and prepared a picnic dinner but turned out "enmasse" to show their appreciation. The veterans from all sections of the County had gathered; all who were to receive crosses were present, and about fifteen others; who, each, begged and plead for a cross. "Just please get me one. I never heard of them before. Lady can't you get me one?" And so on until we were all in tears. Now ladies, I do not want a single one of these old men to be disappointed. We must, if possible, get them crosses.

Owing to a misunderstanding, a great many Chapters were under the impression they could get crosses until November 1st, when as a fact, North Carolina's time expired August 23rd. As a consequence I have twenty-four Chapters on my list, who have either sent or written me for applications, varying from one to fourteen. Now, that these various Chapters and Veterans may not be disappointed, I ask you to draw up a motion to be sent to the General Convention at Washington, D. C., asking that "In view of the misunderstanding as to dates, the North Carolina Division be allowed to secure crosses for all applications now in hands of Chapters."

Last year when Mrs. Raines report was made, we determined that North Carolina must present one thousand crosses this year; and, by hearty co-operation we have passed the mark. During the year, we have awarded 1169 crosses. Of these 956 were to veterans, 54 to widows, 159 to descendants and 48 were duplicates, as follows:

My dear friends: In laying down my duties and honors of the past two years, I wish to again thank you for the patience you have shown and the sympathy you have given me in my failures and shortcomings. Respectfully submitted,

GERTRUDE BAGLEY CREASY.

In the absence of the Historian, her report was read by the Recording-Secretary and accepted.

REPORT OF MISS REBECCA CAMERON, HISTORIAN.

Madam President: In submitting my report I regret that it should show such a small harvest of results from so much work and thought as has been expended by our Historian General who, in January last, sent at no little expense and trouble, a large package of circular letters (already folded and in envelopes) in which she urged the importance of immediate and zealous historical work, and outlining an admirable plan for its prosecution.

To this, I added a circular letter that I had written, a copy of which I herewith append:

Historian's Letter, North Carolina Division.

My Dear Madam: In sending out to you the Historian General's circular letter, it seems best to add to it a personal appeal from your own Division Historian. For ten years you have honored me with that important office. Many others could have discharged its duties with more abundant results, I have no doubt. None could have given to it more heartfelt devotion and interest. And now, I am making a personal appeal to each one of you, my fellow workers in the field of history; begging you to take up your work with renewed interest and devotion; and work as you have never worked before, to make this year the most memorable in our annals. We are pledged by our Constitution to preserve the History of the War Between the States. And this means that each Chapter in each Division shall preserve its own local history of men, and measures and events.

Not wide areas of general history, that other writers have already recorded, and thus rescued from oblivion, but the noteworthy incidents that happened in your own individual localities, viz: towns, neighborhoods, and counties.

You are to go personally to the men and women who were the actors, or the sufferers and get from them their story of it.

Write it as nearly as possible in their own words; be absolutely exact as to names, dates, localities and commands if it happens to have been a fight or a public event.

And don't soften harsh or brutal facts; don't bring a post bellum sentiment to "Smooth War's horrid front."

"Paint Oliver Cromwell, warts and all."

Likewise remember that the women of the sixties have also stories to tell, that are worth as much in their way as those of the men. We want them all. Carefully study Miss Rutherford's plan; and follow it literally.

It has been very carefully studied out, and she is experienced in the work. (Also she is of North Carolina ancestry, as a county and town testify; and she is very proud of it, as she well may be. Most of us are.) When we make our Division report next November in Washington City let it be the best one of all. Let it stand first as North Carolina has ever been.

The eyes of strangers, and foreigners, will be upon us there. Let us shine forth gloriously.

We sent more men to the front than any other State; we left more dead upon the bloody trail from Bethel to Appomattox. We went "farthest" every where, therefore we have more history to record than any other State. Let us, Oh, let us spring forward now, and save the shining fragments that we still can grasp.

They are going away so fast, those matchless men. Soon the seal of death will be irrevocably placed upon brave lips that now can speak.

"The thin grey line" grows thinner all the while. Death will not stop for us, to wait our tardy leisure. Death will not unlock closed mouths for us. We must forever lose what we do not now ask for. And I pray you, I urge and beseech you, to go forth now to the gleaning that is left, the little that is spared from the tide of half a century of lost years. Soon, Oh, so soon, the bugles will blow "Taps" over the last of the grey clad men; and we can never then hear the stories that they only could tell. Will you, oh, can you let them be lost?

Your office is a sacred trust, you have accepted it, and thus have pledged yourself to do the work that belongs to it, and I am sure as the daughters, wives and sisters of those men who never failed Lee, you will as faithfully do your duty as did they.

Hoping to hear from you, if only a line, and that you will gather a rich harvest of historical papers, each honorably striving to excel all the rest, I am Very faithfully yours,

REBECCA CAMERON,
Historian N. C. Division U. D. C.

Hillsboro, N. C., January 22nd, 1912.

We mailed a copy to each one of the eighty-eight Chapters in the Division, asking for an immediate acknowledgment, and a report of Chapter's historical work by the middle of September. No replies were received by me, and only one Chapter reported its work.

"The Roanoke Minute Men" Chapter of Littleton, through their admirable Historian, Mrs. J. P. Leach, sent me on September 12th, a list of nine papers that had been read before their Chapter.

On Sept. 4th, Miss Jessica Randolph Smith, a member of the Vance County Chapter U. D. C., who has the true historical instinct, as befits the daughter of that maker of history, Major Orren Randolph Smith, sent me valuable memoranda of the organization and services of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, which I returned to her to embody in one of her own excellent papers; and a record of General W. H. Cheek, read before the Henry L. Wyatt Camp, U. C. V., written by Mrs. M. J. O'Neil. Also an admirable paper on "Arlington," as it was, in the days of the "Lees" and as it is to-day in its Military aspect, not the home of the living but of "The Sacred Dead," with descriptions of the head stones over every grave and speaking of how beautiful is the "Confederate Section" where lie our own Grey Clad Soldiers in the center of which, will be laid the corner stone of The Confederate Monument, which we hope will be the grandest work of Sir Moses Ezekiel. In this paper was also given a brief synopsis of the great work done by Dr. S. E. Lewis in whose brain the idea originated of having our "Confederate Section" at Arlington and by whom the "Charles Broadway Rouse" Camp of Washington was formed, to assist in this work which before long included the caring for all graves of Confederate Soldiers who died in Northern prisons or in Hospitals.

This paper was the work of Mrs. A. J. Cheek and read before the Henderson Camp by her on "Arlington Day."

Mrs. J. S. Henderson, of your hostess Chapter, sent a most valuable and delightfully written memorial sketch of that gallant Colonel, Charles F. Fisher, the first officer of the North Carolina line killed in battle and Colonel of the Sixth North Carolina Volunteers which was really the first regiment raised in the State, written by the Hon. John S. Henderson, of Salisbury, and read before the Mecklenburg Chapter of the U. D. C., in which address he shows clearly that the successful issue of the first great Victory of the War, the first battle of Manassas, was due to Colonel Fisher and the gallant Sixth, who at the supreme moment of crisis; by their heroic capture of Rickett's and Griffin's batteries changed disaster into victory. A victory, however, that cost us dear for Colonel Fisher gave his life for it.

This is, as far as I know, all the Historical material that has been harvested in response to the appeals sent out.

Understanding early in September, that some question had already been raised as to which of the Confederate Flags Major Orren Randolph Smith designed and set afloat in Louisburg, March 18th, 1861, I wrote to Mrs. Robert Davis, of the Jos. J. Davis Chapter, U. D. C., at Louisburg, and asked her to take steps to secure the affidavits of some of the people who had been present on the occasion of the first unfurling of "The Stars and Bars" so that the question would be forever settled authoritatively. She replied at once saying that they were already at work trying to secure them, but so far, October 2nd, the result of their efforts have not reached me. This I consider a very important matter not only in justice to Major Smith but as a question of the truth of history, and of State pride.

We should have learned the value of an authoritative record from the vexed question of the date of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, May 20th, 1775, and I am sorry the affidavits have not come in time for this report.

I have written one hundred and fifty letters and twenty-five postal cards, and given desired information to the Historians of several of our sister States.

It is not worth while for me to urge upon our Historians the importance of prompt work. I have said all that I could for the past ten years and apparently without avail.

But. none the less, I wish with all my heart I knew the "open sesame to their hearts.

Respectfully submitted,
REBECCA CAMERON, Historian.

Henry L. Wyatt Committee report read by its Chairman, Miss Etheredge, accepted with a motion of especial thanks to Miss Etheredge in the completion of her work.

REPORT OF HENRY WYATT MONUMENT COMMITTEE.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

For four years we came to you telling you of the monument that was to be. To-day, this report could be made in the one brief sentence—The Henry Wyatt Monument is completed, unveiled, paid for, and Twenty-eight Dollars ($28.00) left over.

June the 10th was a very proud and happy day for North Carolina. Time now, and space in the Minutes, forbid me telling you just how proud especially our committee felt. You who were there will agree with us that it was a perfect day.

It was my pleasure to be in Raleigh several days before the unveiling, and fully appreciate the skilful planning of the people there to make the completion of our work a grand success. They did all they could, and more too—not a request was refused nor a wish ungratified—and the expenses of the unveiling even seemed a joy to them.

The welcome given to all the visitors was truly like "ye olden days."

There was an elegant dinner prepared for veterans and visiting military companies. Mrs. Josephus Daniels entertained the Daughters and other guests at a beautiful luncheon served at her home.

We thank dear old Raleigh, beautiful City of Oaks, for the many kindnesses extended to us; and to three faithful women are we especially grateful—these three women are, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. Leo Heartt and Miss Denson.

When any of you go to Raleigh be sure to go and look into the face of the Henry Wyatt Statue. You can't but feel the spirit that sent the young hero into the face of death.

Mr. Borglum has said that "America erects too many monuments to men, not ideals." In this he most nearly archives it, with his genius consecrated to the pure ideal of an eternal truth, he has thrown into his work his entire skill. As the clay responded beneath his hands it became something real fed with this ideal—the spirit of the Confederate soldier—the true patriotism that sent him to arms, the spirit of determination that carried him through four years of fighting and hardships, the unconquerable courage with which he laid down his arms to return to a country of ruins.

As this is my first work done for our cause, I wish to thank you individually and collectively who have given me such cordial support in carrying on your work. While the Henry Wyatt Committee stands dismissed, I shall ever feel a special interest in each of you, for united we stood for the best we could give our State.

Oh, the sweetness and sadness of thinking of the millions who may gaze upon the sculptered ideal of Henry Wyatt—as they view the grand proportions and stern, resolute expression of this youthful hero going forth to battle, may the same emotions that stir our hearts make them know that their fathers fought and died for what they knew to be right.

MARGARET ETHEREDGE,
Chairman Henry Wyatt Monument Committee.

Memorial Arch Committee report, in the absence of the Chairman, Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, was read by the Recording Secretary, and accepted.

REPORT ON MEMORIAL ARCH.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy of North Carolina:

I beg to submit the following report as Chairman of the Memorial Arch or Gateway to the Confederate section of Oakwood Cemetery in Raleigh, N. C.

This object has been under the consideration of this Convention for nine or ten years and the fund has suddenly grown, but has not as yet reached a point to justify the beginning of the actual work of construction.

By reference to the minutes of the past Conventions you will find a history of the work and its progress up to 1908, when there seemed quite a falling off of interest in the project attributable to several causes that can be adjusted as time goes on. Be that as it may, we hope the Chapters will repose sufficient confidence in the Committee to set aside all differences of opinion that may have existed regarding the manner of inscribing the names of Chapters on the Arch. Let the funds be raised first, and then let the President appoint a wise and competent committee, who will endeavor "to regulate the article of expense as economically as they can with justice to the wishes of the Society."

According to the minutes of 1905 to 1908 forty-six Chapters have responded to the call for Twenty Dollars each.

The amount now in the hands of the Treasurer is $1,048.77—a very small increase in two years, and this increase principally from interest on the funds. Thanks are due our treasurers for their wise investments.

Forty-five Chapters are yet to be heard from and to these we earnestly appeal to come forward and pay in their quota.

Your Chairman, in order to awaken new interest among the seemingly dormant Chapters has divided these into six sections, alloting to each member of the Committee about eight chapters, these to be situated as nearly as possible in her district. The following ladies constitute the Committee appointed by the President in 1912:

Mrs. William Bryan, New Bern, N. C.
Mrs. B. N. Mann, Durham, N. C.
Mrs. O. M. Royster, Hickory, N. C.
Mrs. Henry Redwood, Asheville, N. C.

Your Chairman has added the names of Mrs. W. O. Winstead, of Rocky Mount, and Miss Margaret Etheredge, of Selma, N. C.

These ladies have had lists sent them with the request to see the representatives of the Chapters that have been assigned them, and enlist their interest in a work that will perpetuate, not only their devotion to the Confederate soldier, but will remain as a lasting monument to the U. D. C. Chapters of North Carolina.

This is about all that can be done for the present, as the work of construction cannot begin until all Chapters are heard from, for it cannot appear as the work of the United Chapters unless they are represented.

With best wishes for the success of your Convention, I remain,

Cordially yours,
MRS. E. E. MOFFITT,
Chairman of the Memorial Arch Committee.

1014 West Franklin Street,
Richmond, Va.

Motion made by Mrs. Winstead of Rocky Mount:

That the balance in Treasury of the Henry L. Wyatt Monument Fund, with the permission of Miss Etheredge, be turned over to the Memorial Arch Committee.

Seconded and carried.

Motion made by Mrs. Martin Willard:

That we accept the site offered by the City of Raleigh upon which the Memorial Arch is to be placed and with the funds on hand, appropriation of the Oakwood Cemetery, and contributions from new Chapters; that a committee of six be appointed with Mrs. Moffitt as Chairman, to accept a suitable design and erect the Arch as soon as possible.

Seconded and carried.

The Chapters were urged to make extra efforts to complete this work at their earliest opportunity.

Mr. Atkinson, of Albemarle, was escorted to the platform by Mrs. Overman, and spoke most interestingly on what his school is doing for the Education of poor girls.

Motion was made by Mrs. London that a letter of consolation be written by Mrs. Josephus Daniels. This was done.

In her most charming manner Mrs. Overman extended invitations of the local Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution to a Reception in the afternoon and from the Robert F. Hoke Chapter for Luncheon. These were accepted and motion was made to adjourn.

SECOND DAY—Evening Session.

The only business, but one of the most important, the election of officers, consumed the afternoon session.

The following officers were elected:

Mrs. Marshall Williams, President.
Mrs. John Henderson, 1st Vice-President.
Mrs. M. O. Winstead, 2nd Vice-President.
Mrs. Leo D. Heartt, 3rd Vice-President.
Mrs. Thad. W. Thrash, Recording Secretary.
Miss Winnie Faison, Corresponding Secretary.
Miss Margaret Etheredge, Treasurer.
Mrs. Robert Davis, Registrar.
Miss Carrie Leazar, Historian.
(Vacant), Assistant Historian.
Mrs. W. M. Creasy, Recorder of Crosses.
Miss Hettie James, Chaplain.

Motion was made that Miss Rebecca Cameron be made Honorary Historian for life and a note be written her by the Recording Secretary.

Motion was made that a vote of thanks be given Mrs. Shannon for her valuable work.

A rising vote of thanks was given the retiring President, Mrs. F. M. Williams, for her efficient services.

Motion was made to adjourn.

THIRD DAY—Morning Session.

Business meeting opened at 10:30 a. m.

As usual the opening prayer was delivered by Miss James.

A most delightful vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. Barnhardt, encouraging us to begin afresh another days work.

Minutes read by Recording Secretary and accepted by Convention as submitted.

The Committee on Resolution of Thanks was appointed: Mrs. T. T. Covington, Mrs. J. D. Johnson, Mrs. E. C. Chambers.

Mrs. Broadnax read a message from the Vice-Regent of the N. C. Room, Richmond, Mrs. Allison Hodges, who gave directions as to what would be most suitable now to send this room.

Children's Chapters report read by the Chairman of the Committee, Mrs. Gordon Finger, and accepted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHILDREN'S CHAPTER.

Madam President, Fellow Workers:

The thought that the U. D. C. is a unique organization among all the patriotic orders of the world perpetuating as it does the heroes and principles of a lost cause has been expressed on many occasions; but the more unique and greater responsibility that necessarily accompanies and grows out of this distinction I have never heard emphasized. It is that we shall teach truth untinctured with prejudice; that we shall revere the past without injecting its rancor into the present and the future; that we shall teach our children the facts about the opponents of our men in arms with no embitterments of hatred; in fact to carry out General Lee's injunction in "The Last Word of the Confederacy".

Remember, we are one country now. Bring up your children to be above all, Americans. This work of training young Americans that Lee spent his days after the war in performing, your committee has done in a humble way.

Five new Chapters have been organized since last Convention and more than five others have had preliminary work of organization done with such hopes of success, we believe another year will see them perfected.

Our Conference of Leaders was held Thursday, October 10 of this Convention. For inspiration, direction and encouragement we are indebted to Mrs. Frances Fisher Tiernan for a beautiful message of greeting.

A delightful talk on "Attractive Methods of Teaching Confederate History," was made by Miss Mabel Tuck, of Durham.

Program and Entertainment Plans, by Mrs. T. T. Covington, of Laurinburg.

Mrs. Henry Archbell, of Kinston, presented reasons why we need a State Magazine for the Children, how we can have one and proof copies of "Carolina and the Southern Cross," which would eminently meet these needs were distributed. The concensus of opinion of the leaders being strong approval of the publication the editor Mrs. Archbell has designed.

The sub-committee of award were Mrs. F. M. Williams, Mrs. T. W. Thrash and your chairman. Their duty was to award the banner donated by Mrs. Thomas L. Craig, of Gastonia, for the Chapter doing the best work this year and was made under rules formulated by the main committe and followed:

The points made are:

I. To that chapter the largest proportion of whose members can perfectly recite the Confederate catechism.

II. To the chapter making the largest proportionate increase in its membership.

III. To the Chapter having the best financial record. This includes all actual work; aid to sick or aged veterans, monument funds, Soldiers Home, Museum, Education, Confederate flags or pictures, anything of value done or secured by Leader and members.

IV. To the Chapter whose members and Leader have caused the greatest number of new Children's chapters to be organized.

The W. G. Quackenbush Chapter, Laurinburg, being the successful competitor.

We are indebted to Mr. C. H. Wilmoth, of Charlotte, for donating our printed programs of the Children's Conference, the Conference this year being the best attended of the three held as a result of its time and place, etc., being well known, this Conference also had the honor of being the first to be attended by our State President.

Respectfully submitted,

MAUDE TURNER FINGER.

Report from the Committee appointed to act on suggestions of the President read by Chairman, Mrs. Martin Willard.

All suggestions accepted except one and the following motion of Mrs. Marshall Williams substituted:

That Chapter Presidents come to Convention above the regular number of delegates. Also Leaders of Children's Chapters come extra.

Seconded and carried.

Motion made by Mrs. Winstead who moved also that Director of Children's Chapters be made a State Officer.

Carried.

Mrs. I. W. Faison made the following motion:

That the Copy of the U. D. C. State Minutes that is smaller than all others, be printed when the Minutes of the 1st and 2nd year of this organization be printed, in order that they will be uniform size to be bound; provided it is impossible to cut all to same size.

The report from Portrait Committee read by Mrs. Willard and accepted.

REPORT OF PORTRAIT COMMITTEE.

It is with regret that I submit so little accomplished in the placing of portraits. I have written many letters and postals and received a few answers.

Winston has placed one portrait in a county school. Greensboro one in the public library. Lenoir one in the public school.

Fayetteville will in the near future place portraits in every school in the county. Newton one—Brevard one.

Pittsboro has one to be presented on January 19.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. F. L. HUGGINS, Chairman.

Mrs. Hunter Smith, Chairman of the Confederate Woman's Home Committee read the report and asked the towns to offer sites for the establishing of this Home.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME FOR THE CONFEDERATE WOMEN.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

Your Committee on Home for the Confederate Women comes once more to make its annual report on this worthy undertaking. Since our last meeting at Winston-Salem practically nothing has been done. It seems to your Committee to be wisest and best that we devote our energies to securing a site for the home, and getting a building erected and equipped as soon as possible. Without going into an argument on the question in this report, we beg to recommend:

First. That a representative committee of five from different sections of the State be appointed to ask for and receive offers of sites and donations for the home, and that this committee be instructed to report fully all bids and offers to the proper committee of the Legislature of North Carolina, that such site may be selected as will be, all things considered, the best for the home.

Second. That this committee be charged with the duty of presenting to the Legislature of 1913 the claims of the Confederate Women of the State, and ask for an appropriation by the Legislature of Ten Thousand Dollars for the erection and equipment of buildings and an annual appropriation of Five Thousand Dollars for the maintenance of the same.

Third. That this Committee be authorized to renew the offer of the United Daughters of the Confederacy of North Carolina, made by the Convention at Rocky Mount in 1910 to furnish this building upon its completion.

Fourth. That the several Local Chapters comprising this Convention be asked to appoint a special committee and pass suitable resolutions and to co-operate with the central committee in getting this important matter properly before the people of the Sate and before the State Legislature at its Session in 1913.

While the progress that we are making in our effort to secure this home has not been rapid as we would like, yet we are persuaded that if our women will work unitedly and enthusiastically we can secure this much needed home within the next twelve months. Let us make this our chief aim for the year to come, and set our hearts on this one thing. We are sure that the good women of North Carolina will have sufficient influence with the true manhood of the State to secure, at their hands, a place where protection and peace will be provided for the faithful women, who must look to the benevolence of a grateful Commonwealth to care for them in their declining days. In other days they kept the fires burning at home, while their husbands and sons were at the front, and we feel that we can appeal with confidence to the Old North State in the days of their adversity.

Total amount received and on hand.....$ 486.21

Following amounts have been received this year:

Wm. M. Parsley Chapter, Murfreesboro.....$	2.00
Norfleet-Harrell Chapter, Murfreesboro.....	10.00
Highpoint Chapter, High Point.....	5.00

Ask Chapters to please send in bids to Chairman by December 15, 1912.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. HUNTER G. SMITH,

Chairman Home for Confederate Women Committee.

Gettysburg Monument Committee report read by the Chairman Mrs. Edwin Overman, and accepted.

REPORT OF GETTYSBURG MONUMENT COMMITTEE.

Your Gettysburg Monument Committee respectfully submits the following report: We have written 89 letters to each President and Chapter in the North Carolina Division urging them to name and appoint a Gettysburg Day—preferably Veterans Day—to have addresses by orators on North Carolina, Gettysburg historical record, and a contribution from every patriotic son and daughter of the town, county and State. The Chapel Hill and the Arlington Monument work being primary is an undertaking, and it being the desire to finish these monuments before taking up the Gettysburg Monument with united hearts and hands, your Committee has not pressed the Gettysburg Monument with the zeal that encompasses land and sea, as yet. Generous co-operation and contributions have been made.

Report from Keystone work read by Mrs. Gordon Finger. Accepted.

REPORT OF MANAGER OF KEYSTONE.

The co-operation from Chairmen and Chapters in sending items of news has improved over that of former years but I would bespeak for your new manager that every Chapter and Chairman send her notes of their important work before the 15th of the month.

From the offer of the editor to give us commission on all paid up subscribers, whether renewals or otherwise, we have turned over to the Chapel Hill Monument fund six dollars and paid postage on copy and correspondence to secure facts for same.

Respectfully submitted,

MAUDE TURNER FINGER.

Madam President and Ladies:

The Keystone, the official organ of the North Carolina U. D. C. since 1907, presents a word of greeting to this Convention. We have tried in the past five years, with the assistance of your able North Carolina managers, to give the North Carolina U. D. C. a good, helpful, readable column each month in the Keystone. Your late lamented Mrs. Wills did beautiful service in this work and your present capable and gifted Mrs. Gordon Finger has been "The Column" since her term as Manager. We would be lost without her ready help and sympathy with the work.

We hope the U. D. C. of North Carolina feel a love for and interest in their official organ and we promise you faithful and volunteer service during the coming year.

The Keystone, as the offical organ of the U. D. C. of Virginia and South Carolina also makes a combination in. its pages of three States with a similar Confederate history and so promotes ties of friendship and patriotism among these States.

Sample copies of the Keystone will be distributed at this meeting and Mrs. Finger will take subscriptions for the Keystone during the Convention. A full account of this meeting will appear in the November Keystone. The Keystone and the Confederate Veteran when subscribed through the Keystone may be had for $1.10 (one dollar and ten cents).

With best wishes for a helpful and successful Convention and with promises of faithful and volunteer service for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUISA B. POPPENHEIM,
Manager The Keystone,
Charleston, South Carolina.

Accepted.

This essay was well read by Mrs. F. M. Williams.

Motion made that telegrams be sent Mrs. W. M. Parsley and Mrs. Stonewall Jackson. Carried.

Motion that a note of thanks be written Capt. Orren Randolph Smith for the beautiful Flag presented to the N. C. Division U. D. C., on Historical Evening. Carried.

Report from Educational Committee read as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Madam President:

As Chairman of our Educational Committee, I hoped to have for you a better report but have been unable to do much that I had planned. Very few Chapters answered the letters that Mrs. Ingram, Miss McRae and I wrote them, asking for definite pledges, if possible. Roanoke Minute Men pledged ten dollars yearly, for four years, and some others did well. Chapters should give this fund their early attention. We have placed three young ladies in our State Normal at Greensboro—Miss Nancy Sidney Dowty, Pamlico county; Miss Verd Wilson, Pitt county; Miss Bessie May Pinkston, of Anson county. Miss Dowty has been at the Normal two years working her way, and is highly endorsed by President Foust and teachers. Miss Wilson's application was longest on file. Miss Pinkston is granddaughter of a brave veteran and a girl of fine character and attainments. The young man who was to have our scholarship at Chapel Hill decided at the last minute to work instead so President Venable gave it to a worthy applicant. A. & M. scholarship is filled by Earnest Knox Herman, son of a Methodist minister and grandson and nephew of veterans. The scholarship at Oxford College is still open, also one for Music only at Davenport, though advertised. Miss McRae hopes to have one next year at Red Springs Seminary. Miss Shipp fills her own at Fassifern, as does Professor Graham at Warrenton High School and a number of others are filled locally. I feel we have "Just begun to fight" on the school question and hope to see this work carried on to much greater success. I call to the consideration of this Convention, Mrs. Archbell's Magazine, "Carolina and The Southern Cross," the first issue of which has lately reached me. I believe she will, if properly supported and encouraged, do a great and highly important work in placing in our children's reach a knowledge of the History we ourselves have made, and a "Reason for the faith that is in us."

Regretting that I cannot be with you, the first time in ten years, I am,

Truly yours,

MARY A. LITTLE,,
Chairman Educational Committee.

Reading of reports from the Chapters was taken up.

Motion made that they be accepted as a whole after being read. Carried.

Children's Chapter reports were also read and accepted.

The hour for the Automobile ride having arrived, motion was made to adjourn.

THIRD DAY—Night Session.

At 9:00 o'clock the Convention was called to order and the report of the Quackenbush Chapter was read. This Chapter won the William M. Watson banner presented by that patriotic, true friend of the Confederacy, Mrs. Thomas Lee Craig, to the Children's Chapter, doing the best work during the year.

Carried.

My Dear Sir: The N. C. Division U. D. C. in session at Salisbury, N. Your great generosity has won our admiration as well as our gratitude and is only another proof of your appreciation of their services.

Again thanking you, we are with the greatest respect,

MRS. M. O. WINSTEAD,

MRS. THRASH'S ADDRESS.

Madam President and Daughters of the North Carolina Division United Daughters of Confederacy:

Go with me a few moments back fifty one years to the town of Louisburg. Twas there that young Orren Randolph Smith bought from J. Barrow's store some red, white and blue material and with the assistance of Miss Rebecca Murphy (now Mrs. Winburn) made and sent aloft the flag that afterwards was accepted by the committee at Montgomery as the flag of the Confederate States of America. Major Smith, a brave veteran of several wars, is now living in Henderson and 85 years old. In his name it gives me unspeakable pleasure and the greatest honor to present to you his flag—your flag—the stars and bars that led the men in grey to such deeds of heroism and to the highest glory won by any soldiers of the known world—the boys of '61-'65.

SUPPLEMENT TO TABULATED REPORTS.

CAPE FEAR CHAPTER, No. 3—WILMINGTON.

Have contributed to all State and General causes possible—to Arlington, Shiloh, Gettysburg Monument Funds, to proposed statue to General Stonewall Jackson and several lesser causes. Have a special fund for relief of needy Veterans, and gave Crosses to Veterans in Brunswick and Onslow counties, there being no Chapter in either county. Have given much attention to familiarizing history for ourselves and others. Before business is taken up at each meeting we have a talk from one of our members on the events of the war for that month, and the notes are afterwards turned over to Chapter Historian for record. Had a delightful Historical meeting in the Spring and hope to have another before year closes. It was my pleasure to assist in the writing of an article on Mrs. Rose O'Neal Greenhow, the Confederate Dispatch Bearer, which appeared in Harper's Monthly Magazine for March, and to supplement it with a short sketch in the North Carolina Historical Review on Mrs. Greenhow's connection with Wilmington. Both these papers will be turned over to State Historian by Cape Fear Chapter. We offered a prize of $5.00 to the pupils of certain grades in our Grammar schools for the best essay on General Albert Sidney Johnson, the subject for the year before being Battle of Shiloh. So many papers were sent in, all were so good, and so much interest was taken by both children and teachers that we added a second prize of $2.50. Thus we hope to deepen their respect and honor for the Confederacy—to teach the children that war is holy—if it threatens the land God gave them for their country.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. RICHARD PRICE, President.

PAMLICO CHAPTER, No. 43—WASHINGTON.

Besides local work and the usual dues to the Educational Fund, Sinking Fund, etc., this Chapter has presented Crosses of Honor in the counties of Hyde, Dare, Tyrrell, Martin and Washington—two to veterans in Maryland and one in California.

On Memorial Day we were fortunate enough to have as our guest, Mr. R. D. W. Connor, who made a brilliant address. After the exercises at the Auditorium which were, as usual, participated in by the Veterans, Children of the Confederacy, Military Company, Naval Reserves and Band, dinner was served to more than 300 Veterans from this and adjoining counties.

Respectfully submitted,

MARCIA RODMAN MYERS, President.

ROBERT F. HOKE CHAPTER, No. 75—SALISBURY.

Our principal contributions for the past year have been $100.00 for the Arlington monument, $25.00 for the Chapel Hill monument, $25.00 for Soldiers' Home, $10.00 for marking graves, besides the usual assessments and various smaller gifts and payments. The celebration on Memorial Day was even more successful and more largely attended than usual—over two hundred veterans being present.

ASHEVILLE CHAPTER, No. 104—ASHEVILLE.

Asheville Chapter has had a prosperous year. Regular meetings have been well attended and several new names added to roll.

January 19th was observed with an address and luncheon to the veterans.

June 3rd was observed as memorial day, also Vance birthday, May 13th.

At the June commencement of the Asheville High School a medal was awarded by the Chapter for the best essay, written and read, by a graduate, on "The Causes and Incidents that led to the Civil War." There were fifteen contestants for the medal and the essays were all good. We have recently started a fund to place a suitable Confederate memorial in our prettiest cemetery hence have been able to respond to few outside calls.

Respectfully submitted,

VANCE COUNTY CHAPTER, No. 142—HENDERSON.

We have added a number of names to our list since last meeting, and the Chapter has had a most successful and enjoyable year. A number of entertainments have been given to increase our funds. Among them a Lilliputian Wedding. We cleared $105.00. We have aided veterans in many ways. We have visited and helped the sick. We have attended the regular meetings of the Camp, Henry L. Wyatt, each month, and furnished programs, music, etc., often. The Chapter paid the expenses of ten veterans to the re-union in Macon Ga., giving each of them also a little pocket change. The amount was $43.00. We co-operated with the Camp one day in August, and furnished a basket lunch at their barbecue. They had a splendid program. Address by Mr. S. T. Peace.

We served dinner to the Camp on January 19th and May 10th, and furnished carriages and automobiles for them on all special occasions.

On January 19th we had a delightful program. Address by Hon. C. C. Zollicoffer.

May 10th Memorial Day, was observed with parade of veterans, band, Vance County Guards, School Children, Orders of Boy Knights and Scouts, the U. D. C. marshals and other citizens. The exercises were at the cemetery. Address by Hon. H. T. Powell, after which the graves were decorated.

On June 3rd and August 23rd, the Chapter met with the Camp and helped furnish programs. We are very proud of our Children's Chapter, the Orrin Randolph Smith Chapter of forty members—named for our own Mr. Smith, the designer of the Stars and Bars. Much praise is due the Leader, Mrs. M. J. O'Neil, for her untiring efforts. The Vance County Chapter, with the help of the Children's Chapter, have undertaken the pleasant task of placing markers over all the unmarked graves of the Confederate dead in our cemetery is our next work.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY J. COOPER, President.

We have given Crosses of Honor to veterans of three counties—Craven, Jones and Pamlico: 12 May 10th, 19 June 3rd, 23 August 23rd. Seven applications were received too late to order Crosses, as time had expired. We have eleven new members, one demit, an old member returning to her mother Chapter. Lost one by death. Nineteen markers have been placed at veterans graves. Several veterans have passed away this year, among them the Commandant of the New Bern Camp, No. 1162. Respectfully submitted,

The work of our Chapter has been much hindered by the long sickness of its President, which culminated in an operation for appendicitis, September 10. We were unable to have our Veterans' Re-union but hope to entertain them in January. Our Auxiliary, Frank Bennett Chapter, does faithful work. We have known great sorrow and loss in the deaths, last March, through a horrible accident, of Mrs. Ella McRae Covington, Misses Marion and Lora Little, devoted daughters. We mourn our loss.

Respectfully submitted,

On the 3rd of June we served dinner to 125. R. D. W. Connor, of Raleigh, delivered a splendid address. On account of the cold mountain climate we did not observe Lee and Jackson day, January 19th.

Our Chapter has sustained the past year a great loss by reason of the death of one of its best loved members.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. W. R. SIMPSON,
(nee Miss Rachel Hollingsworth.)

The Junius Daniel Chapter of U. D. C., of Weldon, is in a flourishing condition. It has been our great pleasure to answer all calls which have come to us for help, and at same time to do what we could in our town for living Confederate veterans. Our motto being, "While honoring dead Heroes let us not forget the living." The preservation of the resting places of the brave old soldiers has been our work also. We have contributed liberally to the Soldiers' Home, Raleigh, by sending clothing and money; also sent our town paper

"Roanoke News" to oldest Confederate veteran at the Home, who was a Halifax county man.

A lot has been presented to us on which are the graves of 150 soldiers and we are now working to have this lot surveyed and enclosed. A sister of a Confederate veteran has received from us monthly support for the past two years.

Our membership is 53 an increase of 21, and there are now six new members to be registered. Ours is an enthusiastic and hard working Chapter. A Children's Chapter has been organized.

The Gastonia Chapter sends greetings to the Convention now in session in Salisbury. Our Chapter is in good condition, our membership continues to grow. We did not publicly observe January 19th, but planned a Chapter meeting at which we intended to bestow Crosses of Honor. On account of the inclement weather no one came. On the next day six veterans came for their crosses, which were given them. Memorial Day was celebrated with the usual exercises followed by a sumptuous dinner for the 130 veterans present. Last winter our Chapter practically supported three veterans during the most severe weather. Following our usual custom, a gold medal was given to the pupil of the tenth grade who wrote the best essay on "Robert E. Lee". This has been a busy year for the Chapter. Last fall the contract was given for a $3,000 monument to be erected on the court house grounds. At that time less than $300 was in sight. Now it is practically all raised. The Chapter has been assisted by the J. D. Moore Children's Chapter of the Confederacy. On August 8th we laid the corner stone with appropriate exercises. This day was the annual re-union of the veterans of the county and after the corner-stone laying the veterans, their wives and the Daughters had a picnic dinner. We hope to unveil our monument on October 25th and expect by that time to have the balance subscribed. We have given very little to outside causes this year but trust in the future to do better.

CHILDREN'S CHAPTER REPORTS.

JULIA JACKSON CHAPTER—CHARLOTTE.

The Julia Jackson Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, was reorganized in January, 1912, with nine members. The enrollment now is 47. One demit has been given during the year. The meetings are held on the first Friday of each month in the Veteran's Hall or the children's or leaders' homes. Not a meeting has been missed this year. The average attendance has been 18.

The dues for the year amounted to $4.70.

A box of Confederate Seals has been sold for the Arlington Monument.

Two dollars was given to the Gettysburg Monument, and two dollars to the Shiloh Monument.

The Chapter assisted the mother Chapter celebrate Davis, Lee and Jackson birthday, also took part in the Memorial exercises and assisted in decorating the Confederate graves.

They attended the funeral and sent a beautiful design when the Angel of Death took away the commander of the Veteran's Camp—Captain Smith.

At each meeting the Chapter sings Confederate songs in chorus, holds a business session, recites the catechism, has a program on some historical subject, and closes with a social hour during which refreshments are served. The chief object of each meeting has been to learn true Confederate History. Some of our subjects have been "Stonewall Jackson," "Our Southern Flags," "Our Women During the War," "The Old South's Civilization," "Camp Life During the War." One of our most enjoyable meetings was Confederate Pictures which a member, Turner Finger, showed with his Mirroscope.

In January each member was supplied with a catechism—a lesson was assigned for each meeting. At the last meeting of the year a contest was held and almost every question in the book answered by eleven children.

On account of illness of the leader we did not accomplish all that we planned—we expected to do more for the veterans. This month we will give an entertainment the proceeds to go to them.

The Chapter is in splendid condition and we hope to have a better report in 1913.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. M. A. HASTINGS, Leader.

STARS AND BARS CHAPTER—NEWTON.

The Stars and Bars Children's Chapter, is in a very flourishing condition, and the children are very much interested in their work.

They contributed $5.00 to the Shiloh monument fund.

On all occasions they are ready and willing to obey any call on them made by the Daughters or veterans.

MRS. W. C. FEIMSTER, Leader.

J. D. MOORE CHAPTER—GASTONIA.

The J. D. Moore, Children's Chapter, comes this year with a heart brimming over with gladness and pride because its fondest hope, coupled with that of the Mother Chapter, is soon to be realized in the unveiling of a beautiful monument to honor Gaston County's brave and noble soldiers.

To the cost of this monument, this faithful band of zealous workers has donated $300—having, by hard work, made every cent of it with their own hands and with which they paid in full for the handsome statue of a private soldier that will grace the top of it.

After this contribution they found at their first meeting this fall, only a little nest-egg, $23.30, left in their treasury, and at once declared something must be done. So with energetic spirit and busy hands they went to work—the result being a Garden-Fete, selling delicious ices, punch, cake, and all kinds of home-made candies, all of which they made themselves and sold on the town's public square —made on this occasion into a veritable fairy-land amid a blaze of incandescent lights, flowers and artistically decorated tables, etc. From this they cleared $43, making a total of $66.30 now in their treasury.

The work of the Chapter this year will be to continue the study of General Robert E. Lee in both his home and war life. Also to read at each meeting a portion of the State and General "Minutes", so that the children may have a clearer knowledge of the work of the Organization.

Meetings are held monthly in the home of the different members. Roll call answered with historical couplets, and after all business is transacted, historical essays, readings, recitations and music constitute the latter part of their program—but immediately after adjournment no social function nor more delicious refreshments are ever enjoyed more than those prepared by each little hostess.

All Celebration Days are fittingly observed and the children assist the Daughters in any possible way. It is their hands that lay flowers on the graves of our sacred Dead on May the 10th.

Eight new members have joined our Ranks during the last month and all are busy preparing the work for another year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. THOMAS LEE CRAIG, Leader.

October 8th, 1912.

FRANK BENNETT CHAPTER—WADESBORO.

Wadesboro, N. C., October 8, 1912.

Greetings from the Frank Bennett Chapter, Children of the Confederacy.

We herewith report our year's work, which owing to unavoidable circumstances has not been as successful as we had hoped for, and our efforts seem indeed feeble when measured with our aspirations for this noble cause.

We have a membership of sixty members, with an average attendance of thirty at each monthly meeting, and we claim the best and most efficient officers that preside over any Chapter.

Lee and Jackson Day was celebrated with exercises at the Graded School Auditorium. Rev. Mr. Doyle addressed the children, and Jefferson Davis' birthday was appropriately remembered.

On May the 10th the Children marched to the cemetery and decorated each Soldier's grave with wreaths of ever-greens and garlands of flowers.

Our work in the main for the past year, has been the furnishing and fitting up of Memorial Hall. Through the kindness of Major Smith, the children had donated to them a room, and on April the 29th, a reception was given and the Chapter displayed to their guests a neat, comfortable room, well filled with relics and mementoes that would make a valuable collection for any museum. On this occasion we had the pleasure of having as our guest of honor, our beloved State President, Mrs. F. M. Williams, and her enthusiasm and hearty commendation of this work has been a great stimulus and encouragement to the Children. This year we have raised $32.00, of this amount $5.00 has been given to Arlington, $3.00 to Endowment Fund, $2.00 to Shiloh, $18.25 has been spent on the home work, and a balance of $3.64 remains in the treasury.

The Chapter has felt keenly the absence from several of its meetings, of their superior leader Mrs. Eugene Little, who through illness has been kept away, for her wonderful enthusiasm and sweet spirit bestirs in each member a desire to accomplish more for the cause which is so dear to her.

MRS. LESLIE J. HUNTLEY, Leader.

ANNIE K. KYLE CHAPTER—FAYETTEVILLE.

The Annie K. Kyle Chapter is pleased to report another year of successful work. After enjoying the rest and delights that a vacation gives, the first meeting of the Fall opened with new energy and satisfactory results.

The Chapter has grown strong the past year, both in members and good work. The monthly Saturday morning meetings have been well attended and are always interesting. A few vacancies have occurred by members moving away, yet new recruits come in to take these places, and the Secretary's roll shows that we are steadily gaining. Our bank book also shows that we have a fund on hand to answer any call of need. A box of clothing, toys and confections is sent to the children of some Veteran at Christmas time.

On the 10th of May the Chapter maintained its reputation by uniting with the Mother Chapter in the Veterans' Dinner exercises, cheering the hearts of the old soldiers with inspiring war songs. Afterwards had places of honor in the line of march to the Soldiers's cemetery, the "little Daughters" riding in automobiles—there to place a flower on the graves of those who wore the grey.

With hearts loyal and true, full of zeal for the cause we love and seek to perpetuate, this report is

Most respectfully submitted,
MISS KATE MATTHEWS, Leader.

W. G. QUACKENBUSH CHAPTER—LAURINBURG.

This Chapter can report a very good year. Several of the members have moved away—but I can report fifty live members all eager to work, 13 of these being new members. About twenty-five of them know the catechism though not all of them can give it word for word. About 20 of my members are too small to learn it, but I try to teach them the first of it. We have tried to establish Chapters in Maxton, Gibson and Rockingham. The latter place promises to organize as soon as a suitable leader can be found. We have no needy veterans so we have sent $10 to the Soldiers' Home, and $10 for a scholarship for some Confederate child. We also sent $15 to the Arlington Monument and have given $255.00 to our own monument. Our year's record is $355.30. I would like to say that in the three years of this little Chapter's existence they have made $611.90. They have sent out of that $25.00 to the Old Ladies Home, $35 to Arlington, $25.00 to Chapel Hill, bought pictures of Davis, Lee and Jackson for our graded school, and give $555.30 to our own monument. They are now working up a play which will pay up the $48.00 still due on our monument.

Respectfuly submitted,
MRS. T. T. COVINGTON, Leader.

Since writing the above we find a mistake was made in amount in bank, and it was found that we had enough to finish paying for our monument and $32.00 to our credit.

ROCKY MOUNT JUNIORS—ROCKY MOUNT.

The Children's Chapter of the Bethel Heroes greet you with love and best wishes.

Our meetings are well attended, held regularly the last Saturday in each month with different members. We have 34 enrolled.

We take part in all public exercises of our mother Chapter. The children are very enthusiastic over helping to build a Confederate Memorial Hospital in our town. We gave $25.00 to help mark the graves of our beloved veterans. Have $26.50 in bank. My disappointment at not being able to attend this Convention is intense.

Very respectfully,

MRS. ROBERT C. BURTON, Leader.

P. S.—We are very much in need of a name. Please send us one.

THE ROCKINGHAM VOLUNTEERS—REIDSVILLE.

We have had a very successful year; have added seven new members, making an enrollment of 32 now. Have only failed to meet one time that was in August. We usually have very full attendance and an enthusiastic Chapter. We meet around at the homes of the children. Opening with prayer we have patriotic songs, recitations, music, historical sketches, a quiz on the catechism, &c., followed by refreshments by the hostess. But as a suggestion I believe we could create more enthusiasm and do more systematic, thorough work if we had special programs gotten out by the Convention, or some member or committee thereof, to be used each month.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. FLORENCE C. BROOKS, Leader.

MRS. R. G. GLADSTONE, Assistant.

LEE-JACKSON CHAPTER—DURHAM.

Regular meetings of the Lee-Jackson Chapter have been held during the past year. The meetings have been largely attended and very enthusiastic. The program is always planned by the leader and a program committee and then turned over to the President of the Chapter who always presides. The officers are allowed to remain in only one year, so many are given an opportunity to hold office. There are 26 members of the Lee-Jackson Chapter and two applications pending. The girls took a prominent part in the exercises held on Lee's Birthday and also in the 10th of May program. They were on hand to assist in the barbecue given to the veterans by the Julian S. Carr Chapter.

Their contributions this year have been $12.00 to the Monument fund for Durham and $2.75 towards the expenses for Memorial Day exercises and $18.00 for the Arlington Monument fund, making a total of $32.75. Their main object now is to work for a monument for Durham.

LUCILE PEARCE, President.

MABEL READE TUCK, Leader.

BONNIE BLUE FLAG CHAPTER—LENOIR.

The Bonnie Blue Flag Chapter has 40 members. Meetings held monthly and are well attended. On January 19th this Chapter presented to our Graded School a portrait of Stonewall Jackson. Memorial Day was observed by all the school children in our town, 800 in number; the procession was led by this Chapter. Two dollars was given to the Shiloh monument fund.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. L. GWYN, Leader.

MRS. WM. M. PARSLEY CHAPTER—MURFREESBORO.

In March we gave an entertainment, which was considered by many the best of its kind ever seen in town, our receipts were $12.00.

On the 10th of May Memorial Day was observed—the girls in white carrying garlands of flowers and the boys with Confederate flags marched through the principle streets and to all known Confederate graves leaving their tokens of love.

In June we joined the Norfleet-Harrell Chapter in celebrating Davis' birthday, and on Aug. 23rd we were very much in evidence at an ice cream supper given by the Norfleet-Harrell Chapter, assisting in the preparations and as waiters for the occasion. As usual on public occasions, we wore white dresses, and ribbons and tiny silk Confederate Flags.

Our Leader has written four letters to other Chapters asking them to organize Children's Chapters. We had eight names on our roll last year (our first), we now have 19.

We have made the following disbursements this year:

Soldiers' Home	$ 5.00
Chapel Hill	2.00
Home of Wives and Widows	2.00
Shiloh	1.00
Jackson monument in Richmond	2.30
Expenses for Entertainment	2.65
Total	$14.90

Amount in Treasury, 65 cents.

Thelma Nicholson, President.

Elra Worrell, Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

GERTRUDE E. LAWRENCE, Leader.

THOMASVILLE GRAYS CHAPTER—THOMASVILLE.

The Thomasville Grays Chapter was organized June 29, 1911, with 15 members. We now number 29. We meet once a month and at each meeting have a program. Our course of study has been the N. C. History. We observed Lee's birthday and assisted in the Memorial exercises May 10th.

Recently we presented the Baby Opera, which netted us quite a nice little sum for the monument to be erected in our town.

MRS. H. G. STRAYHORN, Leader.

JAMES A. WESTON CHAPTER—HICKORY.

My dear Mrs. Royster: Enclosed find report for Chapter:
Children's Chapter No. 1.
Name—James A. Weston.
Leader—Mrs. R. A. Grimes.
Number of members, 11.
Miss Fran L. Martin, President.
Miss Emma Bonner, Secretary.
I do not know if this is all right but I hope it will do.
Hope you will have a lovely time.

WINNIE DAVIS CHAPTER—KINSTON.

The Winnie Davis Children's Chapter of Kinston has 66 members enrolled but owing to the fact that the most of the boys have outgrown and dropped out of the Chapter and others have moved away there remains only about 30 active members.

We have given entertainments for raising money. As a result we have on hand a number of character costumes, wigs, buckles, &c., the property of the Chapter which will save some expense in the future. Before the 10th of May we invested in a number of flags and other decorations with which we decorated the court house and the wagons and motors on which the children rode, when the mother Chapter invited them to join with her in the commemoration of the Confederate dead on memorial day. The wagons or floats were a new feature and proved to be attractive. The Governor made the oration on the occasion.

At Christmas the children sold sealts for Arlington $1.20, to which they added $1.30 making a total of $2.50 for Arlington.

The sale of cards amounted to 60 cents to which they added $1.90 including the price of the cards for Shiloh and making a total of $2.50 for the Shiloh monument.

As the President and Leader were both very ill in August and September the sums were not sent to the treasurers but to the Convention by the Leader.

The Leader bought 20 pamphlets written by J. Ogden Murry, giving a short biography of Jefferson Davis. She started a circulating library in the Chapter. Each child that took a book promised to read it and pass it on till every member of the Chapter had read the book; then they promised to circulate it outside till the books have familiarized the people in Kinston with the life of the Confederacy's only President. I consider this work important.

A paper on the "Meaning of Dixie" was prepared for the Chapter by the Leader and afterward, at their request, it was published in the News & Observer and was appreciated enough to be copied by several other papers. Numerous letters have been received by the Leader congratulating her on the interpretation of Dixie. Other papers have been read in the Chapter during the year. Ten new members have been added to the roll.

Respectfully submitted,

LILLIE ARCHBELL, Leader.

DIXIE GRAYS CHAPTER—HICKORY.

As the Dixie Grays Chapter of the Confederacy was organized only three weeks ago, and only one meeting has been held, our report will be very brief.

We have a membership of 20 and a number of application blanks have been asked for, so we hope by our next monthly meeting to have thirty or more members. We have already started a Savings Bank account. The little members are very enthusiastic and are making great plans for the future.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CHARLES MENZIES, Leader.

MOUNT OLIVE CHAPTER—MOUNT OLIVE.

The Children's Chapter of Mount Olive has not had a successful year financially on account of their Leader not being able to meet with them very often. Their meetings however have been well attended and they seem very much interested in their work. The Chapter is now at work trying to assist the "Mother Chapter" in erecting a drinking fountain which we hope to erect at some time in the near future. Respectfully submitted,

KATE S. STEELE.

THOMAS GARRETT CHAPTER—WINDSOR.

The Thomas Garrett Children's Chapter begs to report that it has met with all the requirements, having also assisted the mother Chapter in its celebrations. The attendance at the monthly meetings varies, as is not unusual but in the main the children attend well and are interested. The membership numbers 27 and the treasury boasts of $27.15.

MINNIE T. BOND, Leader.

Windsor, N. C., Sept. 19, 1912.

STATESVILLE CHAPTER—STATESVILLE.

The Statesville Chapter of the Children of the Confederacy has 45 on roll; average attendance very small. On the tenth of May we have a full attendance of the children and they decorate the graves. They attended in a body the funeral of Adjutant General Leinster. Marched in the procession and were given reserved seats in the church. No effort to make money is made by the Chapter.

MRS. L. S. THOMAS, President.

ORREN RANDOLPH SMITH CHAPTER—HENDERSON.

The Orren Randolph Smith Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, Henderson, N. C., sends greetings.

As we are only a few months old our report is short, yet we are proud to say, that organized in July, we have already forty members. We have $10 in our treasury and have undertaken to place marble markers on all unmarked soldiers graves in the Confederate square in our cemetery.

We hold our meetings regularly once a month and have the following officers:

Susan Lamb, President.
Tempie Bass, Secretary.
William Waddill, Treasurer.

MRS. MAURICE O'NEIL, Leader.

October 9, 1912.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED.

Chapter Presidents are requested to note especially:

Chapter Presidents will remember that all taxes, both State and General, must be paid to the State Treasurer, before votes can be counted in Convention. State taxes are now 15 cents and General taxes 10 cents, making 25 cents to be sent for each member to State Treasurer. At same time send $1.00 from each Chapter to Sinking Fund. Money to be sent by P. O. money order only.

All members must be registered to vote them.

All Chapter Registrars must by September 15 of each year send a corrected list of members to State Registrar.

All money for any and all causes must be sent to Miss Margaret Etheredge, State Treasurer, not to chairman of committees, or private individuals.

All Chapters are required to give a U. D. C. engraved certificate to each member. Presidents are urged to attend to this.

All Chapter elections must be held at regular or called meetings in November. This is very important to get correct list in Minutes, both General and State.

Do not fail to notify Mrs. T. W. Thrash, President of the William Dorsey Pender Chapter, Tarboro, by September 15th, how many delegates will attend Convention.

All orders for U. D. C. Badges must in future be sent to Mrs. E. K. Overstreet, Sylvania, Ga. Printed permits to be used in ordering can be obtained from her or your State President.

All orders will be returned to the Chapter Presidents. No individual orders filled and no samples or cuts sent.

Prices: Without bar, $3.75 each; with bar, $4.50. No checks will be received, only money orders. Those wishing the badge registered should include ten cents for registry fee.

Where to Obtain Blanks.

Write Mrs. Marshall Williams, Faison, N. C., for Charter applications, Demits, Badge blanks and U. D. C. certificates.

Write Mrs. Thad W. Thrash, Tarboro, N. C., for U. D. C. Application blanks, Children's Application blanks, Chapter report blanks, Credential blanks and Children's certificates.

Write Mrs. W. M. Creasy, Wilmington, N. C., for all Cross of Honor papers.

Those desiring any information regarding Soldiers' Home write Miss Kate Denson, Raleigh, N. C.

Write to Mrs. Fannie Ransom Williams for Chapter Stationery and Confederate Catechisms.

Following suggestions made and carried. District Meeting will be held in the Spring.

It was decided at General Convention that the time for Bestowal of Crosses of Honor be extended indefinitely.

Aids to Registration.

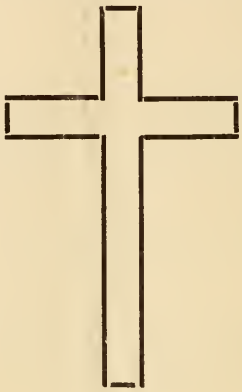
The seal of the County Clerk cannot be accepted in place of the Veteran endorsers of Company and Regiment.

Nor can the camp of an endorsing Veteran be accepted in place of the Veterans Company and Regiment.

Written demits can not be accepted; only printed demits will be accepted.

Great-nieces are no longer eligible.

Papers must be in the hands of the Registrar by September 15th, or the Registrar can not have time to attend to them.



In Memoriam

It is with deepest sorrow that we have lost from our midst General Robert F. Hoke, who represented all that was best in our Southern manhood.

General Hoke's life attained to that of the ideal. "Brave, honest, courteous—modest as a woman—none knew him but to love and admire."

He was one of whom it can be written, "without fear and without reproach." In his death, the State has lost one of her greatest sons, and the youth of our country, the perfect example of the dignified, courteous gentleman of the Old School.

When so filled out these shall be sent to the Recorder of said division, for approval or correction, and forwarded by her to the Custodian of Crosses, who will forward the Crosses to the Chapter, provided the rules have been complied with, and the decision of the Custodian shall be final.

The Recorders shall apply to the Custodian of Cross of Honor U. D. C., for the blank forms of certificates, and blank forms of alphabetical lists, supplying these, on demand, to the Chapters, accompanied by an order to the Custodian, signed by the President General and Recording Secretary General, U. If a second Cross is lost, a certificate may be given, in testimony that such veteran has been awarded a Cross.

Section 2. Chapter Presidents are urged to advise veterans to have their names engraved on the bar of Cross, for the purpose of identification if lost.

Section 3. A veteran having been awarded a Cross, and dying before it is received, the President of the Chapter bestowing it may give it to the oldest lineal descendant, or widow, under provisions of Rule 1, Section 2. A veteran having received a Cross, may bequeath it to any lineal descendant that he may select.

Section 4. On, and after November 1st, 1912, no more Crosses shall be issued.

RULE 6.

The Cross cannot be worn, in any case, or on any occasion, except by the Veteran upon whom it was bestowed—no descendant or widow can wear it.

RULE 7.

Section 1. Where counties have no local organization of U. D. C., a veteran may receive the Cross through the President of the nearest local Chapter, as the President of Chapter in the county from which he entered the Confederate service if so desired.

Any Chapter departing from these rules will not be entitled to Crosses for presentation.

Preceding the presentation of the Crosses, Rules V., VI., VII., VIII., and IX., shall be read upon every occasion of the bestowal.

The President of each Chapter shall see that the camps of Confederate Veterans and Sons of Confederate Veterans in her county shall receive a copy of these rules for continual reference.

Respectfully submitted,
LUCILE BROWNLEY COBB,
Chairman Credential Com. U. D. C.
Date October 8, 1913.

The President asked that a rising vote of thanks be given Mrs. Mercer for her song, which was heard here last night for the first time.

The President's report was read. Seconded and accepted.

ADDRESS OF MRS. MARSHALL WILLIAMS,

President of North Carolina Division, U. D. C.

Daughters of North Carolina, I greet you in this our seventeenth annual convention in a new capacity, standing at the helm of ship trying to guide into untried waters. The captain is powerless without his crew, therefore I ask your consideration, your helpfulness and your indulgence for mistakes. The head of each department has felt her responsibility and aided in making this a splendid report. We announce a large increase in membership and four new chapters. Trenton Chapter organized May 5th, Mrs. Lizzie Newell, president; Onslow Guards Chapter of Jacksonville, organized May 17th, Mrs. Murrill, president; The Ashley Horne Chapter of Clayton, re-organized July 17th, Mrs. Herbert McCullers, president; China Grove Chapter, organized September 22nd, Mrs. W. G. Swink, president. Our able State Director of Children's Chapters, Mrs. Gordon Finger of Charlotte, reports six new chapters and will give their names and leaders in her report. The Orran Randolph Smith Children's Chapter, Henderson, Mrs. G. A. Rose leader, raised a fund of $211.00 for the Veterans of the Henry L. Wyatt Camp to attend the reunion at Gettysburg. We are proud to record such substantial patriotism. Realizing the great trust you had placed in her hands and knowing there is wisdom in a multitude of council, your President invited the full membership of the Executive Board to be her guests in Faison, December 4th, to discuss the work and plan for the coming year.

Last November the Division received invitations for the convention of 1913 from Tarboro and Raleigh. The Executive Board appreciated highly both invitation. Tarboro's came first and we accepted that most gratefully.

We examined the bids for the minutes and placed the publication with Nash Bros of Goldsboro. Mrs. E. C. Chambers' suggestion to tabulate the reports helped to reduce the cost of minutes.

We discussed plans for grouping the Chapters for District meetings. Your President appointed sixteen directors to preside over these meetings and selected the date, April 26th, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. William Parsley of Wilmington, the founder of North Carolina U. D. C. work. During this convention the Directors will meet and discuss changes in the grouping of the chapters. Not knowing the railroad facilities we realize the grouping can be improved, I would suggest hereafter the Hostess Chapter select the date for the district meeting and that the ratio of attendance for the delegates be increased. These meetings have resulted in great good as both newspaper accounts and telegrams assured your President.

Your President has signed and sent out three hundred and seventy-six certificates, also sent demits and badge permits. Please remember each member is required to have a Certificate, 15 cents each.

Our educational work has progressed under the leadership of Mrs. Eugene Little. We now have fifteen scholarships, valued at fourteen hundred dollars. Now Daughters, we come to a serious problem, our educational fund; many reminders had to be sent the Chapters for the money due the Greensboro Normal College for the three girls we are educating there. This continual drain on the Chapters has forced your President to this solution, that we establish a Loan Educational Fund, designed to advance money to the sons and daughters of Veterans for securing vocational education.

Daughters, we have glorious news for you, the gift of a Woman's Confederate Home from our beloved State to be erected at Fayetteville, annual maintenance $5,000. We congratulate Mrs. Hunter G. Smith, the author of this movement. Her zeal and energy richly merited this reward. Too much praise cannot be given the Hon. T. T. Thorne of Rocky Mount for successfully introducing this bill.

The Division rejoices in the completion of the "Boy Soldiers" monument erected on the campus of the University, June 2nd. Your President assisted in the unveiling, this labor of love was begun five years ago by Mrs. James Keenan as chairman, and later continued by Mrs. Henry A. London. The monument is beautiful and points out daily two great lessons, patriotism and duty. The monument cost $7,500 and the Daughters were greatly aided by the Alumni of the University. Brevard owns a handsome Chapter House, setting an example worthy of emulation.

The Chapters of Gastonia and Winton have erected monuments. The Burgaw monument is ready for erection. The Mount Olive Chapter has given an order for a handsome Memorial Drinking Fountain. Now that the monument at Chapel Hill is nearly finished, let us put our energy on the erection of the monument at Gettysburg, which will tell the story of North Carolina's glory.

Last year we presented to Captain O. R. Smith a Confederate watch charm. A committee was appointed to collect funds for the payment of same. Mrs. Morris O'Neil of Henderson reported $8.00. The balance was paid by the Division. This token of esteem reached this gallant, Confederate soldier shortly before his death.

Last year Mrs. Archbell, editor of the Carolina and Southern Cross, asked and received the endorsement of your Division. She has given a most excellent monthly magazine full of historical research, and this publication can be of great service to our cause. The Chapters can report their work through this medium much to the advantage of each other. Unless this publication receives your financial support Mrs. Archbell says it will have to be discontinued.

Our contributions to Arlington and Shiloh monuments speak well for our State Directors, Mrs. I. W. Faison of Charlotte and Mrs. F. M. Williams of Newton. These ladies have brought signal honors to their State. Mrs. I. W. Faison was elected third Vice-President General of the U. D. C. in Washington. As many of you know Mrs. F. M. Williams has the great honor of being chairman of the Revision of the General Constitution. Again was North Carolina complimented by the appointment of Miss Jessica Smith on the Transportation Committee by the President General. The President General has complimented our Recording Secretary, Mrs. T. W. Thrash, on her Roster report, saying it was the best from all the States.

The Weldon Chapter has come into possession of an historical cemetery where a hundred and fifty Confederate soldiers lie in unmarked graves and would like aid from the Division in the care of this sacred spot.

Your President has received many invitations to visit Chapters, was also invited by Mrs. Cotton to the Federation of Women's Clubs in New Bern, where she extended greetings from the Division. Your President was invited by Miss Easdale Shaw to address the King's Circle which met in Wilmington. Your President made two visits to the Soldier's Home and tried to speak words of cheer. While in Raleigh was the guest of Mrs. William J. Andrews, who tendered a reception to your President to meet the Johnson-Pettigrew Chapter. Mrs. W. J. Andrews of Raleigh, N. C., and her sister, Mrs. W. P. Trimble, of Seattle, Washington State, have given three thousand dollars to the Solid South Room Confederate Museum, Richmond; $1,000 to place a tablet to the memory of their mother, Mrs. Francis Ford, of Kentucky; $2,000 goes to the Endowment Fund for this room. We are proud this gift is shared by an adopted daughter of North Carolina, whose broad philanthrophy is well known in the State. Your President has attended four meetings of the Directors of the Confederate Women's home, and was at the first meeting in Rocky Mount.

During the year your President has visited the following Chapters: Wilmington, Goldsboro, Kinston, Raleigh, Dunn, and Clinton, on each occasion was the recipient of many courtesies.

Now Daughters, your President feels that her report has been long and there are some subjects not touched on for want of time and space. However, she cannot close without expressing her appreciation of the valuable work done this year by our Historian, Miss Carrie Leazar.

Allow me to thank you collectively and individually for your able assistance, and for your patience.

MRS. MARSHALL WILLIAMS,
President N. C. Division.

Motion made by Mrs. H. A. London that letters expressing regret of absence be sent Mrs. William Parsley, Mrs. Stonewall Jackson and Miss Hettie James.

Recording Secretary's report read and accepted.

THE REPORT OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY N. C. DIVISION U. D. C. TARBORO CONVENTION.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

It is with pleasure and pride that I bring to you the fourth report as your Recording Secretary.

The year has been encouragingly busy and I am happy to report three new Chapters—Onslow Guards Chapter, Jacksonville Onslow Guards Chapter, Ashley Horne Chapter, Selma, and Trenton Chapter, Trenton.

New Children's Chapters—Halifax Light Infantry, Halifax; Chas. R. Fisher, Salisbury; Manley's Battery, Raleigh; Augustus Burtin; John M. Fleming, Marion; Josephine Lane, Hendersonville.

1,180 Application blanks have been mailed and over 1,200 children's blanks. Also all membership certificates for children on hand. Each year brings more interest in the Children's Chapters, which is most gratifying. Over six hundred letters and 370 postals have been written. Again I wish to thank you for the confidence you have placed in me and to assure you, dear Daughters, of my highest appreciation of the same.

Respectfully submitted,

JACKSIE DANIEL THRASH.

Corresponding Secretary's report read and accepted.

Dead Chapters	5
	91

Madame President and Daughters:—

For the third time I come to report my work of the year past: 343 applications registered; 16 demits, 4 of these coming to us from other Divisions.

I have written 227 letters and 29 postal cards. According to my books, we have now a membership numbering 4644 in this Division, but I am far from sure that this is accurate.

I have succeeded in bringing "order out of chaos" with some of the Chapters, and their rosters now agree perfectly with the State books.

But alas! these are not many. Some chapters have begun the good work, but not completed it, while many have made no effort at all to straighten out their records.

Out of our large number of Chapters only about 15 have sent in any lists this fall, and not more than six have sent in any list of their dead, transferred, married or withdrawn. Can you not understand that a Registrar cannot possibly keep accurate records unless the Chapter officials send in their statements at least once a year?

I trust that they may awake to the importance of this and pay more attention to it, there by making lighter the task of my successor.

I hope that she may find as much pleasure in the work as I have done.

Respectfully submitted,
ANNIE R. JONES DAVIS.

Recorder of Crosses report read and accepted.

REPORT OF RECORDER OF CROSSES OF HONOR.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

During the year I have awarded 451 crosses. Of this number, 12 were to widows and 63 to descendants. Eighteen crosses were refused, four because applicants service was civil and not military or naval; the other fourteen were made by nieces, nephews, or sisters, none of whom are eligible.

I have on hand about 50 applications that came in too late for bestowal August 23rd; these will be sent off for January 19th, 1914. If the Chapters officers would just remember that the Recorder has to get the applications to the Custodian three weeks before the day of presentation, a great deal of disappointment would be prevented by having Mrs. Raines refuse to fill late orders. Her work is so great she has to adhere to the rules. I have found Mrs. Raines considerate but strictly business, and we in turn must be likewise.

The expense of the office could have been halved if rules had been followed. Mrs. Raines refuses stamps for over one cross; this year I had twelve orders in which stamps were sent for a large number of crosses. I had to go to the postoffice and get money orders before I could forward the application. Twelve were to be sent payable to me, these had to be cashed and new orders made out to Mrs. Raines; six inclosed the stamp money for forwarding, with Mrs. Raines' order and I had to furnish the stamps. Many made no allowance for forwarding, and several sent application blanks but nothing else. All these things increased the expenses of the office three fold.

Interest in the work has continued. Forty-three Chapters have presented crosses; and 70 orders were sent off. While the number of crosses presented is only one-third of last year, we can all see what a calamity it wiuld have been if no crosses were given this year. When the New Orleans convention meets and the constitution is revised we should strive to see that the books are not closed so long as there is one veteran who desires a cross.

Below is a tabulated list of crosses presented:

Historian's report read and accepted. Motion made to give Miss Leazar a rising vote of thanks for her good work.

REPORT OF MISS CARRY A. LEAZAR, STATE HISTORIAN.

Madam President and Daughters of the North Carolina Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy:

I have the honor and the pleasure to report herewith the historical work of this Division for the year 1912-1913.

Your Historian was delayed in taking up the responsibility laid upon her by a protracted illness and began work after the lapse of several months. Many forms of historical work presented themselves. After careful consideration I deemed it wise to concentrate the energies of this Division upon that which was and is most imperative. In the letter written to every Chapter, the many written to some Chapters, in the several visits and talks made, our winged opportunity and our now well-nigh supreme duty as an order was stressed. We must secure the living word of survivors of the Confederacy, and this, the living word, has been the call of your historian through the year, and it has been made, in so far as in her lay, insistent; and systematic. If it has been in some degree mandatory in its definite and specific requests, my fellow-workers will pardon the hard-bearer. The results are as follows:

Typewritten papers	61 pp.	$2.38
Manuscripts	162 pp.	7.35
Printed matter	14 pp.	3.61
Clippings	35
Photographs	2
Paintings	4
	278	$13.34

The design of the Stars and Bars by a North Carolinian, Orrin Randolph Smith of Warren county, is established. This work was committed by your Historian to Mrs. Fannie Ransom Williams and has been thoroughly done. That the last full meeting of the Confederate cabinet was held in Charlotte has also been made clear through the work of Mrs. J. A. Fore, historian of Stonewall Jackson Chapter.

Far short of what it should be, the volume of the year's work is unprecedented and it is with cheer of the———————— and most cordial thanks to fellow workers that I report contributions to the priceless treasure it is ours to store for all time:

J. E. B. Stuart Chapter, Contributions 5
Roanoke Minute Men Chapter, Contributions.....16

A. M. Waddell Chapter, Contributions 2
Cleveland Guards Chapter, Contributions 5
Wilkes Valley Guards Chapter, Contributions 10
Thomas Ruffin Chapter, Contribution 1
Ransom-Sherrill Chapter, Contributions 24
Transylvania Chapter, Contributions 11
Pamlico Chapter, Contribution 1
Jos. J. Davis Chapter, Contribution 1
Henry L. Wyatt Chapter, Contribution 1
Anson Chapter, Contributions 14
Cape Fear Chapter, Contributions 2
Gastonia Chapter, Contributions 96
Monroe Chapter, Contribution 1
Vance County Chapter, Contributions 7
King's Mountain Chapter, Contributions 3
New Bern Chapter, Contribution 1
Margaret Davis Hayes Chapter, Contribution 1
Johnston-Pettigrew Chapter, Contributions 5
Warren County Chapter, Contributions 1
Scotland Neck Chapter, Contributions 2
Jas. B. Gordon Chapter, Contribution 1
Asheville Chapter, Contributions 11
Chicora Chapter, Contributions 3
Guilford Chapter, Contributions 2
R. F. Hoke Chapter, Contributions 3
Battle of Bentonville Chapter, Contributions 23

Mrs. D. Burkheimer, Mrs. Alfred Nixon, Mrs. A. C. Ray and Mrs. Fannie R. S. Williams and Mrs. L. V. Archbell made most valuable individual contributions. A notable gift has been the file of Carolina and the Southern Cross by Mrs. Archbell. The historian is constrained to say that her great but well-nigh single-handed work does the Division of which she is a member great honor. Let us make this magazine more truly ours for North Carolina's sake.

I have made some investigation as to text-books; have endorsed, numbered and catalogued our collection of 1912-1913 and filed it in the fire-proof archives of the Historical Commission of the State of North Carolina; and have made report of the work of the year to the Historian General .

Respectfully submitted,

CARRY A. LEAZAR, Historian.

REPORT ON MEMORIAL GATE TO CONFEDERATE CEMETERY.

Raleigh, N. C., October 7, 1913.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy of North Carolina:

As all the older members of this organization are well aware of the steps taken to erect a suitable Memorial Arch or Memorial Gateway to the Confederate Cemetery in Raleigh, it would seem superfluous to repeat from year to year the oft told story, but there being many new additions to the membership it is due them and to the object we have in view to re-iterate a general outline of the progress made since 1904. (See minutes 1904, page 54.)

In the year 1904 a resolution was passed to erect a stone gateway at the Soldiers' Home in Raleigh, etc.

A committee was appointed to formulate plans towards erecting a Memorial Gate or Arch. It was found on investigation that it would not be feasible to erect a gateway at the Soldiers' Home as that property would eventually pass from the present ownership and our Memorial Gate would cease to have any significance. In view of this the Chairman made a suggestion at the meeting of 1905 to place such memorial at the entrance to the Confederate Cemetery in Raleigh in which lie the remains of our one thousand soldiers, representing every State of the Southern Confederacy.

It was moved that and passed that the Chapters raise twenty dollars each for the purpose. The committee was to submit plans for consideration at the next meeting. In 1905 and 1906 the treasurer reported $200, as having been received. The Chapters were responding quite as favorably as one could expect, considering the many other objects needing their aid and attention.

In 1907, the treasurer reported $816 as received up to November 1908. Since that time the fund has grown very slowly—many Chapters no doubt supposed that a sufficiency had been raised since the President in her report in 1908, failed to emphasize the Memorial Arch as a State work and one of prime importance, but your Chairman did consider it quite as important as Shiloh, Arlington and the Wirz Monuments. (Minutes 1908, page 15-16.)

At the annual meeting 1910 at Rocky Mount the Treasurer reported that the amount then in the Treasury was about $900.00, and was bearing interest. At the next annual meeting at Winston-Salem in 1911, the Treasurer reported $1,048.77.

The present Treasurer, Miss Etheredge, writes me that she has $1,121.78 in the Savings Bank and that she has received $18.00 from Murfreesboro. The above increase is due to a great extent to the care of our efficient Treasurer, who has invested the funds wisely.

Madam President you will recall the action taken by the Chairman of the Memorial Arch Committee at the annual meeting of 1912—in appointing several sub-committees to aid in the collection of the amount which the convention had stipulated that each convention might give. By reference to the minutes I found that about 45 Chapters had paid in the quoto of $20.00 each—leaving about 43 Chapters to be heard from. The following ladies were requested to act for the Chairman on the sub-committee:

Mrs. M. O. Winstead, Rocky Mount; Mrs. Wm. Bryan, New Bern; Miss Margaret Etheredge, Selma; Mrs. O. M. Royster, Hickory; Mrs. T. J. Woolridge, Asheville; Mrs. B. N. Mann, Durham.

A list of the 43 Chapters yet to be heard from was made out and divided between the six ladies of the sub-committee, with the request that they aid the Chairman in securing the quoto due so far as possible, and we hope that we will hear a favorable report at this meeting.

Your Chairman is now cheered with a new hope, in the form of a larger bequest from the Oakwood Cemetery Association. At an informal meeting on September 30, your Chairman proposed that they duplicate every dollar raised by the N. C. U. D. C. The proposition could not be acted on until the regular meeting, but we have every reason to believe that it will meet with favorable response.

Approved and accepted.

Motion that small Chapters that are unable to raise funds can secure aid from the County.

Seconded and carried.

Motion made by Mrs. M. O. Winstead.

"That the N. C. Division of the U. D. C. have the President, Mrs. Marshall Williams, paint the portrait of Col. Ashley Horne to be placed in the Hall of History.

Motion seconded and carried.

Report of the Educational Committee read and accepted.

REPORT OF EDUCATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Madam President and Ladies of this Convention:

Our Educational work has done fairly well since last report, though a number of Chapters failed to contribute to this most worthy cause and our Treasurer has had to borrow from other funds to make final payments to Dr. Foust. Our committee divided up the Chapters and wrote to all and I do trust that the coming year each and every Chapter will remember this important work and give early and liberally. We have now 15 scholarships, one having been most kindly given by King's Business College, Charlotte or Raleigh, the full stenographic or business course to a lady; 50 per cent. of same to a man. I have a young lady applicant, who, I hope will soon go to Charlotte. Our tuition scholarship at Oxford, and one for Music at Davenport are still unused, though I made diligent efforts to fill them. The Presidents of State University and A. & M. report out scholarship there as worthily filled, and our girls at the State Normal are a credit to any school. Our 15 scholarships are worth in money $1,350.00, in other ways there is no reckoning the good they are doing.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. EUGENE LITTLE.

Mrs. Eugene Little asked that each Chapter make the annual pledge for the Educational Fund.

Meeting adjourned till 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

Mrs. Gordon Finger, Director of the Children's Chapter, held an interesting meeting at 4 o'clock.

Second Day—Morning Session.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M., a little time was given to Memorial Services, the Chapters paying tribute to those "Gone Before." It was most impressive.

Chairman on Suggestions and Amendments report read and accepted.

SUGGESTIONS FOR COMMITTEE.

1. After careful consideration from every point of view, the committee decides to have the educational fund as it is for the present. We, however, recommend that the President appoint a committee to consider the subject of establishing a loan fund to report to the next convention.

CARRIED.

2. Last year the Division ordered printed an account of the organization of the Division and the minutes of the first and second conventions. Mrs. F. M. Williams has printed these minutes, price 25 cents per copy. The cost to the Division is $25.00. We hope the Daughters will purchase these minutes and relieve the Division of the debt. I would suggest that a committee be appointed to sell these minutes and turn the funds over to the State Treasurer.

APPROVED.

3. That special resolutions of appreciation be sent to the Hon. T. T. Thorn of Rocky Mount, the Hon. A. D. McGill of Fayetteville, and the Hon. L. B. Davis of Beaufort for their untiring zeal in bringing about the erection of the Confederate Woman's Home. That a committee be appointed to draw up said resolutions.

APPROVED.

4. That special resolutions of thanks be sent to the Hon.

Ashley Horne of Clayton, Colonel James A. Bryan of New Bern, Captain White of Oxford, Hon. Haywood Parker of Asheville, and Hon. J. A. Turner of Louisburg, Mr. Watkins, Concord, Dr. Dahmson, Winston-Salem, for the time and thought they have spent on the selection of the site for the Confederate Woman's Home and for the beautiful design they selected. That a committee be appointed to draw up these resolutions of thanks.

APPROVED.

5. Resolution of sympathy to our beloved Chaplain, Miss Hettie James.

We desire to send a telegram to Miss Hettie James at once.

And letters to Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Parsley and Mrs. Cawthorn and Mrs. Martin Willard.

Motion made by Mrs. Shannon

"That a telegram of love and sympathy be sent to Mrs. Hunter Smith."

Seconded and carried.

Report of Mrs. F. M. Williams, Chairman Minutes Committee of the First and Second Conventions, was turned over to Mrs. Griffin, Chairman of the Distributing Committee.

REPORT OF MINUTES COMMITTEE.

Madam President:

I beg leave to report that according to the instructions of the Salisbury Convention early in April, I wrote to every Chapter asking that I be notified by July first how many copies of the minutes of the First and Second Conventions would be wanted. When the date specified arrived I had only three orders in my hands. The first was from Mrs. Wm. H. Overman of Salisbury, the other two from the Hillsboro and Hendersonville Chapters.

I found the printers willing to give us 125 copies just as cheaply as fifty copies so I had that number printed at a cost of $28. By the time the work was finished I had received money amounting to $3.00 from the following parties:

Geo. B. Anderson Chapter, 1 copy	$ .25
Pamlico Chapter, 1 copy	.25
Stonewall Jackson Chapter, 4 copies	1.00
Halifax Chapter, 2 copies	.50
Bethel Heroes, 3 copies	.75
King's Mountain Chapter, 1 copy	.25
A total of	$3.00

These names do not appear on the Treasurer's books because this amount was deducted from the bill sent in to her.

Later the following Chapters have secured copies and the money has been sent Miss Etheredge:

Margaret Davis Hayes Chapter, 1 copy	$ .25
Frank M. Parker Chapter, 1 copy	.25
High Point Chapter, 5 copies	1.25
Chicora Chapter, 1 copy	.25
A. M. Waddell Chapter, 2 copies	.50
Mrs. Overman, 1 copy	.25

Copies of all the minutes from the organization through the Salisbury Convention have been bound in three volumes at a cost of $1.50 per volume, and I would suggest that they be filed with all other U. D. C. historical papers, with the Division Historian, so as to be preserved in tact. Also that a clause be inserted in our constitution requiring that hereafter every four years the minutes of our State Conventions be bound and placed with those I now turn over to you.

Hoping I have attended to this work to your satisfaction.

Respectfully submitted,

FANNIE RANSOM WILLIAMS.

Mrs. Archbell, of Kinston, Editor of the "Carolina and Southern Cross," read an interesting paper, showing the necessity of using this magazine, especially in the schools. Mrs. Winstead read the resolutions drawn up by Mrs. Archbell.

Motion to appoint a Managing Committee of three to keep up this magazine, seconded and carried.

Adjourned until 2 o'clock, P. M.

Report on Chapel Hill Monument Committee read by Mrs. H. A. London, chairman. Approved and accepted.

REPORT OF CHAPEL HILL MONUMENT COMMITTEE.

The Chapel Hill Monument was unveiled during the last commencement at the University. It is very beautiful. It is not only in memory of the boys who left the University from 1861 to 1865, but also those who attended the University and afterwards became Confederate soldiers.

Tablets have been erected in Memorial Hall in memory of those who lost their lives, and all who enlisted are surely worthy of a monument.

Dr. Venable and others have worked unceasingly for it and now it stands there for all time and it will be an object lesson to all future generations—and will impress upon the present day students their obligation to respond to the call of duty.

There were more than 1,000 Uuniversity men in the struggle between the States. In the words of our immortal leader, "duty is the sublimest word in the English language."

MRS. H. A. LONDON.

Motion was made to call roll of Chapters to give for this fund. Only $500 is needed.

Motion seconded and carried.

Motion by Mrs. L. D. Heartt

"That North Carolina endorse Mrs. F. M. Williams, Recording Secretary General."

Motion seconded and carried. Mrs. Williams was endorsed.

Report on Woman's Confederate Home. Approved and accepted.

REPORT OF CONFEDERATE WOMAN'S HOME.

Madam President and Daughters:

It is with deepest regret that I am unable to meet with you and read my report, for I feel I have so much to say to you that I cannot write; but Providence has prevented me and I am in the hospital, but my heart and thoughts are with you.

I send you glad tidings of great joy that our four years' of labor has been crowned with success and in the near future, our fond hope will be realized in the erection at Fayetteville, of a Confederate Women's Home; a building that will stand for all ages as a comfort to the homeless. I wish I could thank each Daughter personally, who has responded so cheerfully and worked so faithfully for the erection of this Home and I feel this living monument to alleviate the sufferings, and provide comfort for those that remain of the followers of Lee and Jackson, will tower high in Glory to the credit of the women of North Carolina, and the General Assembly of 1913 that made this Home possible.

"Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of them, ye did it unto me."

I recommend that this body of women give a rising vote of thanks to the General Assembly of 1913 for the appropriation of $10,000 for the erection of a Women's Confederate Home, and $5,000 a year for the maintenance and that a telegram be sent the General Assembly, now in session in Raleigh.

I urge that each Chapter send to our State Treasurer, as soon as possible, their pledge for the furnishing of this Home, so that there may be no delay in completing same and getting it ready for occupancy, as we already have a number of pathetic letters for admittance. I ask all Chapters, having those who wish admittance to the Confederate Home, to send in their names, so that they can be duly recorded. It is also greatly desired that all Chapters wishing to furnish a room, to be known as their Chapter Room, please send in their names at once.

I wish I could be present to eulogize the men of the former Board and present Board, that have worked so untiringly in our behalf, and which I shall refer to later.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. HUNTER G. SMITH,

Chairman for Confederate Women's Home.

Motion, Mrs. London

"I move that each Chapter of this Division do obligate itself to take the 'Carolina, the Southern Cross,' to pass around among its members, and to read at Chapter meetings."

Seconded and carried.

Report of Portrait Committee, read and approved.

REPORT OF PORTRAIT COMMITTEE.

I could make a better report of good intentions than what has really been accomplished. I have written every Chapter in the State and received reports from twenty-seven. Stonewall Jackson Chapter, Charlotte, presented the Thompson Orphanage with a portrait of Gen. Stonewall Jackson and unveiled same with appropriate exercises. Miss Winnifred presented through the Faison-Hicks Chapter a handsome picture of Lee and his Generals to the school. I would like also to mention that Mrs. Battle of Rocky Mount presented the Frank M. Parker Chapter, Enfield, with a picture of her father, Col. Frank M. Parker. The Gastonia Chapter gave a portrait of Governor Vance to the graded school. A good many Chapters have made efforts to place portraits but find after contributing to monuments and other work their treasury is so depleted they cannot buy pictures.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. F. L. HUGGINS,
Chairman Portrait Committee.

Motion to adjourn Friday morning, seconded and carried.

Third Day—Morning Session.

The Convention was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Griffin, of Goldsboro

Motion, Mrs. F. M. Williams

Invitations for the Annual Convention were tendered from Wilson and Raleigh. Raleigh was accepted by ballot. The President regretting that the Convention could not meet twice a year, so Wilson's invitation could be accepted, appointed a committee of three to write a note of thanks.

Motion, Miss Etheredge.

"That Mrs. John Thorpe, of Rocky Mount, be made Honorary Vice-President of the Division."

Motion seconded and carried.

Motion, Miss Dixie Leach

Report of Arlington Monument Committee read by Mrs. I. W. Faison, State Director. Approved and accepted.

REPORT OF N. C. DIVISION ARLINGTON MONUMENT ASSOCIATION FROM NOV. 1912 TO NOV. 1913.

I am sorry to say North Carolina's contribution to the Arlington Monument Association is smaller than it ever has been. Owing to sickness and other drawbacks I could not work as much as I desired. I have only collected $47.60, the smallest amount ever given for one year from North Carolina. The Chapters have tired of the work and it is impossible to arouse them.

We have sold $750.00 worth of the Seals, the first ones bought, and the Chapters will not order any more. No Seals ordered the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

(MRS. I. W. F.) SALLIE YATES FAISON,

N. C. Director for Arlington Monu. Ass.

The last year Book of Confederate Literary Society reports $1,808.32 having been raised; balance; in Treasury, $86.00 total, $1,894.32; balance to be raised on fund, $105.68.

Last summer our Vice Regent and her committee raised $150.00. The room had to be calcimined, pictures all taken down, much of the old plaster had to be removed and replaced with new, the room had to be painted, covers for radiators had to be bought to protect pictures, new name plates had to be bought for pictures, and some new frames. All this cost about $120.00. A new case for this is needed. If we can secure life members, the $10.00 from each member goes to Endowment Fund. We want relics, manuscripts, and rosters with names of the different companies. These are some of the needs of the Room. I have written sixty-two cards and twenty letters.

Report Shiloh Monument Fund read by Mr. F. M. Williams. Approved and accepted.

REPORT OF SHILOH MONUMENT.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

The report of the Shiloh Monument Fund up to date is not such as we would like to see our great State send to the General Convention, for the amount collected during the year is only $100.52.

Our able Director General has, however, laid before you a most excellent plan for increasing this fund, and I hope there will not be a Chapter in the State that will decline to handle the Rhyte Me Calendars, and thus hurry to its finish this great work, second only to the monument at Arlington. Let us be up and doing for it must never be said that North Carolina has failed to do her full duty.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of Children's Chapter, read by Mrs. Gordon Finger. Approved and accepted.

REPORT OF CHILDREN'S CHAPTER.

Madam President:

It is a joy to report even a strenuous year's work when the results are encouraging and seem to justify the energy extended. This is the best year in the Children's Department since the work was begun. We have seven new Chapters to report as fully organized and a number more as assured of early formation. The following is roll:

Chas. R. Fisher, Salisbury, Mrs. Pinckney A. Poston; Halifax Light Infantry, Halifax, Miss Nannie M. Gary leader; Manly's Battery, Raleigh, Miss Martha Haywood, leader; Augustus Burtin, Shelby, Mrs. S. S. Royster; John M. Flemming, Marion, Mrs. J. L. C. Bird; Josephine Lane, Hendersonville

The conference on children's work was again held with helpful results, when the following suggestions of the director for future work were approved for recommendation to the convention:

1. That the children have their own official page in "Carolina and the Southern Cross."

2. That all the Chapters combine to make a loan collection of home-made articles and relics with the stories of how the household articles, such as silk, linen, etc., was made, dyed and manufactured or the history of a relic. These to be loaned by the Director to requesting Chapters to stimulate interest and inform the children.

3. That a printed pamphlet or sheet be gotten up to be mailed to those desiring information for organization purposes or as help to inexperienced leaders and in reply to requests for such material from our sister States who feel we are further advanced in the work than they. Recently South Carolina, Alabama, and Tennesseee have highly complimented our methods and asked for our aid in this manner.

The committee on Banner award was composed of your chairman, Miss Neill Patterson, of Mooresville, and Mrs. Ceph Blanton of Shelby, and made the award to the Orrin Randolph Smith Chapter of Henedrson, the Hon. Geo. Davis Chapter of Wilmington certainly deserves honorable mention.

During the year we have visited the Salisbury, Charlotte, and Lincolnton Chapters, the last mentioned chapter arranging a beautiful program for our visit; also the Salisbury Chapter arranged a lovely meeting.

We feel that the first year of the Directorship has been a help to the children's cause.

MRS. GORDON FINGER, Director.

CAPE FEAR CHAPTER, No. 3—WILMINGTON.

We have a Veteran's Relief Committee which visits the sick, and as far as possible, gives aid to the needy. It is the custom of the Chapter to give a dinner to the Veterans each year on the 19th of January. This Chapter has placed stone markers at the graves of all Veterans who have died during the year. We have contributed to the Mrs. Trader Fund, sent flowers to Camp Chase, and have contributed to Pender County Monument, Shiloh and Guilford Monuments, also to Bethel Heroes, and Maj. Smith's Badge.

PAMLICO CHAPTER, No. 43—WASHINGTON.

We have had nine new members. We have contributed to the Trader Fund, Jeff Davis Home Fund, and the Maj. Smith Pin Fund. Subscribed to Carolina and Southern Cross. Furnished local data for two issues of this valuable organ, financed by the liberal aid of citizens, tho suffering from the recent disastrous storm, thirteen subscriptions sent in.

We observed Lee and Jackson Day and had with us Hon. R. R. Williams, Representative of Buncombe County. Shiloh Day was fittingly observed. Contributions given to Shiloh Fund. Sent historical papers to Miss Leazar.

May 10th was beautifully observed, having as our speaker Hon. T. W. Bickett. A bountiful dinner was served to about 300 Veterans—a red letter day to them. Gave a prize for best essay on local Confederate history, this prize "The Life of Robert E. Lee." Twenty Crosses of Honor awarded. We presented a beautiful U. D. C. pin to our President, Miss Lena Windley, in appreciation for valuable work done. Our special work for the year is to place markers at the graves of more than one hundred Veterans. We have this as a separate fund, drawing interest.

JOHNSTON PETTIGREW CHAPTER, No. 95—RALEIGH.

On June 3 we had a most delightful afternoon on the lawn of the Soldiers' Home. A fine address by Mr. Henry Blount, which all greatly enjoyed. We had music, presented Crosses, and served liberally cake and cream, handed by the Children's Chapter.

MRS. LEO D. HEARTT, President.

ASHEVILLE CHAPTER, No. 104—ASHEVILLE.

Monthly meetings have been well attended. Had the most enthusiastic celebration, on Memorial Day, we have ever had. Served luncheon to the Veterans on January 19th, and May 10th. Sent ten historical papers to Miss Leazar. There were fifteen contestants for our Vance Essay Medal, and it was won by the son of our Registrar. The subject of the essay was "Reconstruction in the South." We have contributed to the Home for Confederate Widows, the Soldiers' Home, Arlington Monument, State Normal, Stonewall Jackson Scholarship, N. C. room in Richmond, and have one hundred dollars in bank for our monument fund. We hope to erect a monument to our heroes in the near future.

BERTHA K. BASSETT, Recording Secretary.

VANCE COUNTY CHAPTER, No. 142—HENDERSON.

The Vance County Chapter, U. D. C., sends loving greetings to the President and State Convention assembled at Tarboro. Although handicapped by bereavements in the families of President, First and Third Vice-Presidents, the Chapter has done good work. Each Daughter has done her part in making the year profitable and successful. Beautiful services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church January 19th, the people of Henderson entered into the spirit of the occasion in celebrating the birthday of their beloved chieftain. Hon. R. H. Ruffin of Louisburg, delivered the interesting and highly appreciated address. Memorial Day was observed appropriately in the court house, although quietly on account of three of the Chapter officers being in the shadow of a deep sorrow. A delightful programme was rendered, music, etc. Rev. Mr. White of Henderson delivered an eloquent address, after which the Daughters served dinner to the Veterans and their friends. Two Crosses of Honor were bestowed during the year. Through the efforts of the Chapter one Confederate soldier was placed in the Home at Raleigh. Our Daughters stand ever ready to lessen the pains of a sick Veteran, many visits are made, and all possible is done to brighten their short lives. The Daughters meet as often as they can with the Veterans at their meetings each month, and attend the services that are held especially for them in the various churches every few months. Memorial services were held by the Camp and Daughters in December in honor of the Veterans who had passed to the great majority during the year. Flowers are always sent to the funerals of Veterans, and notes of sympathy sent to the families. Ten dollars was given by Chapter to Veterans to aid in expenses to Gettysburg. Our next real work will be the placing of headstones over the graves of the unmarked Confederate dead in our cemetery. We are very proud of our Children's Chapter, named for one of our Camp members, Orrin Randolph Smith, the designer of the Stars and Bars. Just here this Chapter wishes to express their thanks and appreciation to the Daughters of our State who honored Mr. Smith on January 19th by the gift of a handsome watch-fob. We regretted that the President could not present it in person. Mr. Smith was very feeble at the time, and has since passed away, but his memory shall live.

Respectfully submitted,
MARY J. COOPER, President.

NEW BERN CHAPTER, No. 204—NEW BERN.

We have met all our pledges, and have contributed to the following: Soldiers' Home, North Carolina Room at Richmond, Educational Fund. Arlington Monument, Sinking Fund and Trader's Fund. We have increased our membership, by five new members, but have lost one by demit, and one by death, Mrs. Delemar, for several years Recording Secretary. Our local work is still unfinished, and we will not rest satisfied until every Veteran's grave has a marker and every Veteran a Cross of Honor. "The Little Minister" was given by the Dramatic Club of New Bern in the Spring, under the auspices of the Daughters, from which we realized over fifty dollars. Respectfully submitted.

LUCRETIA L. ROBERTS, President.

JAMES B. GORDON CHAPTER, No. 211—WINSTON-SALEM .

DODSON RAMSEUR CHAPTER, No. 214—CONCORD.

Twenty dollars in the Treasury promised to the Old Ladies' Home, Fayetteville, North Carolina. Hoping to realize more for this worthy cause later. Will contribute to the Soldiers' Home quite soon. Have already contributed largely to the N. C. Room in Virginia, for which we would like credit,—but will try to respond during this Convention to the very urgent call we have had for another contribution.

STONEWALL JACKSON CHAPTER, No. 220—CHARLOTTE.

The Chapter has given $25.00 to education during the year. It also has a Loan Fund (in memory of a Confederate Veteran) of $165.00, to be used by the daughter of a Veteran, for the purpose of securing an education. Special aid has been given to a needy widow of a Veteran.

One portrait (that of Gen. Stonewall Jackson) was presented to the Thompson Orphanage. The visit of Historian-General, Miss Mildred Rutherford, gave great pleasure to the Chapter, as did that of Miss Leazar, who was an inspiration to us.

JULIA M. ALEXANDER, President.

STATESVILLE CHAPTER, No. 276—STATESVILLE.

On our Memorial Day, May 10th, we had a larger number of Veterans present than in several years. Our orator, Mr. Henry Chambers, had been the leader of so many Veterans and there were reunion of friends who had not seen one another for fifty years. We have met all our pledges and we have money on hand to fulfil our obligations and furnish a room in the Old Women's Home at Fayetteville.

GUILFORD CHAPTER, No. 301—GREENSBORO.

Besides aiding in a very material way several Veterans, all that came to our knowledge, we have contributed regularly to the support of a sick Veteran with family of eight children living in our city.

LIZZIE M. LINDSAY, President.

ROBERT E. LEE CHAPTER, No. 324—LEXINGTON.

Our Chapter has been active during the past year and interest in and zeal for the work has increased. The monthly meetings have been well attended and the programs rendered by the members, in the line of study of the men and battles of the Civil War, have been interesting and instructive.

The District meeting for the 5th, was entertained by our Chapter and was attended by delegates from Salisbury, Statesville, Concord, and Thomasville. During the year six new members have been added to our roll and we feel sure that the year has been one of progress for Robert E. Lee Chapter, No. 324.

MRS. W. H. MENDENHALL, President.

GEN. GEO. B. ANDERSON CHAPTER, No. 335—HILLSBORO.

The Gen. George Burgwyn Anderson Chapter has paid all of its dues; observed all days of obligation; responded to every appeal for aid that it has received; and is still hoping to raise funds sufficient to erect a memorial to the gallant 1727 men of Orange County who were among the first at Bethel, and last at Appomattox, and everywhere else between those two, where fighting was to be done.

Respectfully submitted,

MISS REBECCA CAMERON, President.

THOMAS RUFFIN CHAPTER, No. 341—GOLDSBORO.

Forty-one applicants for Crosses of Honor. Gave a very large picnic to Veterans on June 3rd. We sent turkeys at Thanksgiving and Christmas to the Veterans. We have enrolled 22 new members during the year. Sent $15.00 for Arlington Monument. Sent $1.00 to Jefferson Davis' Home. $10.00 to the N. C. Room in Richmond. We have offered two Gold Medals, one to the Goldsboro High School, and one to the County High School for the best paper on the part that Wayne County took in the War between the States. All papers to be turned over to our Chapter Historian. Altogether we have had the best of years.

J. S. CARR CHAPTER, No. 355—DURHAM.

We have had a good year. Death claimed one our our most loyal members, Mrs. Taylor. Our Chapter made a heroic effort to secure the "Home for Confederate Widows," subscriptions amounting to $2,000 were secured.

May 10th was observed more generally than ever before in the history of our town; the stores were tastefully decorated, the streets thronged with people in holiday attire, the parade was imposing, and a full house greeted the orator of the day, General Cox. Music was furnished by Cornet Band-Orchestra, and the pupils of Durham High School.

Maj. H. A. London gave us a historical treat on January 19. He gave us facts that could not be gleaned from histories, and his speech will ever be remembered by all who were fortunate to hear him.

MRS. B. N. MANN, President.

MRS. W. M. SPEED, Secretary.

ANSON CHAPTER, No. 357—WADESBORO.

Anson Chapter has done a year of faithful work and has given to the educational fund, pledged $10.00 each to Arlington and Shiloh Monuments, Jefferson Davis Home and Endowment Fund, and several worthy causes. As in every town where there is a Chapter our citizens look to us for the dignified observance of the South's "Saint Days" and they are never disappointed. September 20th we helped give a dinner to about 400 ex-slaves and 100 Veterans, an occasion of the warmest cordiality and good results. We are sending 14 papers to our State Historian, and hope to do more next year. Our Chapter has lost no member by death this year, but feels a personal loss in the passing over to the Great Captain of Risden T. Bennett, late Colonel of the 14th N. C. Regiment. Those who love him feel that his loyal soul is inexpressibly gladdened in the company of all soldiers who now "Rest From Their Labors."

MARY BENNETT LITTLE.

SOUTHERN STARS CHAPTER, No. 477—LINCOLNTON.

We have had a great deal of work to do in our Memorial Hall this year, and except for our assistance to the Educational Fund, we've done very little State work. We had the pleasure of entertaining our District for one day in Memorial Hall and so celebrating the Hundredth Anniversary of the old building in which our prominent County men have been educated. We've spent $18.00 on new books for our library.

J. E. B. STUART CHAPTER, No. 483—FAYETTEVILLE.

Our merchants always stand behind us at this time with all necessary funds. Hon. E. Y. Webb made a grand address. We have gained one new member, but lost one of our most valued ones by death, September 23. She was a real woman of the Confederacy, an ardent, enthusiastic Daughter of the Confederacy, and we mourn the loss of Mrs. M. A. Lutz.

Respectfully submitted,

One Veteran's especial needs received our substantial attention in the form of a casket for his departed wife. During the year we decided to furnish a room in a local hospital to be known as the "Josephine Lane Memorial Room," in honor of Miss Lane, the Chapter's President, who died last October. Respectfully submitted,

MRS. MICHAEL SCHENCK, President.
MRS. L. E. FISHER, Secretary.

Our Chapter has done very good work this year. We have had one hundred and eleven dollars contributed toward our Drinking Font, which we hope to erect in the near future as a memorial to our Confederate dead. We have planned to give our Veterans a banquet the latter part of this month, which we hope will be of great pleasure and inspiration to us.

The meetings have been well attended and interest taken in the work. Respectfully submitted,

MRS. E. N. RICKS,
Corresponding Secretary, U. D. C. Confederate Greys.

SCOTLAND NECK CHAPTER, No. 860—SCOTLAND NECK.

On Lee's birthday the members of the U. D. C. gave an oyster

On the 10th of May the annual observance was made by decorating the graves in the cemetery, assisting the Veterans in their exercises, and serving a barbecue dinner to those present. The cost of this memorial was $3,128.00, and the Chapter is proud to report that the amount was paid in full before it was unveiled.

All Veterans, Sons of Veterans, and Children of the Confederacy were entertained at a banquet provided by the Scotland Chapter in the opera house. The speaker of the day was Gen. Wm. R. Cox, of Richmond, Va.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. J. H. DIXON, President.

ROANOKE MINUTE MEN CHAPTER, No. 928—LITTLETON.

We have worked unitedly and enthusiastically during the entire year. We feel our efforts have been marked by rapid progress, progressive as to the addition of a number of valuable members to our Chapter, thus enabling us to make a much better financial report—a channel through which success and greater usefulness is attained. May 10th was most successfully observed. A splendid address, excellent music, and a good old Southern barbecue, added much to the pleasure of our old Soldiers. Eight (8) Crosses of Honor were presented.

Gladly we have met all obligations and responded to every call. We contributed $10 to the Educational Fund; $1.00 to Shiloh; $5.00 to Old Soldiers' Home, Raleigh; $1.00 to N. C. Room, Richmond; $12.25 Taxes; $1.00 Sinking Fund, and $13.05 for flowers for departed loved ones.

Have aided old Soldiers and their families, and assisted a Soldier to attend the Re-union at Gettysburg.

With appropriate exercises we observed Lee-Jackson Day, Memorial Day, and President Davis' Birthday. On these occasions most excellent papers were read by our four Historians.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. HENRY PERCIVAL DAWSON, Treasurer.

WILLIAM A. ALLEN CHAPTER, No. 936—KENANSVILLE.

(See Table.)

HAYWOOD CHAPTER, No. 940—WAYNESVILLE.

The Haywood Chapter has a membership of fifteen paid members, a number of unpaid members; general and State taxes settled; has contributed to the N. C. Room at Richmond, and Arlington Monument; also to Shiloh Monument Fund.

On the third of June, which the Chapter celebrates not only as the birthday of Jefferson Davis, but also observes as Memorial Day, a number of "Crosses of Honor" were awarded by our District Manager, Mrs. E. B. Glenn, who addressed the Veterans in a most eloquent and touching manner. A pleasing feature of the occasion was the rendition of fine music and the singing of Southern war ballads, followed by a bountiful picnic dinner to Veterans and visitors. Flowers were taken to Greenwood Cemetery, where many of our brave Soldiers, who "wore the gray" sleep peacefully. A letter from the President was read, whose illness prevented her being present, and resolutions of thanks and sympathy were sent her from the Veterans. Two beautiful designs of Confederate Monuments were on exhibition during the exercises, and it is gratifying to state that definite steps have been taken to erect a Monument, in memory of Haywood County Confederate Soldiers, and a small amount has been secured for this purpose. And an appeal made, by Chapter, to State Legislature, for the enactment of a law, authorizing the Board of County Commissioners to make a donation to this worthy cause. With best wishes for a pleasant and profitable State Convention, this Report is respectfully submitted. MRS. M. J. BRANNER, President.

PERSON COUNTY CHAPTER, No. 943—ROXBORO.

We observed June 3rd as our Annual Reunion. Gen. T. W. Bickett delivered an elegant address on this occasion, and a bountiful dinner was served to the Veterans and their wives. Contributed ten dollars to Educational Fund. Have one application for membership. We have not contributed to outside causes this year as we are still trying to raise money for our monument.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. A. LONG, President.

MRS. W. R. HAMBRICK, Cor. Secretary.

GRAHAM CHAPTER, No. 944—GRAHAM.

Our Chapter is still working hard to build a monument in Graham, but our fund grows very slowly. We have aided one old Veteran in our town who is very feeble and poor. We had a very interesting program on the 19th of January, and our Chapter has offered a prize of $5.00 to the child in the County, from the Higher Grades of the Public School, who will write the best essay on Lee and Jackson, and read it on the 19th of January at Graham Graded School.

GASTONIA CHAPTER, No. 955—GASTONIA.

The Gastonia Chapter sends warmest greetings to the Convention in session at Tarboro. It gives us pleasure to report undiminished interest and continued progress in the work of this Chapter during the past year. Five new members have been enrolled. We observed January 19th with appropriate exercises, served refreshments to about 45 Veterans and bestowed five Crosses. The delegates, whom we sent to the District Meeting at Lincolnton, caught the enthusiasm of the Historian, Miss Leazar, which resulted in a collection of over 80 historical papers. These have been sent in and the Committee continues to receive them. Our Memorial Exercises were very delightful. Hon. E. Y. Webb, in a happy manner, introduced Gov. Locke Craig, who made an able address to a large, appreciative audience. A most bountiful dinner was served to about 200 Veterans. Our Chapter presented a portrait of Governor Vance to the Gastonia Graded School, also gave a gold medal to the Tenth Grade for the best essay on "The Life of Stonewall Jackson." We observed "Shiloh Day" and "Davis' Birthday" with a suitable program. During the past year we have placed markers on 17 graves of Veterans, at a cost of $57.00. We have contributed to N. C. Room, Richmond, $5.00; Shiloh, $5.00; Soldiers' Home, Raleigh, $5.00; Educational Fund, $10.00; Jefferson Davis Home, $1.00.

Our Chapter has met regularly and had good attendance. We have met all obligations. We have three candidates for membership and will be registered at an early date. We hope to secure more members by the next Convention. We entertained the District Convention in April and feel that it helped us very much to have visiting Daughters with us. Mrs. Leo D. Heartt, our Director, proved very interesting and enthusiastic.

MRS. F. H. BROOKS, President.

We have visited the sick veterans, and gave $13.00 to three who needed help. On June 3rd we provided the annual dinner with appropriate exercises for the veterans of the community. We were much gratified at having presented to us a portrait of Col. Frank M. Parker by his daughter, Mrs. Mary Battle on this occasion. We have a sum on hand for the Confederate Home for Women. Respectfully submitted,

MRS. DAISY CRUMP WHITEHEAD, President.

CHALMERS GLENN CHAPTER, No. 81—LEAKSVILLE-SPRAY.

Discrepancy in receipts and disbursements is explained by balance carried over from 1912. We have sent a contribution of $10.00 to Arlington and several other smaller helps.

October 3, 1913. MRS. W. R. WALKER, President.

BRIARFIELD CHAPTER, No. 1151—THOMASVILLE.

We are still doing what we can on our Monument fund, which we expect to erect in our own town. Our meetings have been interesting and splendid programs.

The 10th of May we entertained the A. A. Hill Camp of Davidson County, and the Soldiers in and around our town which were 150 in number. The exercises were held in the Church, marched to the cemetery, decorated the graves, then served dinner in the Town Hall. This dinner was one that might please the most fastidious, everything in abundance. Then they were entertained at the moving picture show, last an automobile ride over our town. They were very happy and loud in their words of appreciation, but they were not half as happy as the members of Briarfield Chapter.

MRS. MYERS, President.
MRS. J. N. PEACOCK, Secretary.

D. H. HILL CHAPTER, No. 1207—ELIZABETH CITY.

MRS. O. M. ROYSTER, President.

We have erected and paid for our monument, costing $2,500.00, which was unveiled on the 25th of September, by six little girls of the Annie Virginia Jackson Chapter. This together with the reunion of the Veterans was a memorable day for Hertford County. The speaker of the day was Hon. T. W. Bickett.

We have furnished our Chapter room this year.

MRS. LIZZIE POWELL STEDMAN, Vice-President.

NORFLEET HARRELL CHAPTER, No. 1234--MURFREESBORO

This year we have made our programs more interesting by having original papers read each month; also a musical number or so. We found that this made the meetings much more attractive. We had our Musical Committee and our Literary Committee —and each committee saw that we had a paper and a musical number each month. We gave a short play on October 31st, and served refreshments. The Chlidren's Chapter served in witches' costumes. Receipts $33.17. For the last month or so we have been selling home-made candy, the "Daughters" make it, and the little "Daughters" are more than glad to sell it. We are now at work on a play which we hope to present next week.

KING'S MOUNTAIN CHAPTER, No. 1277—KING'S MOUNTAIN.

Our Chapter appoints a committee each month to visit our Veterans socially, and to make them donations of various kinds; for the past two months the committee has been young girls, who have played and sung for the old Soldiers, encouraged them to relate their war experiences and made them happy in different ways. Miss Bessie Simonton is our "Angel of the Camp" to our Veterans, who receive her visits with childish delight. We are placing one Veteran, of 80 years, in the Soldiers' Home. Our Chapter members are loyal and faithful.. Our Chapter bought an Encyclopedia of History for $32.00 this year, als osent $2.00 to Shiloh Monument, and $9.00 to Arlington Monument, besides all other usual calls.

MRS. W. A. RIDENHOUR,
Treasurer King's Mountain Chapter.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. ATKINS, Secretary.

TRANSYLVANIA CHAPTER, No. 1353—BREVARD.

In October 1913 the Transylvania Chapter purchased a building on the Court Square in Brevard. It was furnished with library table and chairs, and "Old Hickory" porch chairs, and lighted with electricity. In the surrounding grove, which is also covered by our lease, we have 30 park benches and a drinking fountain. A chimney and shelves had to be added and a partition removed, but by February 1st the Confederate Memorial Library was opened in this, our Chapter House, and membership cards were on sale. Three hundred volumes have been added and 1,400 circulated. A good friend loaned us $200.00 to help pay for our building and we have $500.00 insurance on building and contents, and as soon as we can repay this debt we hope to add a rest room as an honor to our Confederate women. In April we had the honor and privilege to entertain the first meeting of the First District, Mrs. E. B. Glenn, presiding.

This report would be far from complete if we failed to mention the successful but arduous work of our Chapter Historian, Mrs. T. F. Patton, Jr., and of the Library Committee, Mrs. A. H. Caldwell, Chairman. ANNIE JEAN GASH, President.

McDOWELL CHAPTER, No. 1364—MARION.

A Children's Chapter has recently been organized with twenty members, named in honor of Col. Jno. A. Flemming, highest ranking officer from McDowell County; Mrs. J. L. C. Bird, Leader.

ASHLEY HORNE CHAPTER, No. 1481—CLAYTON.

The Ashley Horne Chapter makes its official bow to the U. D. C., assembled in convention in Tarboro, and submits its first report. It was organized July 17, 1913. It was our privilege to have with us on this happy occasion our most gracious President, Mrs. Marshall Williams, who presided at the meetings, and the election of officers. Mrs. Williams expressed the wish that the Chapter be named "The Ashley Horne Chapter," which met with the approval unanimously of all present. There was a wonderful enrollment of charter members, thirty-five. We now have thirty-six bonafide members, and three applications for membership. We hope to reach fifty before another year. After paying all taxes, dues, contributing to Sinking Fund and $5.00 to Shiloh Monument Fund we have in bank $18.45. At our first regular meeting, August 28th, we decided to take part in the big celebration of "Clayton's Get-Acquainted Day," August 29th, which we did with considerable credit. It was a good opportunity to let the people know about us, and the work we expect to do. Our members are interested and energetic. We are at work among the Veterans and expect to organize a Camp and award Crosses on January 19th. We hope to organize a Children's Chapter, and it is our ambition to furnish the reception room in our Confederate Woman's Home.

Being so young in the cause we have done no real active work, but henceforth we are in hailing distance when the calls come for the furtherance of our great work.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. HERBERT McCULLERS,
President Ashley Horne Chapter.

TRENTON CHAPTER, No. 1472—TRENTON.

Trenton Chapter, 1472, Trenton, was organized May 2, 1913, with twenty members. We have four new applicants for membership. Our Chapter has paid all dues, observed Memorial Day, Davis' Birthday and contributed $5.00 to N. C. Room in Richmond Museum. On Memorial Day we had as our guest Mr. E. A. Daniel of Washington, who made a brilliant address. After the exercises at the cemetery, dinner was served the Veterans of Jones County.

Respectfully submitted,

BESSIE WHITAKER.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. N. BROCK, President.

CHILDREN'S CHAPTER REPORTS.

WALLACE-REINHARDT CHAPTER—LINCOLNTON.

The children of the Wallace-Reinhardt Chapter, with the aid of their first leader, Mrs. George H. Brown (nee Miss Lena Reinhardt) have completed their work, which was the erection of a monument or drinking fountain, on the Public Square of Lincolnton, at the cost of $1,200.50, paying for it in two years, which was one year less than time allowed on the work, for which we are justly proud. No other work is on hand. With this, I resign as Leader and trust a more efficient one will be elected and much good accomplished.

Very cordially,

MRS. R. S. REINHARDT,

Leader Wallace Reinhardt Chapter, Children of the Confederacy.

Lincolnton, N. C., Oct. 3, 1913.

"ROCKINGHAM VOLUNTEERS—REIDSVILLE.

The name of the "Little Daughters Chapter" is Rockingham Volunteers. We have thirty-seven members. We meet the first Friday in every month. The dues are ten cents per year. We have a good attendance and real interesting meetings; splendid papers are written by the girls, and we have music. Refreshments are always served by the hostess.

MRS. R. G. GLADSTONE,
MRS. EUGENE IRVIN, Leaders.

ROCKY MOUNT JUNIORS—ROCKY MOUNT.

We are about forty in number. Our meetings are held monthly in the homes of the different members, with good attendance. The children unite with the Daughters in celebrating all anniversaries. Our efficient little President, Annie Smith, and Treasurer, Margaret Daughtridge, arrange very interesting programs for each meeting. Some of the big Daughters have been kind enough to say they enjoy the meetings of the children more than those of the older ones. But you know everybody enjoys what children do. We have given five dollars to Arlington Monument, and five dollars to Shiloh, and helped one old Veteran.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. R. H. BURTON, Leader.

LEE-JACKSON CHAPTER—DURHAM.

Our Chapter has met with a great loss this year, in two ways. The former Leader having married and moved to a sister city, Greensboro, the President and five members having graduated with honors and gone away to boarding schools. We are now refilling our ranks with younger girls. During the year the girls assisted in a "Kermiss" for U. D. C., also in 10th of May and 19th of January exercises given by the Julian S. Carr Chapter. Our financial report amounts to $20.00 collected in dues, 25 cents a year, candy sale and special collection. For next year we have taken as our work to assist in the completion of our U. D. C. Monument in Durham Cemetery. MRS. B. L. TYREE,

Leader Children's Chapter.
ANNIE COBB, President Chapter.
Durham, N. C., October 5, 1913.

THE DIXIE GREY CHAPTER—HICKORY.

The Dixie Grey Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, is proud to report a most successful year. Eight new members have been added, making twenty-eight in all. Eleven meetings have been held, with splendid attendance. The Confederate Catechism has been studied, papers on the principal generals have been prepared and read by the Children; observing Lee's birthday, Jackson's birthday, and also the anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg. Our meetings are held the first Saturday in every month, and the children look forward to the date with a great deal of pleasure. Light refreshments are usually served, and old war songs are sung. They also took a prominent part in Memorial Day exercises. Altogether we think our first year has been a great success.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. W. X. REID,

MRS. H. CHAS. MENZIES, Leaders.

JANE HUGHES CHAPTER—NEW BERN.

Jane Hughes Chapter, Children of the Confederacy held regular monthly meetings during the past winter, and while the attendance was small, much interest was shown. A good program was rendered at each meeting made out by a program committee appointed among themselves. To familiarize the little ones with the names of Southern heroes, they answered the roll call by naming some Confederate general, and in the case of the older ones they gave some bit of historic fact in the life of that general, such as the date of his birth and death, or some battle won. Frequently we recited the catechism. We also read pleasing articles from "Carolina and the Southern Cross," to which the Chapter subscribed. The children joined with the Daughters in celebrating the 10th of May anniversary. To please the children fancy, confections were served at the meetings.

MRS. BEN MOORE, Leader.

New Bern, N. C., October 6, 1913.

DAVIS CENTENNIAL CHAPTER—STATESVILLE.

Davis Centennial Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, hold regular meetings on the first Saturday of each month at the home of their Leader. Meetings are well attended.

The work of the Chapter consists in taking an active part in observance of "Memorial Day," Lee and Jackson's Day, and the 3rd of June, birthday of President Jefferson Davis, we entertained at the home of the Leader the Veterans and the Daughters with songs and recitations. And each child had something to tell about Jefferson Davis. Refreshments were served. The Veterans seemed to enjoy and appreciate it very much. The Chapter is in splendid condition and we hope to have a better report in 1914.

MRS. D. S. THOMAS, Leader.

GEORGE DAVIS CHAPTER—WILMINGTON.

Wilmington, N. C., October 6, 1913.

It is with pleasure that I report the year's work of the George Davis Chapter, a most faithful band of workers.

Since the last report, in 1912, when 70 were enrolled, 7 members have moved away, 4 been transferred to Cape Fear Chapter and we have added 36 new members, making a total enrollment of 91.

Meetings have been held regularly on the 18th day of each month, and are largely attended. The meetings are conducted in a parliamentary manner, in accordance with the rules and regulations laid down by the Cape Fear Chapter.

The Officers of the Chapter are as follows:

President—Mary Hargrove Hall.

Vice-President—Athalia Rankin Bunting.

Secretary—Bessie Brock Toon.

Corresponding Secretary—Winifred Shepard.

Treasurer—Lenox Gore Cooper.

Historian and Custodian of the Record Book—Veritas Macon Sanders.

Registrar—Katherine Turrentine.

Many valuable papers have recently been added to our scrap book.

The Chapter took an active part in the observance of Memorial Day, at which time 125 wreaths were made by the children, who assisted the ladies in placing the 550 wreaths used on this occasion; they also assisted in the observance of Lee & Jackson Day; and June 3, the Birthday of our Beloved Jefferson Davis. They take great pride in caring for the George Davis Monument and grounds.

The Confederate Catechism is taught at each meetting, every question answered perfectly in unison. Twenty minutes of the Historical Reading are given up for this purpose.

The Chapter has held three entertainments during the past year, as follows: An All-Halloween Party, the Armory being taxed to its utmost, $32.00 realized; a Birthday Party, February 13th, each child bringing in pennies the number corresponding to his or her age, $7.79 realized. This occasion was graced by the presence of Mrs. Marshall Williams, State President, as guest of honor. Mrs. William Parsley, Honorary President and Mrs. R. C. Cantwell, President of Cape Fear Chapter, were also present. Miss Mary Hall, President presented Mrs. Williams with a boquet of Palma violets and roses. May 1st, May Day Festival, crowning the Queen of the May-Pole Dance, $27.70 realized.

All told during the year, we have made $92.50. We have assisted in forming one Children's Chapter, sent one Veteran to the Gettysburg Reunion, and have made the following donations: Veteran's Expenses, $13.85; Home for Confederate Women, $2; Memorial Arch, Raleigh, $1; Endowment Fund, N. C. Room Confederate Museum, $2; Gettysburg Monument, $1; Jackson Monument, $1; Johnson's Island Cemetery, $1; Shiloh Monument, $1; Chapel Hill Monument, $2; Soldiers' Home (Eastern Section) $2; Veterans' Relief (local) $2; Total, $28.85.

Contributed picture, neatly framed, of George Davis Monument to the Confederate Museum at Richmond. We have given pound parties to two very needy veterans, and clothing to three veterans. With love and greeting.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. CUTHBERT MARTIN, Leader.

HALIFAX LIGHT INFANTRY CHAPTER—HALIFAX.

The Halifax Light Infantry Chapter was organized on May 13, 1913, with thirteen members, adding two new names to the roll at the next meeting. The members pay 35 cents yearly dues, so as to have some money in the Treasury to defray any necessary expenses. The Chapter has no officers, but a different member is appointed to act as Secretary at each meeting. The present aim of the Chapter is to study, in an interesting manner, the history of the War and the lives of the noble men who fought so bravely. At each meeting there is a program gotten up by two of the members and on the program of each month one member is appointed Historian. The duty is to relate some anecdote she has heard about her grand-father, or some soldier she knows, or her parents know. These little bits of history are to be recorded and preserved in the Chapter. Simple refreshments are served. The Chapter has had three meetings and the members are full of interest and enthusiasm, which bids fair to make it a splendid success.

MISS NANNIE M. GARY, Leader.

W. G. QUACKENBUSH CHAPTER—LAURINBURG

I am very sorry to report that the W. G. Quackenbush Children's Chapter cannot compete for the banner this year. I, as Leader, have been forced by circumstances to resign and no one has been put in my place. The Chapter is still of good size, tho several are too old now to be in, and we have raised about $125, and have given money to two girls of Confederate origin. The Chapter paid the last on the indebtedness of the monument and assisted at the unveiling, furnishing the band for the occasion.

Respectfully,
MRS. T. T. COVINGTON.

ROBERT E. LEE CHAPTER—ASHEVILLE.

We have a good little Chapter. Have awarded several certificates recently, and will award others at the Lee-Jackson meeting in January. We have a small bank account and we take Miss Archbell's paper, Carolina and the Southern Cross. Our latest work is getting together true stories of our County Veterans.

My heart is full of love and enthusiasm for the South, for everything She holds most holy in her past. So, it is my great desire to see the children of the South—the little ones, and those as yet unborn, rise up, and call their Grandsires blessed, and the land that bore them, a sacred land, purified with the tears of their Mothers, made holy by the blood of their Fathers!

ELIZABETH E. L. GLENN,
Leader Children's Chapter, Asheville.

THE MRS. WILLIAM M. PARSLEY CHAPTER—MURFREESBORO.

The Mrs. William M. Parsley Chapter of the Children of the Confederacy sends greetings to the "Daughters."

Besides our regular meetings we have had one social meeting this year. We have assisted the Daughters in all of their entertainments and have sold candies twice a week for them for the past month or so. We have made the following disbursements: Soldiers' Home, $5; Confederate Woman's Home, $5; Gettysburg Monument, $1.50. GERTRUDE LAWRENCE, Leader.

FRANK BENNETT CHAPTER—WADESBORO.

Madam President, Daughters of the Confederacy:

We, The Frank Bennett Chapter of the Auxillary, was the ninth

Chapter to be organized in the State, at Wadesboro, N. C. We feel ourselves to be energetic, with a large membership of over 50, boys and girls, all interested in the work of the Confederacy, so dear to our hearts. During the year we have held monthly meetings, except during the summer months, and also have we observed the various memorial days, notably on May 10th, 1913. The Chapter assembled at the home of our Leader, Mrs. E. N. Baker, at 4 P. M. On invitation Capt. N. W. Schenck, an aged Veteran of 84 years, asked to make an historical talk to the children and friends. He commenced his remarks with the Thirteen English Colonies, the Taxation of England and Import Taxes, and the landing of British troops at Boston. The Battle at Bunker Hill and the beginning of the Revolution, commencing 1776, and peace came in 1783, tracing the acts of the American Congress later on. In Colonial days all Colonies had slaves. Trouble came when the Northern States emancipated their slaves, a right held exclusive by each Sovereign State of which Congress had nothing to do, thus violating the rights of the people. Trouble continued widening the breach, resulting in the War Between the States, 1860-1865. After these very fitting remarks the children with their wreaths and flowers, marched to the cemetery and decorated the graves of our brave Confederates.

On the death of Col. R. T. Bennett, the father of Mrs. Eugene Little, our beloved President of the U. D. C., we contributed a wreath of flowers as a memorial to his bravery as a Confederate Soldier, and to show our love and esteem in which we held Mrs. Little. In consequence of our President, and Treasurer going away to School, the Chapter elected officers for the ensuing year, this October meeting.

We have pledged $10 to the Arlington Monument and are working to secure same. On November 1, when our usual Chrysanthemum Show takes place, we, The Frank Bennetts, have agreed to have a candy booth, when we not only hope but expect to realize our pledge for the monument. With all good wishes and greetings to Chapter Auxillary and to Daughters of the U. D. C., we remain faithfully yours,

THE FRANK BENNETT CHAPTER, AUXILLARY.
Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPHINE S. BAKER, Leader.

Wadesboro, N. C., October 6, 1913.

THE CHARLES FISHER CHAPTER—SALISBURY.

The Charles Fisher Chapter of Children of the Confederacy, of Salisbury, was organized May 9, 1913, with an enrollment of fifteen members and Mrs. P. A. Paston as Leader.

We are studying Mrs. Allison's Catechism and the children are very anxious to entertain the Chapter each month at their homes, and have very interesting papers on our Southern Generals..

We have made quite an extensive study of the life of Col. Chas. Fisher, our name-sake, who was a Rowan County man.

As our Chapter is very young we have made no definite plans but hope to accomplish many things before the Convention meets again next fall. MRS. P. A. PASTON, Leader,

Chas. Fisher Chapter of Children of Confederacy.

JEFFERSON DAVIS CHAPTER—WELDON.

Weldon, N. C., Sept. 26, 1913.

Report, Jefferson Davis Chapter of Children, U. D. C, of N. C.: Organized June, 1912; number members, 14; monthly meetings; dues 5 cents per month.

This is an interesting little band and gives promise of growth in numbers and zeal. Respectfully submitted,

MRS. WALTER E. DANIEL, President.

DIXIE-LEE CHAPTER—TARBORO.

We have a membership of twenty-five. The children co-operate with the home U. D. C. Chapter in all work, and give loving service to the Veterans of the County. We have been working to establish a Public Library, and accumulating books for that purpose, hoping some day to have a handsome library to Gen. Wm. D. Pender's memory. Mr. Dorsey has said that he would much prefer a library to his father's memory, and would help to erect one for Tarboro, so we are working with that end in view.

Respectfully,

ADA M. BASS, Leader.

JOSEPHINE LANE CHAPTER—HENDERSONVILLE.

The Josephine Lane Chapter, Auxillary to the Margaret Davis Hays Chapter, was organized June 6, 1913, with thirty-two members enrolled and the following officers elected: President, Mary Brooks; Vice-President, Allen Rhodes; Secretary and Treasurer, Virginia Lowndes.

THE TAR HEEL CHAPTER—HIGH POINT.

The Tar Heel Children's Chapter, of High Point, has only been organized about a month, and only one meeting has been held, so our report will be very brief.

We have a membership of twenty-five, and a number of application blanks have been asked for, so that by our next monthly meeting we will have thirty, or more members, I am sure.

We have decided to make the study of our Catechism first, and to learn true Confederate History, and the songs. The members are very enthusiastic and are making plans for the next year's work.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. ALBERT E. TATE, Leader.

High Point, N. C., October, 1913.

WINNIE DAVIS CHAPTER—KINSTON.

Report of the Winnie Davis Auxiliary Chapter of The Daughters of the Confederacy of Kinston, North Carolina, for 1913:

Number of members enrolled, 81; number of new members, 11; number of active members, 30.

About sexenty Winnie Davis children take part on public occasions and help with music, etc. Subjects discussed this year were, first, the possibility of possession by the U. D. C. of the Kinston Battle-Ground to be placed under the care of the local U. D. C. Chapter and of the town, to be used as a park for Kinston and a site for the U. D. C. Monuments, etc. A committee was appointed to obtain an option on the site. This was found impracticable for the present on account of the title, but the idea has not been abandoned by this Chapter.

Second, a discussion of the Confederate flags; and third, War Reminiscences in North Carolina. A sale of "Carolina and Southern Cross" was held on the streets of Kinston. The money resulting from the sale was used in mailing out the next issue.

A concert given at the moving picture theatre replenished our empty treasury and enabled us to redeem a pledge to General Carr for the Stonewall Jackson Monument at Richmond. We contributed two dollars ($2.50) and fifty cents to this fund, sending the money to General Carr, at Durham.

This Chapter has helped the mother Chapter on every call, and have pledged themselves to help to build a monument.

MRS. L. V. ARCHBELL, Leader.

KATIE COBB and RUBY SPEAR, Committee.

ANNIE K. KYLE CHAPTER—FAYETTEVILLE.

The Annie K. Kyle Chapter again presents its report for a year of successful work. The enrollment shows an increase of ten new members. These fill vacancies of an equal number, who, having reached the age limit, will be promoted to the Mother Chapter. Two or more have moved away and one bright member has been called to "cross over the river." We mourn the loss. The little Daughters have united with the grown Chapter in the several Celebration Days, honoring our dead heroes on these sacred occasions with recitation and song, thus adding an interesting feature to the services.

On May the first they fought in the "War of Roses." After the victory the "Dance around the May Pole" took place, and a good sum was netted for one day's festivities. Vacation is over, and regular meetings will not be in order. The study of the Catechism never being a silent number, and plans formed to replenish our Treasury, so that we can respond to the calls of need.

Greetings to you from the Annie K. Kyle Chapter !

Respectfully submitted,

(MISS) KATE MATTHEWS, Leader.

THE ORREN RANDOLPH SMITH CHAPTER—HENDERSON.

"The Orren Randolph Smith" Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, send Greetings to the President and Members of the United Daughters of the North Carolina Assembly at Tarboro.

The Chapter was organized July 31, 1912, with Mrs. M. J. O'Neil as Leader, Tempie Bass, Secretary, William Waddill, Treasurer. Since January 1, 1913, owing to ill health of Mrs. O'Neil, Mrs. George A. Rose has been acting as Leader.

The Orren Randolph Smith Chapter was named for a member of our Camp of Confederate Veterans, a Veteran of three wars, and the Designer of the first Confederate Flag, The Stars and Bars.

Mr. Smith presented the Chapter with a very handsome flag, expressing his appreciation. Mr. Smith has since passed away and his body was wrapped in this flag, his gift to the children, and they covered his grave with flowers.

When the North Carolina Daughters presented a handsome watch fob to Mr. Smith on January 19th, 1913 on account of feeble health, he was unable to be present at the exercises, and a committee of these little children received the token of love for him.

The Chapter has fifty-five members, of girls and boys, and on account of the difference in the ages of the children, the Chapter has been divided into three divisions, one, named for the former State President of the U. D. C., "Lucy Closs Parker," and two for prominent Confederate Officers, Col. W. H. Cheek and Captain W. B. Shaw.

Each Division holds a monthly meeting, but all work accomplished is in the name of The Orren Randolph Smith Chapter.

Some of the children attend the meeting of the Henry L. Wyatt Camp of Confederate Veterans each month and take a prominent part with the Daughters in celebrating, Jan. 19th, June 3rd, and May 10th. On one occasion they entertained the Veterans at dinner and a delightful musical program was rendered.

A beautiful Confederate flag has been placed on the coffin of every old soldier that has died since the Chapter has been organized.

The Chapter is now working to place stones over the graves of the Confederate dead in our cemetery. The children have raised $37.00 for flowers, flags and the dinner given the old soldiers. These children became so interested in the Re-union at Gettysburg recently, that they undertook to raise money to send the Veterans who were unable to pay their own expenses. They raised $211.70 which was spent for tickets to Gettysburg for the old veterans.

This Chapter knows the Confederate Catechism nicely. Our leader and the children are enthusiastic, and have mapped out splendid plans for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

TEMPIE BASS, Secretary.

Henderson, N. C., Oct. 1913.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED.

Chapter Presidents are requested to note especially:

Chapter Presidents will remember that all taxes, both State and General, must be paid to the State Treasurer, before votes can be counted in Convention. All members must be registered to vote them.

All Chapter Registrars must by September 15th of each year send a corrected list of members to State Registrar.

All Chapters are required to give a U. D. C. engraved certificate to each member. Cost, 15 cents each. Presidents are urged to attend to this.

All Chapter elections must be held at regular or called meetings in November. This is very important to get correct list in Minutes, both General and State.

Do not fail to notify Miss Daisy Denson, President of the Johnston-Pettigrew Chapter, Raleigh, by September 15th, how many delegates will attend Convention.

All orders for U. D. C. Badges must in future be sent to Mrs. E. K. Overstreet, Sylvania, Ga. Printed permits to be used in ordering can be obtained from her or your State President.

All orders will be returned to the Chapter Presidents.

No individual orders filled and no samples or cuts sent.

Prices: Without bar, $3.75 each; with bar, $4.50. No checks will be received, only money orders. Those wishing the Badges registered should include ten cents for registry fee.

To assist Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, the following ladies were appointed by her; Mrs. M. O. Winstead, Rocky Mount; Mrs. Wm. Bryan, New Bern; Miss Margaret Etheredge, Selma; Mrs. O. M. Royster, Hickory; Mrs. T. J. Wooldridge, Asheville; Mrs. B. N. Mann, Durham.

C. and Children's Application Blanks cost 1-2 cent each. Children's Certificates, 10 cents each. Please enclose money when ordering.
